Dr. VanderVoort
 Heads District
 Dental Society

The Third District Dental Society concluded its annual meeting at Durham on Monday after elevating Dr. T. Edgar Sikes, Jr., of Greensboro to the presidency and electing Dr. C. Robert VanderVoort of Southern Pines, who practices at Aberdeen, as president-elect. Dr. Sikes succeeds Dr. Baxter B. Sapp, Jr. of Durham as president.

The Society covers 14 Piedmont North Carolina counties, including Moore.

Dr. W. Harrell Johnson of Southern Pines, who served as vice president of the society during the past year, gave the invocation at the Sunday night banquet. At the luncheon on Monday, he gave the charge to new members, in his capacity as membership chairman.

Scientific lectures and discussions, business sessions and recreational activities were included on the three-day program at the Jack Tar Hotel.

Piedmont Offers
 Link With Fast
 Flight To West

It is possible to leave the Southern Pines - Pinehurst Airport at 5 p.m. and arrive in Los Angeles, Calif., at 10:19 the same night (Pacific Time), it is pointed out by Piedmont Airlines which serves the airport with seasonal service that began October 1.

The 5 p.m. flight west out of the local airport connects at Charlotte with a Delta Airlines flight to Atlanta where a connection is obtained with a non-stop DC8 jet flight to Los Angeles, the statement said.

Piedmont does not have a direct flight to Raleigh-Durham Airport, as an experiment with such a flight proved to provide not enough traffic to sustain it, it was recalled.

Travelers from here, however, can fly to Washington via Piedmont on a four-stop flight leaving here at 7:40 a.m. and arriving in Washington at 11:05 a.m. From Washington, there are connections, many of them made quickly, to New York and other northern cities.

The return flight from Washington to the local airport via Piedmont is faster, leaving at 7:15 p.m. and arriving here at 9:12 p.m.

There is not enough traffic to justify non-stop or one-stop service from here to Washington, it was stated.

On its regular schedule for the local airport, Piedmont offers four flights daily, one north-south round trip and one east-west round trip. Full information is available from Ezra Cook, Piedmont's station manager at the airport.

Visiting Choirs
 To Sing Sunday,
 Emmanuel Church

Choirs from St. Augustine's College in Raleigh and St. Philip's Parish in Durham will conduct a service of Evensong and sacred music at Emmanuel Church in Southern Pines on Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The music will be under the direction of Addison Reed of St. Augustine's and David Pizzaro of St. Philip's. Jack Biggers of the College will play the organ. Voluntarys before and after the service.

Officiating at Evensong will be the Rev. Edwin Smith, St. Augustine's chaplain. The event was announced today by the Rev. Martin Caldwell, rector of Emmanuel Church.

Following the ancient plain-song service, anthems by Coker-Pheasant and Brahms will be sung.

The 30-member choral group has received acclaim throughout the area for its choral work and will be singing for the first time in the Sandhills. The service on Sunday will be held on the Feast of St. Luke the Evangelist and the classical structure of Evensong will be that customarily used in the Chapel of St. Augustine's, which is the largest and oldest Negro college of the Episcopal Church in the country.

The service is open to the public.
