

Little Girl, Big Horse Team To Win Ribbons

Lynn Bozick, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bozick of Southern Pines, has ridden Bourbon Street, a show horse, shown here, to win ribbons in two State Championship and Horse Shows recently—the North Carolina show at Raleigh and the West Virginia show at Charleston.

The talented young rider, pictured at Charleston, brought home a large silver trophy and blue ribbon when she and Bourbon Street topped their class in the Raleigh event. Little Lynn scores a lead-line and competes successfully with older children, riding on her own, Bourbon Street, now in training in Connecticut for the National Horse Show in New York's Madison Square Garden next month, is shown by Bozick & Co., local saddlery shop.

Lynn's six-year-old brother, Mark, is also a talented and promising rider who has ridden at Blowing Rock and in other shows during the past summer.

Both children are pupils of their mother, Mrs. Lila Bozick, who teaches riding at Vardell Hall, the new girls' school at Red Springs, and also at Meredith College, Raleigh. Mrs. Bozick has won many riding trophies around the nation and has judged at many horse shows and hunter trials.

OPEN TO PUBLIC
Concert - Lecture
Events Scheduled
At St. Andrews

Among the musicians, dancers, and public speakers listed for the coming concert-lecture events at St. Andrews Presbyterian College are TV commentator Harry Reasoner and the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra.

The series begins November 18 with an evening of Japanese dances by Shaomi Tachibana, performing ancient and modern, humorous and classical works. Walter Hautzig, pianist, will give a recital on December 4.

Pulitzer Prize winner and editor of the Laurel Poetry series, Richard Wilbur will read some of his poetry on January 13. A European pantomime artist, Frans Reynders, is scheduled to perform February 5.

"The Reporter's Job—the Failure of Objectivity" will be the topic for journalist Reasoner on February 9.

His speech and the concert by the state symphony under Dr. Benjamin Swalin on April 15 will be the only events presented at the Laurinburg armory. Other concerts and lectures will be given in the Liberal Arts Auditorium on campus.

Henry Steele Commager, noted American historian, will lecture on April 13. April 28 will bring the Antiqua Players to campus with music and instruments covering five centuries. The series closes May 3 with a speech by Zelma George, sociologist and former delegate to the United Nations.

IN CHARLOTTE
Mint Museum
Home Tour
To Start Today

The 12th Annual Tour of Homes, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Mint Museum of Art at Charlotte, will be held today, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, from 2 to 5 pm.

Seven lovely homes are being shown, each quite different in its appeal, from traditional to contemporary. In addition, the Myers Park Country Club, located in the tour area, will serve a complimentary tea to tour guests today and Friday afternoons from 3 to 5 pm.

A timely exhibit for the Tour of Homes is on display, an "Own Your Own" collection of works of art by Old and Modern Masters, on loan from Art dealers.

The exhibit includes old Masters from the Netherlands, France, England and Colonial America and Modern Masters of Europe and America.

All works, including paintings, sculptures, graphics and decorative arts are for sale. Tour guests who visit distinguished homes accented with fine works of art will have the opportunity to make selections for their own homes from this unusual collection.

The public is invited to attend all events, and tickets may be purchased at the door. Professor Arthur McDonald is chairman of the series.

Jonas Also Voted Against . . .

- Increased Appropriation for Pure Food and Drug Administration.
- Anti-Poverty Bill to give our people a second chance to secure an education.
- When he voted "No" on the Food Stamp he was also, in reality, voting against "One Price Cotton." The passage of the "One Price Cotton" Bill has enabled textile mill workers to get a raise in wages.
