Kosters Will Attend June Week Festivities At U.S. Naval Academy

Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Koster leave today (Thursday) for Annapolis, Maryland for June Week at the U. S. Naval Academy. Their younger son, Edward Hart Koster, will be graduated from the Academy on June 3.

The festivities of the traditional commencement celebration begin with a formal dress parade of the Brigade of Midshipman tomorrow, Friday. Formal dances, concerts by the U. S. Naval Academy Glee Club, and Midshipman Concert Band sports events including a baseball game with the West Point cadet team, religious services at the Naval Academy Chapel and dress parades each afternoon, are some of the events on the June Week schedule.

The Kosters' older son, Lieutenant Alfred M. Koster, IV, a 1937 Annapolis graduate, and his wife, of Norfolk, will also be there; also Colonel Koster's sister, Susan K. Brown of New York.

Schneiders Attend Meeting Of Telephone Pioneers, Asheville

Ed and Eleanor Schneider of 705 N. May St. attended the 38th Annual Assembly of the North Carolina Chapter 35, "Telephone Pioneers of America," on May 22, 23 and 24, at the Grove Park Inn, Asheville.

It was an occasion of fun, entertainment and fellowship in the "Land of the Sky," where nature has provided some of the most beautiful scenery in the world in these Carolina mountains.

Friday night's feature was a "Cabaret Ball" and Variety Show, each Council providing talent from their members. Ed is a member of the "Coastal Council," (Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co.). Their act in the Show was delegated to Ed & Eleanor as a dance team. They did a waltz, with variations, and an Argentine Tango, for which they received much applause and many compliments. Dancing followed the Show until 1 a. m.

The principal speakers at the business meeting, Saturday morning, were the Mayor of Asheville and Dr. W. Kenneth Goodson, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church, Winston-Salem. He is known and recognized throughout the Southeast as an outstanding and renowned speaker.

Ed retired with 35 years' service with the New York Telephone Co. He was superintendent of Buildings and Maintenance, in the Long Island Area. He is an architect by profession registered in New York State.

He and his wife Eleanor came to Southern Pines in 1951, and have been active in church, civic, hospital and other activities.

MISS JANICE THOMAS, AIRMAN MORTON, MARRIED SUNDAY AT HER HOME IN VASS

Miss Janice Lou Thomas of Vass and A/3C Bobby Richard Morton were married Sunday in a double ring ceremony at the bride's home.

Baskets of magnolia and ivy-twined candelabra with white candles formed the setting for the 3:30 p. m. ceremony.

The bride's pastor, the Rev. David Moe, officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white pique suit and a short veil. She carried a white, lace-covered Bible adorned with a white orchid and satin streamers.

Miss Doris Jean Thomas, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant, Billy Ray Thomas of Aberdeen brother of the bride was best man.

Mrs. Hatch Honored At Stork Shower

Mrs. J. V. Hatch, Jr., was given a surprise stork shower Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Jack Bennett on Midland Road. Assisting Mrs. Bennett as co-hostess was Mrs. Robert Ferguson.

A colorful lavender, white and yellow table decoration of baby carnation and yellow roses was displayed in a century-old Dresden cherub bowl. Refreshments continued the tri-color theme as they were skillfully decorated with confectionary flowers.

The honor guest was presented a lovely corsage of baby carnations and a gaily decorated bassinets.

Several games were played with players receiving prizes.

The honor guest's mother, Mrs. A. H. Garrison of Pinehurst and her husband's mother, Mrs. P. V. Hatch of Southern Pines, were among the guests. Others were Mrs. Woodson Hussey and daughters, Arlene and Nancy, Mrs. A. H. Garrison, Jr., Mrs. Pete Bullard, Mrs. James H. Garrison and Mrs. Ira P. Garrison, all of Pinehurst; Mrs. William Kirk of Aberdeen and Mrs. Fred Garrison of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Hatch, Jr. recently returned from Alaska, where her husband, [Sgt. Hatch, was stationed with the U. S. Air Force. The couple, with their children, Terri and Kevin, will be leaving next week for his new assignment at Empire AF Station in Michigan.

REV. CALDWELL INSTALLS ST. ANNE'S GUILD OFFICERS AT MEETING MONDAY

The outgoing president of St. Anne's Guild of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Mrs. Sherwood Brockwell, Monday opened the season's final meeting of the Guild, held at Penick Memorial Home, with a welcome to the special honor guests—the residents of the Home and the two Brownie Scout Troops, sponsored by the Guild, who were in charge of the program for the evening.

Stephanie Pollock, a Senior Scout, conducted the flag ceremony. Color bearers were Cadette Scout Grace Ponzer and Brownie Scout Susie Chandler. Junior Scouts Mary Davis and Sarah Brockwell were color guards.

At the conclusion of the flag ceremony, each of the above named scouts gave a brief resume of the activities of her particular branch of scouting.

Members of Brownie Troop 685, under the leadership of Mrs. Louis Daniel and Mrs. Vance Derby, told of their projects throughout the year and showed samples of their work.

A skit about a tailor's family disrupted by the little brownies, was presented by Brownie Troop 690, whose leaders are Mrs. Donald Bradley and Mrs. John McGovern.

Following the program, the Rev. R. Martin Caldwell, rector of Emmanuel Church, installed the following officers for 1964-65; Chairman, Mrs. Roy Grinnell; vice chairman, Mrs. Sherwood Brockwell; secretary, Mrs. Clarence Foster; treasurer, Miss Nancy W. Miller.

