LARGE MOORE DELEGATION GOING

Carolyn Blue Is Candidate For High YDC Post At Convention In Raleigh

The Moore County YDC will send a large delegation to Raleigh this weekend in support of Carolyn Blue of Eagle Springs for national YDC committee-woman. J. Elvin Jackson, senior party chairman in Moore, is among the many planning to attend.

Mrs. Blue, second-term president of the Moore County Young Democrats club has opposition from Sue Stephenson of Raleigh. The election of officers will climax the state YDC convention at the Sir Walter Hotel Saturday morning. Room 631 at the hotel will be the Moore County headquarters.

Wednesday, the announcement was made that the large Mecklenburg club had given its endorsement to Mrs. Blue. The Lee County club had previously endorsed her and of course her own Moore County club gave its 100 per cent endorsement and support.

Assurance of support has come from a number of clubs. Mrs. Blue said this week, but because of other contests absolute endorsements have been few. Both young women have been visiting clubs and other meetings about the State, seeking support.

First Large Coin Show In Area Set For October 17-18

The Sandhills Coin Club, drawing membership from a half dozen counties but having its headquarters and holding its meetings in Southern Pines is planning its First Annual Coin Show to be held at the National Guard Armory here, Saturday and Sunday, October 17 and 18. This will also be the first large coin show to be held in this section of the State.

W. T. Huntley, general chairman of the show, said 41 tables have been taken by dealers, up to the full capacity of the Armory, and the dealers and amateur exhibitors will put on outstanding displays.

Dealers are listed from over North Carolina and also from Towson, Md.; Martinsville, Charlottesville and Richmond, Va., and Spartanburg, Greenville, Bennettsville and Greer, S. C.

Final plans for the show were discussed at the club's monthly meeting at the municipal court-room Thursday night, with C. A. McLaughlin of Southern Pines, president, presiding. Doors of the armory will be open for the show from 10 am to 10 pm Saturday, 12 noon to 6 pm Sunday. Guards will be provided by the club for the entire period of the show, since value of the property to be displayed there will run into thousands of dollars. Door prizes will be awarded on both days.

Invitation to display their coins has been extended to two outstanding amateurs, Bill Floyd and Mac Owens of Salisbury, whose large and amazing collection is reported one of the country's most interesting.

General admission will be free and hundreds of collectors and dealers from over this and neighboring states are expected, along with many others who want to enjoy the show, with its fascinating displays and educational aspects.

This is the first big project of the Sandhills Coin Club, which was organized in March, 1963, and is affiliated with State, regional and national coin club associations.

Chairman for the show, in addition to Huntley, are June Bayliff of Aberdeen, chairman of the bourse tables, also reservations; Mark Liddell, Southern Pines, door prizes; Larry Snider and Winston Burroughs, Southern Pines, registration; C. A. McLaughlin, cards and posters, assisted by Huntley, in charge of direction signs, and Mrs. June Bayliff, of host cards; Bill Seawell, Raeford, social events and exhibits. The chairmen have set up their committees from the membership of some 65 persons.

Officers in addition to McLaughlin, are V. P. (Sonny) Guion, Aberdeen, vice-president; Mrs. Irene Mullinix, Vass, secretary-treasurer, and directors W. T. Huntley, Southern Pines; Price Morris, Laurinburg; Jim Pheagin, St. Pauls; Fred Riley, Ashley Heights, and W. S. Taylor, Aberdeen.

A series of slides from the American Numismatic Association, on "Coins of Special Significance," was shown at this week's meeting, with Earl Seawell at the projector. An auction sale was held, with Huntley as auctioneer and six nickels bid in for $99 as top sale item. The members showed and examined coins, sold and swapped until a late hour.

Surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Edward J. Purcell, Troy, N. Y.; Mrs. Catherine Guy, Menands, N. Y.; Mrs. Michael Meany, Schenectady, N. Y.; Miss Clara Simpson and Miss Edna Simpson of St. Petersburg, Fla.; and two brothers, Lesly Simpson of Troy, N. Y., and Kenneth Simpson of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Glaucoma Clinic To Be Conducted Here October 15

An eye clinic for the detection of glaucoma—a leading cause of blindness among adults in the United States—will be conducted at the National Guard armory on Morganton Road here, Thursday, October 15, it was announced this week. The hours will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Dewey L. Ritter, Jr., of Southern Pines, chairman of the Zone 5 Lions Clubs which are sponsoring the clinic, said that a local physician and two others from Duke Hospital, Durham, will be on hand to perform eye examinations for which no charge will be made.

The recently formed Lions Zone 5 includes clubs in Southern Pines, Aberdeen, Pinehurst, Pinebluff and West End. The clinic is one in a series sponsored by Lions Clubs over the state, in cooperation with the N. C. Association for the Blind.

More than 15,000 persons have been examined in 13 of these clinics, of whom 564 have been referred for further tests.

All persons over 35 years of age are urged to visit the free clinic, Mr. Ritter said.

Aid to the blind and sight conservation form a major project of Lions clubs throughout the state.

Pat Starnes School To Start Adult Dance Classes

A 12-week course in adult ballroom dancing begins Tuesday at the Pat Starnes School of Dance, according to Mrs. Pat (Boyd) Starnes, instructor.

