

Sunrise Theatre

Following its gala premiere at the New York World's Fair, "What a Way to Go!" is set to open on Sunday at the Sunrise Theatre. The lavish Cinema-Scope, De Luxe color comedy boasts of one of the greatest all-star casts ever assembled, including Shirley MacLaine, Paul Newman, Robert Mitchum, Dean Martin, Gene Kelly, Bob Cummings and Dick Van Dyke.

"What a Way to Go!" is spiced with three original Jule Styne songs and a fantastic dance production choreographed by Gene Kelly and starring Kelly and Miss MacLaine in a take-off on movie musicals of the 30's.

Pinehurst Grocery Adds Delicatessen, Plans To Operate A Catering Service

Worsham's Grocery in Pinehurst has added a delicatessen designed to meet the needs of many people in the Pinehurst-Southern Pines area, according to Cliff L. Worsham, Jr., owner. The delicatessen has been open two weeks and already the demand for prepared meats and salads is exceeding expectations, Worsham said.

An addition to the grocery store in response to many inquiries from residents of the with 72 different costumes designed by Oscar-winning Edith Head at a combined cost of more than $500,000. She has a matching coiffure for each wardrobe change designed by famed hair stylist Sydney Guilaroff.

Sandhills area, the delicatessen offers cooked meats and salads in any quantity. At present, barbecued chicken, spare ribs and hams are being bought as fast as they are cooked, Worsham said last week. The delicatessen is located in the former office space of the grocery store, which Worsham purchased a year ago from J. D. Hobbs. Worsham had formerly been in business with his father in Southern Pines where they operated a grocery business from 195 until last May.

Worsham hopes to begin a catering service in the very near future, at which time delivery trucks and employees will be added. The grocery part of the store has been remodeled and a refrigerated produce case now enables them to carry a greater variety of fresh fruits and vegetables.

According to Worsham, the nearest delicatessen is located in Fayetteville and for that reason he expects a great future for this aspect of the business as well as for the catering service.

Employees of the grocery and delicatessen are: N. G. Dean, store manager; Raymond Williams, meat manager; Mrs. Wiley L. Garner, Mrs. Dot Hussey, Mrs. Norma Berry, Mrs. C. L. Worsham, Jr., Woodrow Watkins, and Sandy Gaines.

Worsham expects to add some part-time help during the winter months.

two of the nicest invitations
you will ever receive

TWO HAPPY EVENTS. One for a very special day to remember. The other holds the promise of gracious living for many years to come.

FOR THIS YOUNG COUPLE chose a Gold Medallion Home—the home where electricity does everything. And speaking of "housewarmings," you'll find that gentle, radiant electric heat is the nicest housewarming ever... much like that of sunshine.

THE NEW HOMEMAKER soon learns that total-electric living is a real comfort in those first anxious attempts at managing a home. Confidence and skill come more quickly with her electrical helpers to speed and ease routine chores.

AND IF YOU ALREADY have a family, you will appreciate even more how this saves time, steps and effort... lets you devote more time to family living.

MAY WE INVITE YOU to enjoy this gracious way of life real soon? Just call us at CP&L. We'd love to help you write your own invitation to the nicest "housewarming" ever in a Gold Medallion Home.
