

SOUTHERN PINES RECORDER'S COURT

A local man was sentenced to a year on the roads, with no privilege of suspended sentence, after three traffic charges against him were heard by Judge W. Harry Fullenwider in the regular Wednesday session of Southern Pines Recorder's Court last week.

James Robert Monroe, 37, was charged in one case with having no operator's license and with disobeying a stop sign. In another, the charge was driving after his license was revoked, an offense in which a year's prison sentence is mandatory. The court took note of the fact that Monroe had a record of several previous traffic law violations.

Appeal to Superior Court was entered by the defendant and bond was set at $500.

Monroe's son, James R. Monroe, Jr., 17, was a defendant in the same court session charged with having no operator's license and exceeding safe speed, resulting in an accident.

Jointly charged with the younger Monroe was William Eugene Rounds, 20, of Southern Pines whose sports car—with Monroe driving and Rounds as passenger—left Highway 22 and overturned, near St. Joseph's Hospital, early on the morning of May 17. Rounds, who was charged with allowing an unlicensed person to drive, had suffered a severe cut on his right foot and was treated at St. Joseph's. Monroe was scratched and bruised but not otherwise injured.

According to the testimony, Monroe had no driver's license, although Rounds said he asked and was told Monroe had one, before letting Monroe drive his car.

Judge Fullenwider taxed both the defendants with the costs and directed that Monroe walk twice to Howard Johnson's Restaurant and back, in place of paying a fine—once for himself and once for Rounds whose foot injury prevented his walking.

Two Fort Bragg soldiers, Gary L. Mantz and James E. Geislin, were charged with larceny of gasoline. They were taxed with the court costs and each was ordered to pay the cost of stolen gasoline, through the court, and it was directed that the commanding officer of each be informed of their conviction. Geislin was ordered confined to the local jail until 6 p. m. on the day of the trial and Mantz until 6:30 p. m.

A sentence of four months on the roads was suspended for two years, for Marvin Gay of Southern Pines who was charged with assault on a female, on payment of a fine of $15 and the costs and on condition he not be convicted of a similar offense for two years.

Other cases heard were:

Leslie Owen Capps, Sanford, speeding 45 in 35 zone, driving on wrong side of road, improper brakes, $10 and costs; Philip Hancock, non-support, nol pros with leave on payment of costs; Sigrid Blum Black, Route 2, Vass, speeding 65 in 35 zone, $10 and costs; James Howard McGrath, Greensboro, speeding 70 in 60 zone, $10 and costs; Paul Wiseman Reese, Pinebluff, no operator's license, pay costs (defendant had obtained license); John Cranford Rollins, Route 3, Carthage, no operator's license, judgment as of nonsuit; Clyde Earl McCrimmon, careless and reckless driving, pay costs and walk everywhere he goes from the day of trial to June 5—the passengers in the car to take one day's walking for the defendant; Harry L. Klabbatz, disobeying stop sign, $5 and costs; Reginald Howard Wilson, improper muffler, pay costs (muffler has been fixed); Thomas W. Bailey, Star Route, Vass, disobeying stop sign, $5 and costs; Dixie Parsons Blake, Route 1, Candor, disobeying stop sign, pay costs and walk to Howard Johnson's Restaurant and back; Jean McKinnon Hubbard, disobeying stop sign, $10 and costs; Charlie Herman McCrimmon, Route 1, Cameron, speeding 70 in 60 zone, $10 and costs; Thomas Hales Johnson, Midway, Ga., speeding 65 in 45 zone, $20 and costs; Clarence Willie Jackson, Fort Benning, Ga., speeding 75 in 60 zone, $15 and costs; James Morgan, Aberdeen, assault on female, nol pros with leave on payment of costs.

Charged with public drunkenness were: Theron A. Burrow, $5 and costs; Ernest Leroy Mack, Durham, (also charged with possession of seal-broken whiskey), $10 and costs, the whiskey to be destroyed; Stancer Lee Pankey, one month on the roads, suspended six months on payment of $5 and costs, not to be convicted of a similar offense for six months; Gerald Brower, Robbins, $10 and costs; Ann E. McGinnis, $5 and costs; William E. Holden, Route 1, Shallotte, $10 and costs; Franklin Arnette, Pinehurst, $5 and costs.

In the previous week's session of the court, hitherto unreported, the following cases were heard:

Louis C. Cunningham, Raeford, allowing unlicensed person to drive, pay the costs; Larry Adams, Eastwood, assault on female, nol pros with leave on payment of costs; Emmanuel N. Dugan, North Charleston, S. C., speeding 65 in 55 zone, $10 and costs; Charles Council Mitchell, speeding 55 in 35 zone, plea of guilty of speeding 50 accepted, one month on the roads, suspended for 12 months on payment of $15 and costs, not to be convicted of any moving motor vehicle violation in 12 months; James R. Branch, Route 2, Carthage, driving on wrong side of road, resulting in accident, pay costs and walk to Howard Johnson's Restaurant and back; Richard Seward, Niagara, public drunkenness, $10 and costs.

William David Phillips, resisting arrest, common law public nuisance, to be confined to jail from 6:30 p. m. on day of trial to 12:30 a. m. the next morning; Mrs. Joe Phillips, assault with deadly weapon, to be confined to jail from noon to 6 p. m. on day following trial, the gun to be confiscated and sold; James Thomas Bogan, vile and profane language, sentence of one month on the roads ordered into execution for failure to comply with terms of suspended sentence in previous case; Robert Lee Coppinger, speeding 45 in 30 zone, pay costs and walk to Howard Johnson's Restaurant and back.

'D. E.' Students Earn Over $13,500 In Program At Aberdeen High School

The 19 "Distributive Education" students at Aberdeen High School who have been employed in various occupations during the past school year have earned $13,501.56 reports Mrs. W. M. Booker of Southern Pines, their supervisor.

The students have worked in the following businesses: A & P, Winn-Dixie, Belk-Hensdale, Lee's Variety Store, Southern National Bank, Holiday Inn, Sandhill Citizen, Mid-South Bakery, McNeill Oil Company, South Street Service Station, Pinehurst Country Club, Williams Esso, Carpenter's Gulf Station, Wick's Chevrolet, Carolina Soap and Candle, Dobbs House Restaurant, and Buster's Cash Market.

The Moore County School's vocational program which started with 29 D. E. students in the Fall of 1963, has expanded to include about 100 D. E. students and 50 Industrial Cooperative Training students registered for the Fall of 1964. D. E. is offered at Aberdeen, West End and Union Pines and I. C. T. will be offered at Aberdeen and Union Pines, Mrs. Booker said.

Although the D. E. students of West End have not been employed on a cooperative basis, many of them have been working and will do so for school credit next year. The West End D. E. students have worked at the Pinehurst Greenhouse, Schmelzer's Turf Shop, Winn-Dixie, Belk-Hensdale and Catos.

On May 19, the present D. E. students held a meeting at the West End High School for the purpose of welcoming the new and incoming D. E. students and to explain how the D. E. club functions. William Gentry of Barnwell Realty, Southern Pines, and a member of the D. E. Advisory Committee, spoke to the group on how to have a successful job interview. Many of these students are just going for job interviews for summer jobs and will continue working next fall.
