WHITE CANE DRIVE SCHEDULED

'Sight-Saving Month' Proclaimed By Mayor, Cooperating With Lions Club

Mayor Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., has proclaimed September as "Sight Saving Month," in cooperation with the local Lions Club White Cane Drive to be conducted this year September 14-19. The drive is run in connection with the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, the North Carolina Association for the Blind and the North Carolina State Commission for the Blind. In his proclamation Mayor Hodgkins said "I call upon my fellow citizens of this community to conserve the vital resource of good vision by learning the habits of good eye care, and by supporting research efforts which will help all men enjoy the blessing of healthy eyesight." The North Carolina Association for the Blind is a Lions Club-sponsored project organized in 1934 as a non-profit, statewide organization supported by the Lions through the annual fund raising drive. Along the services rendered by the State association are: eye treatment, providing glasses and artificial eyes, gift radios to shut-ins, white cane walking sticks, drugs, X-rays and transportation. The State-wide organization also assists in sponsoring visual aids clinics, medical eye clinics. The Eye Bank of North Carolina glaucoma detection clinics and educational materials on the prevention of blindness. Joe P. Marley, chairman of the Southern Pines Lions Club White Cane Drive, said last week that club members will be contacting local businesses during the third week in September for contributions. The general public will be given an opportunity to contribute to the campaign at the end of the drive, according to Marley. Time and place for general contributions will be announced at a later date.

Gentry Attending Insurance Course

William H. Gentry, Jr., a representative of Aetna Casualty and Surety Company at Southern Pines, is attending a special insurance course at the company's home office, Hartford, Conn. The course began August 17 and runs through September 18. The course provides comprehensive instruction in all forms of insurance protection for both individuals and business firms. Practical aspects are stressed with particular emphasis placed upon the study of new methods and developments designed to meet changing conditions. Mr. Gentry is associated with the Barnum Realty and Insurance Company here.
