Toward Accreditation

The Elementary School is working towards accreditation by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. Last year a study of the standards for accreditation was made and the philosophy and objectives of the school were set up.

The following committee will compile the material which is presented by each teacher, Language Arts, Miss Tressie Auman and Mrs. Ruth Bambaure; Science and related arts, Mrs. Mary Porter and Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas; Mathematics and Social Studies, Mrs. Evelyn Sewell and Mrs. Willie Thomas; Health, Safety and Physical Education, Miss Treva Auman and Miss Catherine McBrayer.

The steering committee to coordinate the total program is Miss Treva Auman, Mrs. Ruth Bambaure and Mrs. Mary Porter.

Tennis Tournament

A high school tennis tournament is underway on the new courts at the town hall thanks to the leadership of the Lions Club and other clubs for contributing to the project. The two courts are being enjoyed by individuals in the community as well as the Physical Education classes at the school.

Church News

Elder J. Hawley Poole and the Rev. George Cheney attended the meeting of Fayetteville Presbyterian on Tuesday at Lumber Bridge.

The Rev. Mr. Cheney will begin a study of the Introduction to the Covenant Life on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church.

On Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church School, a study will begin on "The Mighty Acts of God," by Rhodes, and books have been purchased for each family.
