

Champions

of the local Little League for the 6th year are the Cardinals. Story, photos, page 12.

THE PILOT

The mental health clinic at Pinehurst is now serving Hoke County also. Details in story on page 9.

VOL.—44 No. 35

TWENTY-SIX PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1964

TWENTY-SIX PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

JAYCEES, RESCUE SQUAD SPONSORING

Robbins Farmers Day On August 1 To Feature Horse Show and Usual Parade

Robbins Farmers Day on August 1 will offer a double attraction this year: the ninth annual Grand Parade of old-time vehicles and fancy mounts, to be followed by the first annual Farmers Day Horse Show. Big preparations are under way for the all-day event, customarily set for the first Saturday in August.

Curtis Hussey will as usual be wagon master for the Grand Parade to start at 10 o'clock in the morning, which this year is expected to draw 300 or more entries from many parts of the State.

He will also serve as Ring Master for the Horse Show which will start at 1 p. m. on the Elise High School ball field. With 30 classes, the show is expected to continue all afternoon. (Continued on Page 8)

June Blue Named President, N. C. Funeral Directors

D. A. (June) Blue, Jr., partner-owner of the Powell Funeral Home, was elected president of the N. C. State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors Tuesday at Raleigh.

For the past three years, the local man has been a member of the state board, which examines qualifications and certifies new members of the funeral profession in North Carolina.

Son of the late Sheriff D. A. Blue and Mrs. Berta Bryant Blue, he graduated from Southern Pines High school, was employed by the Powell Funeral Home in 1935 and in 1939 graduated from the Gup-ton-Jones College of Embalming at Nashville, Tenn.

Following three years of military service with the U. S. Army Medical Corps, mostly in the European Theatre, he returned home to become a partner, with his brother-in-law, E. Troy Geer of Aberdeen, in ownership of the Powell Funeral Home.

He is a director and member of the executive committee of the N. C. Funeral Directors association.

He is a member of the United Church of Christ, Sandhills Kiwanis Club, Red Cross chapter board of directors, South Southern Pines Democratic precinct committee, and has served on the town board of commissioners, before the council-manager form was adopted. He is a director of the Citizens Bank & Trust Co.

He is married to the former Mary Tinsley of Forest City and they have two children, Daniel Alphonso III, and Jane.

Dr. McLean Named To State Board

Dr. C. C. McLean of Midland Road, partner in operation of the Sandhill Veterinary Hospital, was appointed this week by Gov. Terry Sanford to the North Carolina Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, the board controlling admittance to the veterinary profession in this state.

Dr. McLean is vice president of the Twin Carolinas Veterinary Medical Association, a past president of the N. C. Veterinary Medical Association and a director of the N. C. Veterinary Research Foundation.

He is chairman of the Southern Pines board of education and has been engaged for many years in civic and religious activities.

Candidates For SPHS Grid Squad To Meet Friday

East Southern Pines High School boys who will be in grades 9 through 12 and who are interested in trying out for the school's football squad this year are asked to meet at the high school at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

The meeting was called by Tony Trentini the recently appointed new athletic director and football coach at the school.

Formerly with the Wake Forest College coaching staff, Trentini was an outstanding player with Wake Forest while a student there and previously with Army teams at Fort Bragg. With his wife and three children, he has moved to Southern Pines. The family is living at 150 E. New York Ave.

SCHOOL REGISTRATION

Any students who will be entering East Southern Pines High School in September and who have not pre-registered can register at the high school office from 9 to 12 or 1 to 4 daily. Glenn L. Cox, principal, said today. Local schools will open Friday September 4.

MRS. SANFORD SPEAKS—As special guest at the official opening of North Carolina's "Easter Seals camp" at Southern Pines Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Terry Sanford, wife of North Carolina's Governor, expressed her admiration for the beauty of the spot and for the camp's objective—"to help handicapped children achieve a fuller and richer life in a natural setting." Others on the program, left to right: Southern Pines Mayor Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr.; Clarence

E. Whitefield of Durham, president of the N. C. Society for Crippled Children and Adults; Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines, State Senator-Nominate, who presented the State's first lady; Vic Bunas, head basketball coach at Duke, who was the 1964 State Easter Seals campaign chairman, and Jeff Bates of Columbia, S. C., treasurer of the National Society. (V. Nicholson photo)

MANY RECOGNIZED FOR WORK ON PROJECT

Program Officially Opens New Camp Easter For Handicapped Near Here

"Welcome to Camp Easter in the Pines!" was the word last Sunday out in the pine woods on the hillside where this newest project of the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults has come to life.

