News and Personals from Whispering Pines

By PATRICIA KAYLOR
Association Entertains

The Whispering Pines Ladies Golf Association entertained its members and invited as special guests all those persons who assisted them during the recent N. C. Women's Golf Association Championship. The affair was held last Saturday evening at the Whispering Pines Golf and Country Club.

After a social hour, the president of the Ladies Association and past state tournament chairman, Mrs. D. L. Bateman, in an informal talk thanked all those who had helped, and noted special thanks to A. B. Hardee and Avery Beck, pro, for their aid and cooperation.

Immediately following Mrs. Bateman's address, Mrs. Edgar Holt led the group in singing "Happy Anniversary" to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hardee, who were celebrating their 22nd wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardee wore fresh Hawaiian leis made of orchids. The leis had been sent to them by their daughter, Martha Hoell Hardee, who is attending the summer session at the University of Hawaii. The guests then enjoyed a delicious buffet supper.

Twilight Tournament

Winners of last Friday's Twilight Tournament of the Whispering Pines Golf Club were Mrs. Gaither (Helen) Edwards and Ed Comer. The play was a 9-hole, Poker Hand event.

Mike Souchak

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Souchak of Durham have recently purchased property at Whispering Pines. Mr. Souchak is a well-known golf professional and is presently touring the summer circuit.

New Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith of

Washington, D. C., moved into their new home on Thagard's Lake last week. Mr. Smith is retired and was formerly associated with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Ladies Golf Results

Regular play last week of the Whispering Pines Ladies Golf Association was a Mystery play event. Winners were: Class A, Mrs. Mildred Clemmer; Class B, Mrs. Bettye Garneau. Low Putts, Class A, Mrs. Do Morse; Class B, Mrs. Emily Schack.

Avery Beck Plays Pro-Am

Avery Beck, golf pro at Whispering Pines Country Club, returned home Monday evening after playing the Shaw Air Force Base Pro-Am Tournament. Mr. Beck placed third as Low Pro and his team also placed third.

(For an item about Mr. Beck's son, Larry, who is the Whispering Pines touring pro, see front page.)

FORMER ROBBINS TEACHER— When John Hemmer of Pinehurst, well known press photographer, visited the "Horn in the West" outdoor drama at Boone recently, he snapped this photo of a former Moore County resident—Glenn Causey, starring in the drama as Daniel Boone. Several years ago Mr. Causey was on the faculty of Elise High School at Robbins. He has played Boone in the drama for the past
