20 STATES REPRESENTED—Boys and girls, ages nine through 18, from the north, middle west, south and southeast are shown at the Wayne Sabin Tennis Camp mid-way in the first of two four-week sessions at the Pinehurst Country Club. The young people, and their counselors, are living at the Manor Hotel and are coached and engage in tennis competition daily on the six courts at the club. Other activities include riding, boating and swimming at a nearby lake. Former Davis Cup player Wayne Sabin, camp director, and his wife are pictured at the extreme left and next to them is Miss Ann Verity, dean of girls, and a former national champion, who also instructs. At the extreme right, in riding outfit, is Mrs. Pat Van Camp of Southern Pines, equitation director. Back of her is Terry Britton, counselor from Farmington, Conn., and to his left is Bill Belote, of Jacksonville, Fla. William L. Macassin, counselor and official referee and John McMillan of Southern Pines, who is a part-time instructor, were not present when the photo was taken. Seated in front of the campers are the two young daughters, aged three and six, of Mr. and Mrs. Sabin. (Hemmer Photo)

Mrs. Derouin Wins The Summer Club Tourney, Pinehurst

AT ROCKINGHAM

Ring, Driving Hutchinson Car, Rookie Winner

The "Rookie" race on the Fourth of July at the Rockingham Speedway was won by Lawrence Ring, driver, of Vass.

Ring, 30-year-old tobacco farmer who has been driving in the stock car races about two years, won in "No. 13," a 1953 Chevrolet owned by Cecil Hutchinson of Aberdeen.

Ring and "No. 13" had stayed in second place in the 17-car field. However, a protest by Hutchinson resulted in inspection by the judges, and a ruling that the lead car won illegally.

Hutchinson, who is chef at the Southern Pines Country Club, with the hobby of stock car races, owns two cars. Ring generally drives No. 26, a 1950 Plymouth, while "Little Danny" Richmond, Hutchinson's son-in-law, drives No. 13. "Little Danny" and his wife went away for the weekend of the Fourth.

Hutchinson's cars have three co-sponsors—Taylor Motors, Ltd., and Hicks Furniture Co. of Aberdeen, also the "B.J.T." sandwich and drinks place near Rockingham.

He gives credit for his cars' success not only to the drivers but to James Gardner, who has an auto repair shop near Pinebluff. Gardner, he says, actually built his cars from stock parts and maintains them well.

DR. RICHARD S. RAY

Dr. Ray Assumes Fort Bragg Post; Makes Home Here

The new assistant superintendent of the Dependents' Schools on the Fort Bragg Military Reservation has begun work there and is making his home in Southern Pines.

He is Dr. Richard S. Ray who grew up in this community and graduated from high school here in 1951, going on to graduate from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1955, later receiving there both his master's degree and doctorate in Education.

To take the Fort Bragg post, he resigned as principal of Dalton Junior High School in Winston-Salem. In March of this year, he was elected president of the North Carolina Association for Childhood Education and in that capacity attended a meeting of the National Association for Childhood Education in Portland, Ore.

At Fort Bragg, he is in charge of the recruitment and training of teachers and of the entire instructional program in a school system of 6,000 students attending seven elementary schools and one junior high school. Senior high students at Fort Bragg attend Fayetteville schools.

Dr. Ray and his wife, the former Mildred Billheimer of Montgomery, W. Va., are living in the Knollwood Apartments, at 857 N. Leak St. Their two children are Sandra, 8, and R. Shaw, Jr., 3. Dr. Ray is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Ray of this community.

Over 200 different kinds of birds—from jewel-tinted warblers to sombre ravens—make the Great Smokies Park their seasonal or year-around habitat.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Gerald Thomas Begins Duties At Fort Bragg

Gerald D. Thomas, a native of Southern Pines, has assumed his new duties as principal of Holbrook School at Fort Bragg and he and his family are living at 455 E. New York Ave. here.

They have moved from Winston-Salem, where he has been teaching at the Whitaker School for the past three years. Before that, he was principal of Aldert Root School.

A graduate of the Southern Pines High School, he attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he received his BA and MA degrees. He was awarded a fellowship for extended study in the School of Education at Duke University.

In 1957, he received the Teacher of the Year award from the Raleigh City Schools, where he taught for three years.

Mr. Thomas is married to the former Louise Norwood of Winston-Salem. She is a graduate of Mars Hill College and received her BS in nursing from UNC-CH.

The couple has three daughters, Betsy, Laura and Susan. Betsy will enter first grade at the Southern Pines School this fall. Mr. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Thomas of Southern Pines.

Blount Attends National Meeting

James Blount, Jr., a Rockingham lawyer, attended the 83rd annual conference of the American Library Association in St. Louis, Missouri, June 28-30. He is president of the North Carolina Association of Library Trustees and chairman of the Sandhill Regional Library Board of Trustees (which includes Moore, Montgomery and Richmond County Libraries).

For the coming year, Blount will serve on the National Library Week committee.

Robert G. Kennedy Employed By CP&L

Robert Guthrie Kennedy has been employed by Carolina Power & Light Company as a material man in Southern Pines.

Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kennedy of High Point, attended Southern Pines High School.

He is married to the former Nancy E. Hall of Vass.
