

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE 692-6512

SMITH IS CHAMPION. — Steve Howard Smith, in the 16-entry, week-long event. Match left, gets plenty of help from sister, Diane, and brother, Mark, as he battles Allan Smith in finals of last week's checker tournament sponsored by the town summer recreation program. Despite the help from his brother and sister, Steve was runner-up to the champion, Allan Smith.

In & Out Of Town

Returning to Southern Pines this past weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Lamb after a trip to New York City where they spent two days at the World's Fair and a day seeing the sights, including a boat trip around the City, a visit to the United Nations and to Rockefeller Center. While they were out of town, their daughter, Kathy, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Harrison in Raleigh. Vaughn, their son, is on the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., and is expected to return home on Friday.

Mrs. Donald Scott left this week to drive Miss Florence Manning to Leesburg, Va., where she will visit and will then go to Washington, D. C. for a visit before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walter, with their son, Larry, Jr., and daughter, Jean, have returned to their home in Slatersville, R. I. after a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Walter's father and sister, Walter E. Blue and Mrs. Jean Edson, at their home on Ashe street, Walter Blue, Jr., with his wife and children, came down from Greensboro for a brief visit while they were here.

Mrs. Powell Alexander, who has been attending summer school at Methodist College in Fayetteville, has returned to her home on Midland Road for the remainder of summer vacation. Mrs. Alexander is a member of the Aberdeen school faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Schulz have returned to their home in Oyster Bay, L. I. after a week's stay at their home at Skyline. Their son, Peter, who has been attending summer school at State College, Raleigh, accompanied them Peter was a student at Wingate College last year, but plans to transfer to State this fall.

Mrs. W. Duncan Matthews of Durham arrived last week for a visit with her son, J. A. Matthews and his family, and her daughter, Mrs. Harry Fullenwider and family. Mrs. Matthews, long time Southern Pines resident who now lives at the Methodist Home, plans to visit relatives in Vass, also, before returning to Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Edge and children, Terry and Ronald, spent last week in New York City, sightseeing and attending the World's Fair. They returned home by Washington, where they also made a tour of the city's most important spots, including a visit to Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Derby and children, Tommy and Katie, left Tuesday for Waynesville for a few days vacation at the Piedmont Inn. Joining them will be their two older daughters, Judy and Penny, who have been at Camp Ton-A-Wandah in Hendersonville for several weeks.

Gloria and Kathy VanderVoort, Janet Ponzer, Susan Trudell and Susie Chandler returned to their homes last Friday after two weeks' vacation at Camp Mary Atkinson, a Girl Scout camp between Raleigh and Selma. Lucinda Brogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Brogden, is attending the camp presently for two weeks.

Miss Susan Huntley returned home Saturday from Wilmington, where she spent the past two weeks at a Girl Scout waterfront camp and completed work on a Red Cross Life-saving course.

Mrs. John Ponzer and daughter, Janet, went to Hendersonville today to bring back Grace Ponzer, who has been at Camp Ton-A-Wandah for several weeks. Robin Johnson of Aberdeen, who has also been at camp there, will fly from Asheville to Virginia Beach to join her family, the Lawrence Johnsons. The Johnsons are spending the month at the camp cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Creech and children, Johnny and Miriam, have returned to their home in Knollwood after a vacation at his parents' cottage at Pawley's Island, S. C. They also spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton B. Creech, in Sumter, and with her mother, Mrs. W. G. Payne in Kings-tree. Mr. Creech's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Springmeyer of Pompano Beach, Fla. visited them one day last week, coming especially to see their grandniece Miriam. Mrs. Springmeyer's namesake. Also, "guests for the day" were Dr. and Mrs. Kitchen of Sumter.

Mrs. Jewel Hall and daughter, Bobbie Ann, spent several days in Richmond, Va. recently on a shopping trip. They returned by Durham for a brief visit with Miss Loree Keen, former teacher in the East Southern Pines school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Ray spent the weekend at Cherry Grove Beach, S. C., guests of his sister, Mrs. O. F. Taylor.

Mrs. Leon Seymour returned Saturday from Glastonbury, Ct., where she spent a week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Seymour.

Miss Lurline Willis of Winston-Salem is spending the week with Miss Helen Butler at her home, Valhalla.

Bridge Party Honors Two Brides-To-Be

Two prospective brides were honored at a bridge party last Thursday given by Misses Susan Pollard and Judy Wicker at the former's home, 205 Highland Road.

