about this question: "I fell for this cut-rate auto insurance from a direct-writing insurance company with no independent local agent. When I had a collision loss, I found their adjuster trying to cut every corner on repairs to save the company money. Does anyone really think he saves money when he by-passes his independent local insurance agent?"

News and Personals from Whispering Pines

By PATRICIA TAYLOR

CGA Tournament

The Carolina Golf Association played its weekly tournament Sunday, June 7, on the championship course at Whispering Pines Country Club. There were 216 entries playing in three classes of A, B, and C. Class A, having 77 players, was designated for those with handicaps of 0-8; Class B, 86 players, handicaps of 9-14; and Class C, 53 players, handicaps of 15 and over.

Those from this area awarded prizes were:

Class A—Carlos Frye, Southern Pines, 3rd Low Net, 71-7-64.

Class B—Hayes McCulley, Whispering Pines, 7th Low Net, 75-11-64; and Bill Purcell, Southern Pines, 10th Low Net, 75-9-66.

National Golf Day

The 13th Annual National Golf Day, May 30, was observed by many at Whispering Pines. Contestants, competing again Jack Nicklaus, PGA Champion, and Julius Boros, USGA Open Champion, played against the champion in terms of par, not on a basis of actual strokes.

National Golf Day is an annual event, and net proceeds went to golf charities, golf education, cadet scholarships and other worthwhile golf projects. All golfers are eligible with full handicaps, and all ladies receive seven additional strokes.

At Whispering Pines, 79 men and 16 ladies participated. To win out over the pro, it was necessary to score a minimum of 3 under par for the course. Of those participating, 14 men and 7 ladies had totals of 4 or more under par.

Twilight Tournament

The Whispering Pines Golf Club's 9-Hole Twilight Tournament played last Friday evening was a Best Ball of the Foursome event. Winners were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ault and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hardee, with net scores of 26.

Ladies Golf Association

The Ladies Golf Association of Whispering Pines held their regular play last Tuesday. Winners with Low Net scores, Class A, were Mildred Clemmer, a guest, and Class B, Estelle Pruitt; Low Putts winners were, Class A, Do Morse, and Class B, Judy Black.

Entertain Golfers

Many of those who had participated in last Friday's Twilight Tournament were guests later in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gailther Edwards on Lake Thagard. The get-together was a farewell to Mr. Edwards, who left Saturday night for Miami Beach to attend the annual convention of the Production Credit Association at the Hotel Americana, and, also, a welcome party for Major and Mrs. Edgar P. Holt, formerly of Cherry Point. Major Holt has recently retired from military service, and he and Mrs. Holt are new residents at Whispering Pines.

A delightful buffet was served, and during the evening impromptu entertainment was provided by Mrs. Pauline (Edgar) Holt, rendering a vocal selection, and Mrs. "Lib" (Hayes) McCulley, who rendered a very graceful dance solo, attired in an "instant" costume designed by Mrs. Helen Edwards.

Pioneers

Winners in the Pioneers Medal Play Tournament last week were: first place, H. L. Brinkley with a net 66; and tying for second place were Leroy Bateman and Watt Welker with a net of 70 each.

Summer Vacation

Miss Martha Hoell Hardee, a student at St. Mary's Junior College, and Ronnie Hardee, a student at Virginia Episcopal School, have returned home for summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardee met Martha Hoell at the Raleigh-Durham Airport on Wednesday after her visit to West Point, where she was a guest of Cadet William Hargett, Jr. The Hardees then drove on to Lynchburg, Va., where they picked up Ronnie before returning home on Thursday afternoon.

Dr. C. Robert VanderVoort Thursday drove his wife and their three children, Glory, Kathy and Robert, back home from Myrtle Beach, S. C., where Mrs. VanderVoort and the children have been vacationing since Sunday.
