

WEST END NEWS

By SALLY AUMAN
Miss West End Chosen

Lovely High School Junior Janice McLean was selected "Miss West End of 1964-65" in the pageant, "Tonight," in the school auditorium Friday evening. As the tears glistened on the queen's face, she was crowned by Dianne Williams, "Miss West End of 1963," as Janet Markham, soloist, sang "Tonight."

Janice's reply to her question, "What would it mean to you to be Miss West End?" by Master of Ceremonies Stephen Lisk, was "It would be one of the biggest thrills of my life." She chose as her talent a song with a pantomime and dance, "Pink Shoe Laces."

The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McLean of Eagle Springs. Janice is a member of the basketball team, sings in the Glee Club, is active in intramural sports, is treasurer of the Future Homemakers, and serves on the Citizenship committee of the Student Organization.

Edna Saunders, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Saunders, was runner-up and the two winners will represent West End during the school year. Virginia Davis was selected by the 20 contestants as "Miss Congeniality." The most talented performer was Heath Hanner for her jazz dance solo, "Hot Toddy." Delores Brewer placed second in the talent division. The four runners-up in alphabetical order were Joyce Blue, Delores Brewer, Judy Luck and Laura Sutphin.

The stage setting was a canopy of stars with ivy-covered fence and wrought iron furniture before a background using the letters, "To-Night." The pageant was sponsored by the West End Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, of which Joanne Sutphin is president and Miss Judy Comer is sponsor, and the West End Parent-Teacher Association.

Stephen Lisk, president of the Student Organization, gave his imitation of "Mark Anthony" during intermission. Piano accompanists for the pageant were Janice Gordon, Jane Jackson, and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr.

Serving as marshals for the evening were Judy Blake, Wanda ones, Sandra Newman, Florence McCaskill and Wanda Richardson. The escorts for the contestants were Harry Lewis, Parks Blake, Pete Garner and Kenneth Thompson.

The judges were Mrs. Beulah McPherson supervisor of Moore County Elementary Schools; Roy Cashion, former president of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce, who has served on the Advisory Committee to the Miss North Carolina Pageant; and Alton Rollins of Sanford. Church Homecoming

Homecoming will be observed Sunday at the Baptist Church at the 11 o'clock worship service followed by a picnic dinner. This will launch the beginning of a revival service at 7:30 Monday evening, continuing through Sunday evening, with the Rev. James Moon of the Dover Baptist Church of Star as the guest preacher.

Edwin Baughn will direct the music and Mrs. Johnnie Greene will be the pianist. The Rev. Darrell Cox and the Baptist congregation extend a welcome to the public.

WMTU Meets
Mrs. Edwin Baughn, president, presided at the Woman's Missionary Union Tuesday evening at the Baptist Church. The program chairman, Mrs. Dennis Greene, presented Sam Hartsell of the Fairview Baptist Church, who showed slides and spoke on the Witnessing Crusade in which he participated in the State of Oregon.

Officers for the coming year were elected and they were, President, Mrs. Darrell Cox; vice-president, Mrs. Johnnie Greene; secretary, Mrs. Lonnie Luck; treasurer, Mrs. Bill Brewer. The cause chairmen are: Mrs. Robert Blake, Mrs. Edwin Baughn, Mrs. Dennis Greene, and Mrs. Bobby Dunn, with Mrs. Ed Jordan as the GA leader.

The Rev. H. T. Davis of Littleton conducted the Sunday morning worship service at the Methodist Church, at which time he baptized the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Aycock, John Charles Aycock. The Rev. Aycock is a "preacher son" of the Rev. Mr. Davis, who is responsible for his entering the ministry.

PTA To Meet
The executive Committee of the Parent Teacher Association completed plans for the year's work at a meeting at the school Monday evening. Mrs. Allan McDonald has interesting plans for the programs and the first meeting will be held on October 19, at the school.

Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr., is chairman of the Hospitality Com- (Continued on Page 21)
