

MOORE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

5 Youths Bound To Superior Court On Charges Of Breaking, Entering

Probable cause was found in Moore County Recorder's Court Monday against five Negro youths of Carthage on charges of breaking and entering an occupied dwelling in the night time for felony.

The charges were made by Lot-ta Smith, whose home the five allegedly broke into about 9 p. m. last Friday, June 12. Arrests were made by the Carthage police.

Pleading not guilty at Monday's hearing were Pete Wooten, 23; Jesse Charles Person, Willie Dowdy and Root Hampton, all 19, and Bobby Quick, 17. Bond was set at $250 each, which they did not immediately make, for their appearance at the August term of Superior Court.

Among several assault cases, four involved defendants charged with assault on their wives. In two of the cases, those against Leland McNeill of Robbins, Route 1, who pleaded nolo contendere, and Thurmond Lee of Robbins, pleading not guilty, the defendants were found guilty but not pros with leave was taken on payment of costs, on request of the wives, who were the prosecuting witnesses.

Archie Dowdy of Carthage and Frank Goode of West End, Route 1 (Eastwood) both pleaded not guilty to charges of assault with deadly weapon on their wives, and both were convicted as charged. Dowdy drew 90 days, suspended for 12 months, while for Goode prayer for judgment was continued for a similar period, both on payment of a fine of $25 and costs and on condition of strict good behavior toward their wives. Goode was especially cautioned not to "come home in a drunken condition and frighten his wife."

Other cases disposed of: Larry Kenneth Mashburn, Carthage, Route 1, exceeding safe speed, accident, $25 and costs; Alberta Richardson, Eagle Springs, Route 1, using vile and profane language, threats, etc., 30 days suspended for 12 months on payment of $10 and costs on good behavior conditions, defendants to let the Cagles alone and stay away from their premises; Colon

Cagle, Robbins, assault with deadly weapon, not guilty; Peggy Cagle and Doris Cagle, Robbins, assault with deadly weapon (knife, hammer) inflicting serious injury, found guilty of engaging in affray, $1 and costs; Ada Brookfield Bryant, Pinehurst, driving while drunk, judgment continued on payment of $100 and costs, license to be suspended as provided by law; William Aaron Shamburger, Robbins, Route 2, careless and reckless driving resulting in fatal injury and hit-run, and Daniel William Wyatt, Robbins, Route 1, driving while drunk, improper turn resulting in accident, personal injury and death, hit-run, both pleaded not guilty, manslaughter hearing (in death of Levester Burch May 9) continued till next Monday at 2 p. m.

Roy Lee Sheffield, West End, careless and reckless driving, accident, personal injury, leaving scene without giving aid and information, four months suspended for 12 months on payment of $50 and costs, defendant to pay or cause to be paid damage to other auto and medical and hospital expenses of persons injured in the collision and not to operate car on public roads of North Carolina in a careless and reckless manner or while in intoxicated condition; Robert Earl Everett, Carthage, careless and reckless driving, defendant asks for jury trial, denied in accordance with statute, pleaded guilty as charged, warrant amended to charge defendant with speeding in excess of 100 mph, sentenced to four months on roads, notice of appeal given and bond set at $350.

Wesley Nichols, Robbins, assault with deadly weapon (pistol) inflicting serious injury, judgment continued on payment of $25 and costs, defendant ordered to pay medical expenses of William A. Garner amounting to $82.50, court finds the two pistols were used and displayed unlawfully and orders that they be destroyed by the sheriff; Johnny Vester Rush, called and failed, judgment absolute to be entered against bondsman James E. Pugh, less $20 sent in by the defendant.

ABERDEEN NEWS

By ANN J. McNEILL

Home and Garden Club Mrs. Ralph Caldwell and Mrs. Roy Bender were hostesses to the Aberdeen Home and Garden Club Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Caldwell.

Mrs. Sam Swaringen, president, presided over the business session. Annual reports of officers and committee chairmen were given.

A flower show followed with prizes awarded in three categories: potted plant, large arrangement and miniature arrangement. Mrs. James Bishop's lovely pink geranium won in the first category. Mrs. Sam Swaringen's large arrangement of mixed flowers in varied hues captured the prize as did her miniature arrangement, which had been artistically placed in a floral lipstick container and complemented by a miniature pair of scissors placed on the table to the side of the arrangement.

