Southern Pines Recorders Court

Four Pinehurst youths received suspended sentences of two years on the roads and one of them lost his driver's license, in Southern Pines Recorder's Court last week, following their arrest for an alleged attempted break-in at the local A & P Super Market. Judge W. Harry Fullenwider was on the bench for the regular Wednesday session.

Surprised by Sergeant Beck at the rear of the building, they had fled in a car that led the officer on a high-speed chase before the youths were captured.

James Dwight Frye, 19, the driver of the car, was charged in one warrant with conspiracy, and in another with careless and reckless driving and failure to stop for an officer's red light and siren.

Robert Anthony Moon, Jimmy R. Frye and Jerry Frye, the other three youths involved, were each charged with conspiracy, in connection with the alleged break-in attempt but were permitted to plead guilty to forcible trespass.

Except for the revocation of James Dwight Frye's driver's license, all four received identical sentences: two years on the roads, suspended on payment of the court costs, with stipulation that they be under the supervision of the State probation officer for two years and also that they be home by 10 p. m. each night, until the times changed by the probation officer.

Two drunken driving cases called last week are each going to Superior Court.

Cleo Martin of Route 2, Sanford charged with drunken driving and transporting alcoholic beverage with seal broken, was sentenced to pay $100 fine and costs and surrender driver's license. Appeal to Superior Court was entered and bond was set at $200.

Vernon Preston Davis of Route 1, Chapel Hill, charged with drunken driving, asked for a jury trial before any evidence was heard and the case was transferred to Superior Court for trial.

Both cases will be set for the August term.

Here is a summary of other cases heard last week:

Austin Johnson, assault on female, nol pros with leave on payment of costs; Richard Lee Morris, failure to yield right of way, resulting in accident, $15 and costs; Dorothea P. Thorpe, Chapel Hill, speeding 65 in 55 zone, $10 and costs; Vernie Harrington, nol pros with leave on payment of costs; Thomas Stanback, trespass, capias to issue and be left outstanding; Reuben Nicholas Everett, Jr., Columbia, S. C., speeding 70 in 55 zone, improper passing, $25 and costs; James H. Burg, Columbia, S. C., speeding 75 in 60 zone, $15 and costs; Fairley A. Burke, New York, N. Y., speeding 60 in 35 zone, $25 and costs.

Warren McNeill, Jr., Sanford, speeding 70 in 60 zone, $10 and costs; Leo Jenkins, Burlington, speeding 65 in 55 zone, $10 and costs; Nicholas Verren Cox, Sanford, speeding 70 in 60 zone, $10 and costs; Curtis Hall, Aberdeen, public nuisance, prayer for judgment continued on payment of costs and on condition he not go back on premises of prosecuting witness unless invited; Charley Wells, non-support, until further order of the court, defendant was instructed to take his paycheck to the clerk of court's office each week, to be divided equally between him and his wife, and from her portion, $1 per week to be deducted until court costs are paid; Gerald S. Rush, Robbins AFB, Ga., speeding 75 in 60 zone, $15 and costs.

Charged with public drunkenness, listed with penalties imposed, were: Everett Eugene Miller, $10 and costs; Dwight Terry (two cases) and James Lewis, each one month on the roads, suspended for six months on payment of the costs and on condition he not be convicted of a similar offense for six months (Terry sentences not to run concurrently); Henry Parker McDonald (also charged with possession of 20 per cent wine with seal broken), $5 and costs, wine to be destroyed; Maurice McKenzie (also charged with possession of taxpaid liquor with seal broken), prayer for judgment continued on payment of costs, on information that defendant was to submit himself to a hospital for treatment.

Several first offenders chose to walk to Howard Johnson's Restaurant and back, in place of paying a fine, while paying court costs. With offenses charged, they were: Janet Leigh Savage, speeding 45 in 35 zone; Edward Hastings Hawks, Manly, speeding 50 in 35 zone, disobeying stop sign; James Paul McAdams, speeding 45 in 35 zone; James R. Foy, Fort Bragg, speeding 50 in 35 zone; and Alivah Lewis Heflin, Route 1, Aberdeen, speeding 70 in 55 zone.

defendant who had been tried the previous week for assault and assault on a female, receiving concurrent sentences of 12 months on the roads in each case, suspended on payment of costs and placing of defendant under supervision of the State probation officer, was in court last week charged with larceny of a bicycle. Judgment was continued on payment of costs, the disposition of the previous week's cases remaining, with the youthful offender placed on probation.