Honor guests were Miss Karen McKenzie, whose marriage to Robert S. Koons, Jr., will be an event of August 1, and Miss Diana Tolar, who will become the bride of Owen T. Parks, III, August 15.

Each bride-elect received as a gift from the hostesses, a cup and saucer in her chosen pattern.

Miss Virginia Tribble won the prize for high score at bridge, and Miss McKenzie's mother, Mrs. Eugene McKenzie, captured the prize for low score.

Other Parties
Karen and Diana were also entertained jointly at a coke party Saturday morning by Miss Frances Harper at her home on Kensington Road. About 20 guests attended.

Misses Nancy Wiggs and Paulette Dietschhofer were co-hostesses Saturday afternoon at a lingerie shower for Diana Tolar. The party was held at the Magnolia Inn in Pinehurst. After the bride-elect opened her gifts, refreshments were served.

Visitor Here Is Honor Guest At Meeting, Luncheon

Mrs. Duncan Matthews, here from the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham for a visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Fullenwider, was honor guest at a meeting of the Learn More Bible Class held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. M. G. McRae, with a covered dish supper served at 7.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Pat Maconaghie, wife of the Rev. Donald Maconaghie, who talked on the 23rd Psalm.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Matthews was honored at a luncheon given in Vass by her niece, Mrs. W. A. Muse. The table was centered with a lovely arrangement of pink roses.

Guests, in addition to Mrs. Matthews, were Mrs. C. W. Wooten, wife of the pastor of the Vass Methodist Church, Mrs. H. A. Borst, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, Mrs. N. N. McLean, Miss Bessie Cameron and Mrs. S. R. Smith, all of Vass, and Mrs. W. E. Gladstone of Southern Pines.

Four ESP Teachers In Summer Sessions At UNC, Chapel Hill

Four members of the East Southern Pines faculty, three of them married and with families, are improving the summer months working toward master's degrees at the University of North Carolina.

Mrs. Austin Latimer is one of 101 teachers taking part in the Eighth National Science Foundation Summer Institute for High School Teachers of Science and Mathematics at UNC, under grants of from $450 to $1000.

The other local teachers are Mrs. John McPaul, high school guidance counselor, Miss Annie Margaret Brewer, on the junior high faculty, and Mrs. N. J. Glenn, sixth grade teacher.

Hollywood Bridge Club Discontinues Meetings Till Fall

The Hollywood Bridge Club, disbanding until September, met for their final weekly session of the summer Tuesday afternoon at Hollywood Hotel headquarters.

Receiving prizes at bridge were Mrs. Elden Hartshorn and Miss Birdilia Bair. Bolivia winners were Miss Clara Bell and Mrs. Frank Hale.

Hollywood Arrivals And Social Notes

Guests this week at The Hollywood include Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Haverson of Charlotte, Mrs. Eula Lee Collins, Oklawaha City, Okla.; and Mrs. J. D. Paul of Nebraska. Mrs. Paul plans to make her home at the hotel.

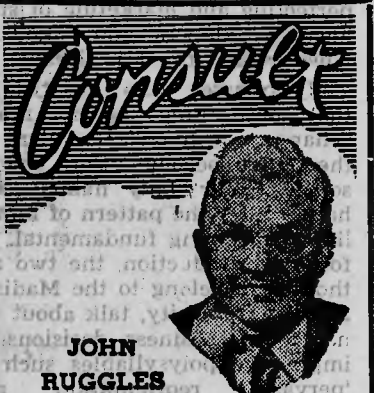

Looking Ahead

BLUE KNIGHTS
The Blue Knights Boosters Club will hold a meeting in the all-purpose room of the Southern Pines High School on August 3 at 8 p. m. All members of the 1963-64 enrollment are urged to attend.

New Heir-Rivals

BABY BOY McCORMAC
Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCormac of Page Street are parents of a son, their first child, born July 21 at Moore Memorial Hospital. The mother is the former Faye Thomas. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. G. W. McCormac, who also lives on Page Street.

SHANNON BROPHY
Their first child, a daughter, was born July 7 to Airman 2c and Mrs. Patrick Brophy at St. Joseph's Hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds 15½ ounces at birth, and has been named Shannon Theresa. The Brophys live at 310 North Bennett Street. Airman Brophy is stationed at Pope AFB.