A delicious luncheon followed and the group adjourned until their September meeting.

WSCS Meets The Woman's Society for Christian Service met Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. H. W. Doub, president, presided over the business session.

Reports from delegates of the Louisburg Retreat held last week were given. Mrs. J. E. Spenberg gave the closing meditation. Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. George Anderson was hostess to members of her bridge club and two guests. Mrs. Needham Marley had Mrs. Mack Wallace, on Tuesday afternoon.

A delicious luncheon was enjoyed followed by several progressions of bridge. Mrs. C. D. McGowan was high scorer of the afternoon; Mrs. Wallace was guest high; and Mrs. David Hobbs was low scorer. Others playing were Mrs. Marley, Mrs. Bob Farrell, Mrs. Dan Farrell, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, and Mrs. N. A. Pleasants.

Briefs Mrs. W. S. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Dan Currie, Jr. and son, Baxter Taylor, Mrs. George Anderson and John; Mrs. David Hobbs and Joy, and Mrs. Robert Farrell and Robbie spent last week at Ocean Drive. They were joined for the weekend by W. S. Taylor, George Anderson, David Hobbs, Robert Farrell and Sidney Taylor Jr.

Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Currie and son and Baxter Taylor remained at the beach for this week and were joined for several days by Mrs. Ralph Leach, Mrs. Grady Webb and daughter of Raleigh. Mrs. Vesta Funderburk spent a few days last week in Atlanta, Ga., with her daughter Miss Judy Funderburk. Miss Funderburk returned with her for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Kimbrell spent the weekend at Ocean Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Buchan and children spent the weekend in Raleigh with Mr. and Mrs. John Buchan.

Miss Robin Johnson and Miss Caroline Johnson arrived home Tuesday night following a visit of several days with their grandmother, Mrs. John Camp, in Franklin, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Winston-Salem are vacationing with relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Muse are spending several days in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Russell spent the weekend in Hampton, Va. with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Russell.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Pleasants, Jr. and daughter of Columbia, S. C. spent a recent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Sloan and Cam of Raleigh spent a recent weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan.

Mrs. Jesse Wimberley and children spent the weekend in West End with her mother.

Mrs. Robert Gavin and sons, Edward and John David, of Sanford were Sunday afternoon visitors of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Neill and family.

Mrs. John D. McLeod visited Dr. and Mrs. John D. McLeod and family in Lynchburg, Va. last week.

Robert Burns accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNeill, Jr. to Camp Hill, Pa. last Wednesday and accompanied their family to the World's Fair during the weekend.

Young people from Bethesda who attended the Senior Camp at Camp Monroe last week were Lindsay Neill, Johnny Burns, and Gene Lewis.

Miss Mary Stuart Harmon arrived last week for an extended visit with Mrs. J. Frank Mizell.

Mrs. Page Jones of Alberta, Va. is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Copley and family.

MEDICAL SHORTAGE

Afghanistan has less than 400 doctors, 300 nurses and 3 dentists for a population of over 12,000,000. American doctors and nurses sent by MEDICO, a Service of CARE, are helping to treat the sick and train local personnel for future service.

18th

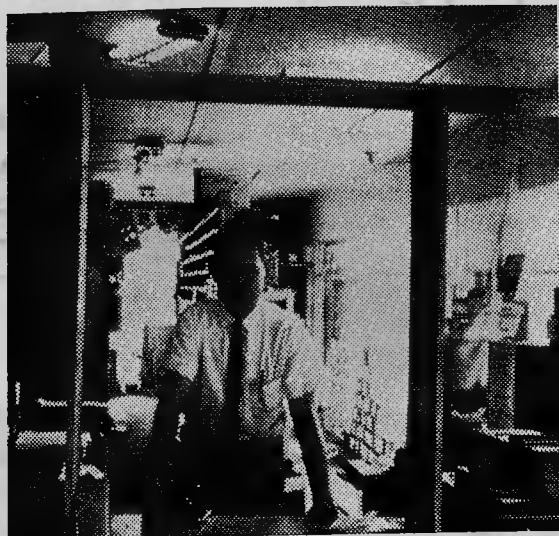

ANNIVERSARY

We're celebrating the 18th Anniversary of the opening of our business in Southern Pines. On this occasion we wish to express our sincere appreciation of the loyal patronage and friendly relationships that have made our years here both pleasant and successful.