The crowd that came to inspect the camp and enjoy the formal opening day program came from all parts of the county with many from beyond it as far as Raleigh and Chapel Hill. Greeted by scouts of Troop 223, with Dr. Bruce Warlick and Robert Lamb, scoutmasters, they were ushered into the camp grounds and took their stands under the shade of the pines looking down towards the lake below.

To the right of the visitors, as they stood grouped before the speakers' platform, were the campers, 25 to 30 youngsters, some standing, leaning on crutches or canes, about a third in wheelchairs, and the rest sitting on the needle-covered slope. Nearby were the counselors among whom were seven local young people: Roberta Austin, Susan Pollard, Joel Erickson, Tom Culbreth, John Mallow, Paul Kelley, and Mark Liddell Jr.

Proceedings were conducted by Clarence Whitefield, president of the state society, who acted as master of ceremonies during the afternoon.

Mrs. Sanford Honor Guest

On the platform, besides Mr. Whitefield, were the Mayor of Southern Pines, Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., Voit Gilmore, former director of the U. S. Travel Service and now Democratic candidate for the state senate, and Jeff

(Continued on page 19)

50th Annual Carolina Golf Association Tournament to Open Friday, Pinehurst

Ken Folkes of Concord, who defeated Dillard Traynham of Greenville, S. C., 7 and 6, at Morganton last year for the 1963 Carolina Golf Association Amateur Championship, will defend his title in the historic 50th annual renewal of the event opening tomorrow (Friday) at the Pinehurst Country Club.

A field of 184 is entered in the tournament to be played over the No. 2 course running through Tuesday of next week, reported Clyde Mangum, executive secretary of the Association.

Exempt from qualifying, Folkes will be joined by the lowest 63 scorers for match play in the Championship Flight.

Taking part are amateur golfers who are residents of the two Carolinas and who are members of clubs associated with the CGA. Prizes include the Billy Shand trophy to the competitor returning the lowest net score in the qualifying round.

In the championship flight, trophies will go to medalist, winner, runner-up, losing semi-finalists and consolation winner. The winner's club will hold the Rich-

(Continued on page 8)

Entries Asked By Monday In County Tennis Tourney

Entries in a local tennis tournament, the Moore County Tourney, sponsored by the Sandhills Tennis Association should be in not later than Monday, July 20, John McMillan, tournament director, said today.

Confined to singles matches only, the tournament will have men's and women's singles and singles for junior boys and junior girls (age 18 and under). Any Moore County resident can enter. Entries should be filed with

(Continued on page 8)

Summer Training: Tough, Happy Time For National Guard

THE EARTH SHAKES—as the M-48 tank recoils after the firing of the 90mm cannon. Inside, heads reel from the 360 degree impact that can shatter eardrums, make eyes water, and noses bleed unless the proper safety precautions are taken.

John C. Ray of the Pilot's staff joined Moore County's National Guard unit at Fort Stewart, Ga., for part of its recent summer encampment, bringing back a report in words and photos, on what happened there.

By JOHN C. RAY

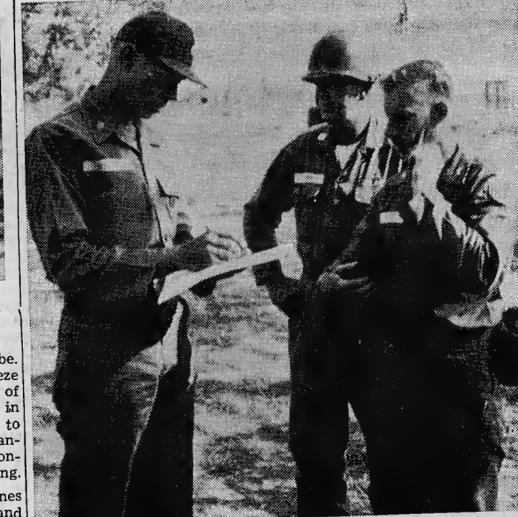

Sixty men of the local National Guard unit returned to their families this week after two weeks in the Georgia heat. They were there for their annual active duty summer training.

Company C at Southern Pines is a part of the 12,000 man North Carolina 30th Infantry Division, "Old Hickory," notably one of the most outstanding of all national guard divisions in World Wars I and II. These men are proud to be a part of this famed outfit and their pride seeped through the tough skins they took on for their annual field training. These men, your next door neighbor or the man down the street, gave up their civilian dress and occupations for the two-week encampment, and played the role of a fully-qualified, combat ready soldier, prepared to fight for his country in the event his unit ever became federalized into the nation's active duty Army.

For two weeks these men had to remember that Bobby Frye of Southern Pines was Sergeant Frye; that Johnny Dowdy of Carthage was Private Dowdy... and that Ralph Horner of Pinehurst, was Captain Horner, commander of Company C.

