+ In & Out Of Town +

Dr. and Mrs. Leland Daniels are at home after a week in New York City, where they attended the World's Fair.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Farrior were his brother and sister-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Stacy Farrior of Montreat, both of whom are retired missionaries from China. Mrs. Farrior recalled that on September 20, 1943, 21 years ago, she and her husband returned to the United States aboard the Swedish exchange ship, Gripsholme, after being prisoners of war in China. Another brother, Dr. John E. Farrior of Memphis, Tenn., was an overnight guest here last week. He is a teacher in the English Department at Memphis State.

Mrs. J. G. deBerry has returned home after three months in California with her son, James deBerry and his family. Her brother and his wife from Louisville, Ky., flew out the last of August to visit their son, and Mrs. deBerry flew back to Louisville with them for a visit before returning on Saturday.

Mrs. H. M. Eastwood was here from Jacksonville, N. C., for the weekend with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Graham Culbreth and Mr. Culbreth. Mrs. Culbreth's mother, Mrs. J. B. Eastwood, returned to Jacksonville for a visit with her daughter-in-law.

Ernest L. Ives is at his home here, Paint Hill Farms, for about 10 days, when he plans to return to Bloomington, Ill. The Iveses have been in Italy during the summer. Mrs. Ives expects to be in Raleigh Oct. 6 for a meeting. She will then go to Bloomington returning to Southern Pines, with her husband, the first week in November.

Back from the summer at Wrightsville Beach are Mr. and Mrs. George S. Nevens, Jr. and his mother, Mrs. Nevens, who are once more at their home, 345 E. Rhode Island Ave.

Miss Arden Fobes, Director of Religious Education at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Garrison Forest, Md., joined her mother, Mrs. S. D. Fobes here Wednesday for a visit of a few days. They drove to Chapel Hill to visit Mrs. Fobes' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Cornwell, Jr., and her little daughter, Donna, both of whom are patients at N. C. Memorial Hospital. They were injured in an automobile accident Saturday. Mrs. Cornwell's leg was broken and her daughter received facial injuries, but both are getting along well. Mr. Cornwell, and the two other Cornwell children, also in the accident, were not seriously hurt.

Reception Sunday For St. Anthony's School Faculty

St. Anthony's Women's Club is sponsoring a "get-acquainted" reception and tea Sunday, September 27, at 3 pm in the assembly room of St. Anthony's School.

Mrs. Lee K. Smithson is general chairman of the reception. Mrs. James Reilly heads the refreshment committee, Mrs. Norman Black is in charge of decorations, Mrs. Hollis Thompson, of hospitality, and Mrs. R. J. Dougherty has charge of publicity.

Especially welcomed at the party will be new parishioners of St. Anthony's Church and members of the teaching staff at St. Anthony's School.

In addition to the superintendent, Sister Catherine Leonard, and Sister Helen Phillips, both of whom have been at the school for several years, new teachers are Sister Catherine Thomas and Sister Ann Christine.

The school is staffed by Sisters of the teaching order of Notre Dame de Namur, whose Provincial House is in Ilchester, Md.

AT SALEM ACADEMY

Attending the 193rd session of Salem Academy this year are Kathryn Gilmore and Scottie Lake of Southern Pines.

Salem Academy, a four-year college preparatory school in Winston-Salem, opened last week with a capacity enrollment of 98 boarding students and 29 day students.

Kathryn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Voit Gilmore of 700 E. Indiana Ave., is a junior and in her second year at the Academy where she served as a student representative in student government and is a member of the Scribblers' Club. She received the Citizenship Honor Award and was named a Commencement Marshal.

Scottie, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julian Lake of 330 S. May Street, is also a junior in her second year at the Academy. She was secretary of the Honor Council and a member of the Dramatics Club.