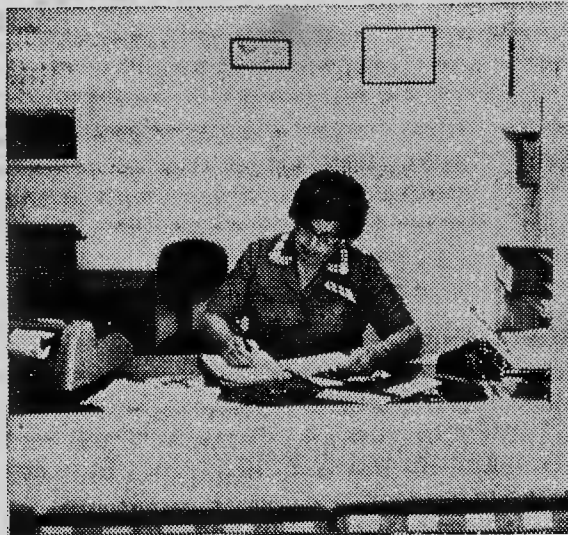

NOLLEY JACKSON

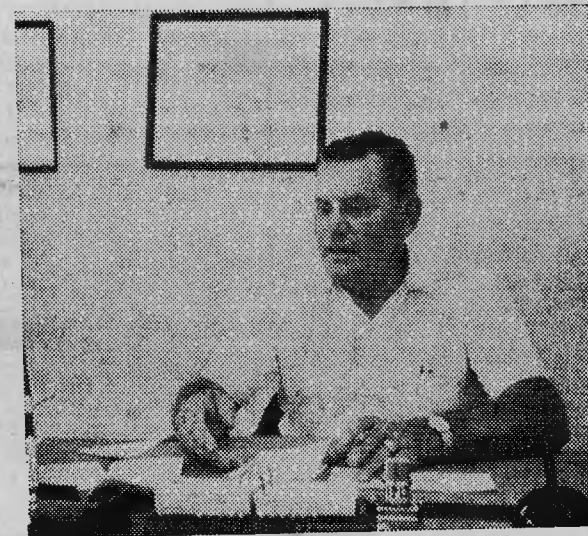

OUR STAFF

BILL H. SMITH, Parts and Service Department

MISS GRACE TILLMAN, Bookkeeper

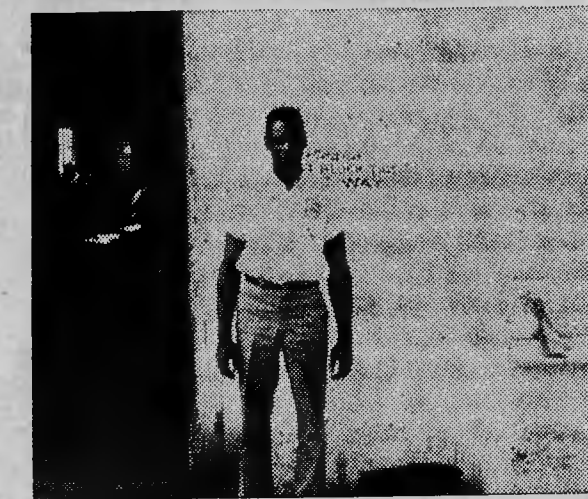

DAVE HANNON, New and Used Cars

H. G. CRABTREE, Mechanic Used Car Department

Left to right: B. F. BROOKS, mechanic; E. E. McKNIGHT, body shop foreman; KEN BERTRAM, mechanic; ERNEST KLABBATZ, service manager.

ROBERT DOCKERY, Washing & Lubrication

AUTHORIZED

FORD SALES & SERVICE EXPERT BODY & REPAIR WORK

Jackson Motors, Inc.

Phones 695-5822 — 695-7721

Mfg. Lic. No. 1909

Southern Pines, N. C.