Charles Richard Suttles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Suttles, and Kenneth McLean Yow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wanda Yow, all of Southern Pines, have enlisted in the United States Navy and were transferred to the US Naval Training Center at San Diego, Calif. for recruit training, according to Chief Petty Officer King, Navy recruiter for this area.

Both the recruits formerly attended East Southern Pines High School. Chief Petty Officer King invites anyone interested in the Navy to contact him at the local Navy Recruiting Office located in the Grace Pittman Building, Fayetteville. Midshipman First Class Albert L. Sneed Jr., son of Air Force

General (Ret.) and Mrs. A. L. Sneed, of Pinehurst, reported August 20, aboard the submarine USS Trout operating out of Charleston, S. C. He was one of 21 midshipmen participating in submarine indoctrination cruises with Submarine Squadron Four in Charleston. Sneed received introductory training in the operations, weapons system, and missions of the U.S. Navy Submarine Force.

He is a member of the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Sneed entered the Navy in September, 1961.

John D. Blue, Jr., seaman, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blue of Route 1, Jackson Springs, is a crew member of the Coast Guard Cutter Chautauqua on ocean station in the Pacific.

While on station, Chautauqua is acting as a navigational aid for trans-Pacific aircraft and ships, relaying weather information to the National Weather Bureau. She also stands ready for search and rescue missions. The cutter normally operates out of Honolulu, Hawaii.