Also, the following committee chairmen: Christian Education, Mrs. E. P. Kuzmaul and Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins; Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Sidney Jackson; Missions, Mrs. Nicholas G. Chaltas; Personnel and College, Mrs. Melville Lochhead; United Thank Offering, Mrs. Charles Calais; Devotions, Mrs. Garland McPherson; Hospitality, Mrs. E. N. Schumacher.

After the benediction, guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. David Drexel assisted the Brownies in serving punch and Girl Scout cookies.

During the social hour, the members of St. Anne's presented a silver Revere bowl to past president, Miss Katherine Wiley. The bowl was inscribed: "To Kitty and Leonard, from St. Anne's Guild." Miss Wiley and Mr. Muddimer have recently announced their engagement, and he was also present at the meeting.

Girl Scout Troop 628 Hosts Box Supper For 6th Grade Troop

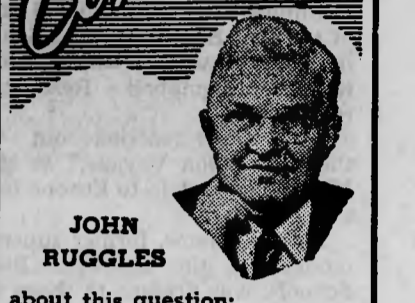

Mrs. William Bonsal's Girl Scout Troop 628 entertained Mrs. Ray McNally's Sixth Grade Troop, who will be Cadettes next year, at a box supper at the home of Mrs. Charles Phillips recently.

Preceding supper, the girls met at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church for a "Wide Game" which taught skills on emergency preparedness.

The whole program was planned and executed by the girls in line with their "social dependability challenge." Each hostess scout called and invited a sister scout from the younger group and prepared supper for her guest.

Games and songs were also enjoyed by the group from 3:30-6:30 Friday.

dolly corsage which were made by the ladies of the Episcopal Penick home in the craft room. A vase of Flemish roses was given to the guest wearing the "lucky" corsage.

Mrs. Donald R. Scott explained the purpose of the Silver Teas and told how the money would be used. The funds raised in the County will aid the Moore County Mental Health Association to pay the tuition of four people from this area to the Special School Session at St. Andrews College this summer. Two of these people have been selected by their departments to attend—Mrs. Sarah McI. McCaskill of the Moore County Welfare Dept. and J. Ed Cockman, a police officer from Sheriff Kelly's office in Carthage, will attend the full session. A teacher from the County Schools and a public health nurse will be selected to attend also.

The theme of the course is "Emotional Health in the Community" and is designed to give trained workers a new approach in recognizing mental disturbances in children and adults early enough to get efficient diagnoses and help in the homes, the schools and the courts.

Students will be housed at the College and the Moore County Mental Health Association will finance the course for those attending from this area.

Mrs. Julian Lake announced the appointment of three new chairmen: Mrs. Clement Monroe of Pinehurst, Mrs. Thomas Howe of Pinebluff and Mrs. Edward T. Nation of Whispering Pines. Silver Teas and events for the coming week are: a morning coffee for mothers and children at the home of Mrs. Edward T. Taws; a bridge given by Mrs. Charles Phillips, a bridge given by Mrs. W. Lamont Brown and a tea by Mrs. Willetts Peaslee, guest of Mrs. Scott.

Highlights of the week will be the picnic given by the Southern Pines Garden Club and a tea for 40 ladies given at the home of Mrs. Charles Pitts on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. W. Allen will entertain in her home in Aberdeen and teas will be held in the homes of Mrs. Walter Currie and B. E. Dotson in Carthage.

A musical will be given by Mrs. Warren Ferguson and Mrs. Warren Thomas in Cameron. It is hoped that the number of teas in the County will reach 100 by May 31.

Engaged Couple Feted At Dinner

Miss Kay Robinson and Jesse Williford, who will be married June 13, were honor guests at an informal party Saturday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Sheffield at their home on New Jersey Avenue. Red Roses decorated the tables and steaks were cooked outside.

The prospective bride was presented with a gift by her hosts. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roland White, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Kerns and Mr. and Mrs. David Comer.

Cuban Architect Is Newest Member Of Hayes-Howell Staff

The newest member of the staff of Hayes-Howell and Associates Architects, interviewed on his first day at work Tuesday, is Mario Gruart (the "G" is silent), a native of Havana, Cuba.

A professional architect who earned his degrees at the University of Havana and Ohio State, Mr. Gruart and his family came to the United States to live in 1959 because of the present Cuban regime.

With a politeness seemingly inherent in many residents of other countries who have come to live in America, Mr. Gruart did not mention these difficulties, merely agreeing when his interviewer asked the leading question. His parents, he said, are still living in Cuba.

With his wife, Lourdes (here, the last two letters of the name are stressed), and their three daughters, Lourdes nine, Alicia, seven, and Gloria, two months, the architect lives at 349 Crestview Road. The two older girls attend the East Southern Pines School. The family is Catholic and they expect to attend St. Anthony's Church here.

Asked why they decided to move here from Greensboro, where Mr. Gruart was associated with an architectural firm, he said, "Well, I like the place; it's a very nice town."

Asked, naturally, whether he played golf, Mr. Gruart's reply was a guarded, "more or less."