No Quitting Time on Service

We think of the job of servicing our clients as a round-the-clock proposition. After all, losses don't limit themselves to an 8-hour workday. If you suffer a loss... fire in your home, auto accident, business catastrophe... you want help right away. You'll get just that if you place your protection program in our hands.

Barnum Realty & Insurance Co.
Southern Pines, N. C.
Citizens Bank Bldg.
WE ARE INDEPENDENT AGENTS!

NEW MATTRESSES CUSTOM BUILT

PUT YOUR MATTRESS RENOVATING IN CAREFUL HANDS

SANFORD MATTRESS CO.
Phone 776-1813
Box 672 Sanford, N. C.

WALL-TO-WALL CARPET

● BIGELOW
● MOHAWK
● ALEXANDER - SMITH

QUALITY INSTALLATIONS Select From

Over 50 Rolls in Stock
5,000 Sq. Yds.
Over 450 Samples
To Select From

Free Decorator Service

Central Carolinas Largest Stock

"Select Your Carpet Today. We Install Tomorrow!"

Lassenbach's
Sanford, N. C.

Jim Acker, Two Thursday, Has Birthday Party

Little Jim Acker was entertained last Thursday on his second birthday with a luncheon party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Acker, 421 West Delaware Avenue. The 21 guests, including seven mothers, were served hot dogs, potato chips, soft drinks and birthday cake by Mrs. Acker.

MRS. SCOTT HEADS SPECIAL COMMITTEE FOR STATE MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

The North Carolina Mental Health Association's executive board, meeting for a two-day planning session July 10 and 11 at the Battery Park Hotel in Asheville, appointed Mrs. Donald R. Scott of Southern Pines chairman for the Special Events Committee for the state of North Carolina. Mrs. Scott is vice president of the Moore County Mental Health Association.

Mrs. William Donovan, who also attended the meeting as corresponding secretary, will serve on the state committee.

This special events committee will be in charge of New Year's Eve Balls throughout the state. In North Carolina, Teen Age Balls will take place on New Year's Eve. The dances will be patterned after the Ball held in Grand Central Station last year, and under Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller's chairmanship, will become an annual event.

Proceeds will be given to the Careers Committee to be used to establish new programs in schools and colleges to enable students to enter the field of Mental Health.

Before leaving for a short vacation in Virginia this week, Mrs. Scott stated that Dr. John L. McCain of Wilson, NCMHA president, had named the following women to serve on the special events committee, in addition to Mrs. Donovan: Mrs. Heman Clark of Fayetteville, Mrs. R. N. McRay of Lake Waccamaw, Mrs. Leif Valand and Mrs. Annette Boutwell, both of Raleigh.

Mrs. Rockefeller, said Mrs. Scott this week, has been invited to meet with the North Carolina committee in Pinehurst in early September.

Everett Carneses To Move Here From Florida In The Fall

Planning to move to Southern Pines from Florida in the fall are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Carnes, who have purchased Col. Frank Smith's home on Country Club Drive. Colonel Smith and his son, Marsh, are now living on Halcyon Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Carnes, both born and raised in Georgia, have lived for the past 25 years in St. Augustine where he has been a furniture dealer, head of the Carnes Furniture Company.

The couple are here briefly now, overseeing the beginnings of proposed redecorations of their newly acquired property.

Both are golfers and members of the Southern Pines Country Club.

Wedding Invitations—all kinds, The PILOT, Inc.

PAPERBACKS
Just Naturally Seem To Fit Into Summer Reading.
We Have A Selection For Most Every Taste. Stop By STUDIO BOOKSHOP
105 E. Pennsylvania Ave. Southern Pines

If your ARM or SHOULDER hurts
SEE YOUR DOCTOR OF CHIROPRACTIC
Pressure on nerves in your spinal column—due to a fall or strain—can lead to pain or disease in other parts of your body. Neuritis in your shoulders and arm may be the result. Chiropractic treatment is often very effective, costs less, takes less time. Consult your Doctor of Chiropractic (D.C.) today!

North Carolina Chiropractic Association

Summer Clearance Sale
WILL CONTINUE THROUGH Saturday, August 1st
Further Reductions — More Shoes Added
ALL SWIM SUITS ON SALE
TOTS' TOGGERY and MRS. HAYES SHOP
SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.
ALL SALES FINAL