MOORE COUNTY RECORDER'S COURT

3 Young Men Fined For Attempt To Steal $600 Boat From Carthage Man

Three young Pope Air Force Base airmen, charged with attempting to steal a boat valued at $600, and malicious damage to personal property, drew 60 days each in Moore Recorder's Court at Carthage, Monday, suspended on payment of $325 and costs. Out of the fine, Judge J. Vance Rowe directed the clerk to pay Curt Luther of Carthage $125 to cover damage to his boat.

While the defendants Earl Wiser, 18, and Randy Kohn, 21, and Jay Gruber, 22 (charged with aiding and abetting) did not testify, Carthage Police Officer John McDonald read excerpts from their police statements. These indicated that Wiser had been the ringleader in the project, recruiting his buddies to help steal Luther's boat late in the night of August 13.

Wiser, who had been dating a Carthage girl, had seen the boat at Luther's place and secured the aid of Gruber and Kohn. While Gruber engaged Night Policeman Paul Lamm in conversation near the courthouse, Wiser and Kohn tried to loosen the boat from its holder but succeeded only in damaging it. Later, on hearing someone (Lamm) approach, they fled and Gruber, in the car, could not find them. All made their way back separately to Pope, where they were later arrested with the help of Army authorities. In court, they pleaded guilty to trespass and malicious damage.

Other cases disposed of: Charles Williams, Robbins, exceeding safe speed, judgment continued for 12 months on payment of costs and on condition defendant obey the speed laws during that time; Sidney Dallas Turner, Cameron Route 2, exceeding safe speed, judgment continued on payment of costs, defendant to pay or cause to be paid damage to pickup; Patricia Anne Baldwin, Southern Pines, careless and reckless driving, accident, judgment continued on payment of $25 and costs, defendant to pay or cause to be paid damage to other vehicle (evidence is this has been taken care of); Joseph Roy Hawkins, Southern Pines, exceeding safe speed, accident, $10 and costs;