Beginner and intermediate classes will be held at the Southland Hotel for couples and will include the latest steps in fox trot, waltz, swing, rumba, bossa nova and cha-cha. Mrs. Starnes attended a three-day workshop in Columbia, S. C. last summer, where she received instruction in the latest dance technique from nationally known teachers.

Interested persons are asked to call Mrs. Starnes at 692-2302, for further information.

Out-Of-Town Friends, Kin, At Dutton Rites

Coming from Virginia to attend the funeral services for Claude L. Dutton at the First Baptist Church on September 12 were Mrs. Roy Turnley of Post Oak; Mrs. Sadie Turnley and Mrs. Roy Burnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Ruby Humphries of Childsburg; and Mrs. Virgil Strickland of Snell.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Temple Turner of Rocky Mount.

Mr. Dutton's grandson, Roger Dutton, serving with the U. S. Navy in the Mediterranean, flew in from Naples, Italy, but airplane delays prevented his arriving in time for the funeral.

He is remaining here for a visit with Mrs. Grace Dutton, his grandmother, at her home on S. Bennett St.

An obituary appears elsewhere in today's Pilot.

Admiral Browne Dies In Virginia; Rites Set Monday

Funeral services for Rear Adm. (Ret.) George H. Browne, who died suddenly Wednesday at Charlottesville, Va., will be held held Monday in Arlington National Cemetery, at 10 a.m. with full military honors.

His wife, who survives him, is the former Jane McMullen of Pinehurst. He is also survived by a son and a grandson.

Adm. Browne attended the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., where he received his commission. During most of his career in the Navy, he was in the Submarine Corps.

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary society, he was enrolled at the University of Virginia to which he had gone for graduate work after his retirement from active duty with the Navy.

Blue Attending National Meeting

H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen left Tuesday night for Atlantic City, N. J., where the National Legislative Council is in progress all this week at the Hotel Shelburne.

Mrs. Blue is attending sessions of the council as representative of the North Carolina Legislative Council, of which he is a member as Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Rep. Blue plans to leave Atlantic City Friday afternoon and will stop over at Raleigh to attend the State YDC convention.

Seniors, Parents Invited To Meet

Seniors and their parents are invited to meet together on Monday at 8 p.m. in Room 111 (Old student lounge) of the East Southern Pines High School to discuss guidance services available to the students, said Mrs. Jane McPhaul, guidance counselor.

These services include: vocational programs, educational opportunities, military services and scholarships.

A representative of the Sandhills Community College will meet with the group to tell plans for the college as to curriculum offered and to discuss transfer of college credits.

Also present will be a representative of the Lee County Industrial Education Center at Sanford.

Any interested persons are invited to be present.

HOTEL

The pantry, salad room and bake shop are consolidated. Placed under a garde manager, cold cuts, salads and buffet foods can be kept cold and transferred instantly from there to the trays by the waitresses. Up to 300 salads can be kept cold here at one time, ready for quick service.

To keep hot foods hot are new infra-red lights on the serving table, which blink on automatically after the food has been there for a short period so it will have no chance to cool off.

A new, 17-foot Champion dishwasher has been installed of a conveyor type that moves glasses and silverware and dishes along continuously.

The kitchen is not air conditioned but is kept cool and free of cooking odors by air-blowers.

Other major redecorating and remodeling is evident in the front lobby, which is now entered by one wide front door, replacing the two doors and enhancing the beauty of the front entrance to the hotel.

In this lobby also, new chairs of warm black rattan, with colorful cushions, have replaced the former furnishings.

The dining room has been repapered throughout. Each summer, about 20 rooms are renovated and necessary redecorating is done, beginning with the top floor and working down, and this has also been carried out this year.

On the managerial staff at the Carolina, in addition to Mr. DeLany, are Gerald F. Hurley, reservation manager; Kyle Fleming, assistant manager and Clifford Smith, sales manager.

The hotel will open formally for its 65th season October 15.

INJUNCTION

Handmade Soap and Candle Co. are listed in the incorporation papers as Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. McSwain, with a Southern Pines post office address, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. McSwain of Raleigh.

The Carolina Company has several manufacturing plants and office locations in Southern Pines. The Handmade Soap and Candle Co. has a plant and salesroom at Skyline.

The complaint alleges that the defendant corporation, Handmade Soap and Candle Company, is manufacturing and selling soap and candles "under a trademark and trademarks and in packages, wrappers and containers which imitate and so nearly resemble" those of the plaintiff company "as to falsely represent that the defendant's soap and candles come from the same source" as those packaged in the distinctive appearance of the plaintiff's products.

The complaint alleges that the Handmade Soap and Candle Company "deliberately and maliciously" uses packaging and containers and confusingly similar trademarks "with an intent to deceive the trade and public into mistaking and confusing the soap and candles of the defendant for and with those of the plaintiff. . . for the purpose of unlawfully appropriating and trading upon the goodwill and reputation of the plaintiff. . ."

The complaint also charges that the defendant "has passed off or attempted to pass off its goods as being goods of the plaintiff; that it has sought to divert business from the plaintiff; and that it has appropriated "trade secrets, formulae, mixtures, machinery, forms and molds" and has unlawfully obtained customer lists, sources of materials supply and other information belonging to the plaintiff and has wrongfully appropriated this information to its own use.

The complaint is signed by two Greensboro attorneys, Clifton T. Hunt, Jr., and Theodore H. Brooks. W. Harry Fullenwider is local attorney for the plaintiff company.
