 the Presbyterian Church after which he installed the following officers: vice-president, Miss Tressie Auman; secretary, Miss Cora Donaldson; cause secretaries, Mrs. Leslie Gordon, Miss Bert McCrummen, Mrs. North Lewis, and Miss Treva Auman. Also installed were the circle chairmen, Mrs. John H. McCaskill, Mrs. Hobson Tucker and Mrs. Earl Auman.

Youth Fellowship
 The Youth Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church elected the following officers: Becky Markham, vice-president, Sandra Hartsell; secretary, Bess Cheney and treasurer, Jane Jackson.

The junior class of the high school is conducting its magazine subscription sale. The class will be happy to take new subscriptions or renewals, and if a member has not called, just call the school. Mrs. W. M. Thompson and Miss Rebecca McLeod are the Junior Sponsors and they too urge support of this drive.

Distributive Education
 For the second year West End High School is offering Distributive Education as part of the Vocational Curriculum. Students who are interested in a career of distribution are enrolled in the program as juniors and continue in it until graduation. In the 11th grade, a student takes preparatory course called Marketing 1, in which he is taught the basic concepts of wholesaling, retailing, and services. In addition, to Marketing 1, a student takes the regular high school courses, and leaves school after lunch for on-the-job training in local business.

The following juniors are enrolled in the program: Beulah Atkins, Tommy Boroughs, Mike Bowman, Larry Brewer, Leon Dunn, Linda Freeman, Rennie Freeman, Betty Hancock, Ernest Hancock, Elgie Hannah, Teresa Luck, Brenda McKenzie, Larry McKenzie, Jean Monroe, Marshall Nall, Lawrence Pritchard, Bobby Pusser, Terry Reid, Catherine Richardson, Wayne Richardson, C. R. Smith, Jimmy Robbins, Larry Thomas and Stephen Thomas.

Seniors who are in their second year in Distributive Education are: Ray Blakely, James Dick, Jimmy Dunn, Sammy Fishel, Frances Hancock, Benny Jones, Michael McLean, Jimmy Munn and Walter Staley.

Omission
 Jane Jackson was omitted from the list of Senior Class officers published last week. She is the class secretary.

TV Stand Given
 The Sandhill Furniture Corporation has contributed a chest to be used in the elementary school library as a stand for the television.

Attend Game
 Mr. and Mrs. James N. White of Charlotte with the Rev. George Cheney, Bess Jane and Becky Markham, attended the State-Carolina football game Saturday afternoon in Chapel Hill. Other West Enders there were Jane Jackson, Dianne Williams, Judy Upole, Richard Wilson, Carlyle Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Auman with Jean and Laura.