Military discipline was strict, salutes were sharp, and the "sirs"

"JUST CHECKING"—says Maj. Bill Wilson (1) of Southern Pines, training officer for the 2nd Armored Battalion, as he discusses range training with Capt. Ralph Horner, commander, and First Lieutenant Fred McKenzie, platoon leaders of Co. C, on the firing range at Ft. Stewart.

Local Guard Unit Given 'Superior' Rating
Capt. Ralph Horner, commander of the local national guard company, announced this week that his unit completed its active duty summer training at Ft. Stewart, Ga., with a "superior" grade of 95. This grade will be considered by inspectors this Fall in determining the annual company rating.

Council Tables Action On Site For Proposed New Fire Department

The Town Council meeting at the town hall Tuesday night had a short docket to work on, but three somewhat controversial, not to say confused, items spun the session out to more than two hours. All members of the council were present: Mayor Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., Mayor Pro Tem Fred Pollard and Councilmen

Felton Capel, C. A. McLaughlin and Harry Pethick.

Longest discussion of the evening centered around the request of Clyde Tew to be granted a license to own and drive a taxi. Mr. Tew, who now drives a taxi but does not own one, was not present.

Town Manager Rainey described the circumstances, pointing out that eight licenses are in effect at the present time. He said that the town has never issued more than nine. It took many readings of the town ordinance relating to this subject and much discussion before the procedures were clarified and action could be taken.

During the process several questions were asked: Councilman Capel inquired how many taxis were now operating and if the amount of taxi business would warrant adding another to the present number.

To which Attorney W. Lamont Brown replied that, as noted in the ordinance, there was a limit of 11 to the number that could be issued, but the council could not deny issuing a license as long as that number (11) was not exceeded.

Eventually it was learned that there had been no recommendation of Mr. Tew by the Chief of Police, as is required by law in the issuance of a taxi license, so that the matter was automatically tabled.

Fire Station Discussed

Next point drawing lengthy discussion was the proposal that the fire station should be moved from its present location to a wing to be added at the back of the town hall.

Town Manager Rainey produced the original plans of the building and showed where the wing would be located to fit into the large parking area which runs along the back wall of the police department and jail section of the building. This parking space would be lost but the other spaces by the manager's office would remain and the wing would take only a few feet and one rather decrepit tree from the grassy space by the playground, it was stated.

Councilmen McLaughlin and Pethick said they had heard no objections and that this would be a money-saver and great improvement over the present inadequate station. Manager Rainey mentioned some criticism around town of the increase of buildings in the park and said he felt there should be a thorough study of the matter before any action was taken.

The union, with a headquarters on No. 1 highway, between Southern Pines and Lakeview, has been conducting an organizing drive among employees for several weeks.

CD Emergency Hospital Now Ready For Use

A Civil Defense emergency hospital, a completely functional 200-bed general field hospital designed to be set up in school auditorium, armory, or other suitable building in case of an area disaster, has been acquired for Moore County, and is now stored at an easily accessible warehouse at the airport.

Acclaimed by the Moore County Medical Association, the County Commissioners, and the members of the Civil Defense advisory committee as an important addition to the medical facilities of the county, the supplies and equipment may in an emergency be used to expand the capability of the local hospitals.

According to the report given by Colonel Alfred M. Koster, director of the Moore County Civil Defense agencies, there are 1,930

(Continued on page 8)

HEARING SET ON UNION PETITION

A hearing supervised by the Greensboro office of the National Labor Relations Board will be conducted at the town hall here at 10:30 a. m. Monday on a petition for an election by employees of the local Proctor-Silex plant.

A petition has been filed with the NLRB by the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, AFL-CIO for an election to determine whether the union will become collective bargaining agent for the employees.

The union, with a headquarters on No. 1 highway, between Southern Pines and Lakeview, has been conducting an organizing drive among employees for several weeks.

Substation on Westside

Councilman Capel presented a plea for a fire substation on the west side of the railroad tracks. He said that this idea had been mentioned many times and for many years; the hopes of the people

(Continued on page 8)

Library Assigned $1,000 From Fund

The Town of Southern Pines added to the growing Library Building fund this week, when the council set aside $1,000 to be devoted to the purpose of helping finish up the new construction.

The sum in question, $2,700, was part of a federal grant of $29,000 made to the sewer fund and unexpended. The unused amount, the town was assured by a federal official, could be used for another purpose if needed.

Both the water and sewer departments received a lesser sum from the same source, as voted by the Town Council Tuesday night.

THE WEATHER

Maximum and minimum temperatures for each day of the past week were recorder as follows at the U.S. Weather Bureau observation station at the W. E. E. B. studios on Midland Road.

	Max.	Min.
July 9	88	68
July 10	88	68
July 11	87	67
July 12	86	67
July 13	84	68
July 14	37	68
July 15	89	70