SIMPLICITY

Simplicity was the keynote in accommodations in the less expensive sleeping rooms of Salem Tavern, in contrast with a few more elaborate bedrooms for gentlemen and their parties. The tavern, built in 1784, is an Old Salem exhibit building at Winston-Salem.

Lions Club Speaker

Teel Williams, vice president in charge of sales of the Sandhill Furniture Corporation, spoke to the Lions Club Thursday night and presented folders and colored pictures of the new lines of furniture now being manufactured at the local plant. He suggested that the Lions could promote a community-wide project to publish the many attractive features of this section. Probably this would draw attention of this area to other industries, while at the same time giving full credit to the importance the local furniture plant plays in the economic well-being of this area, the speaker said.

The Lions Birthday Calendar Project was a success and the Halloween "Trick or Treat" candy sale continues through this month.

The county-wide Glaucoma Clinic was a tremendous success and the above projects will help to pay the club's share of the expense. Lion Roy Swearingen headed the clinic committee from the West End Club and he was assisted by Lion Floyd Cole, Hobson Tucker, Clyde Auman, John Branson, Billy McKenzie, also Mrs. Marvin Poole, Mrs. John Walden, Mrs. Earl Auman, Mrs. Allan McDonald, Mrs. E. R. Outland, Miss Lucille Eifort, and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr.

The Rev. George Cheney is program chairman for the quarter in the Lions Club.

On Exhibit
The Sandhill Furniture Corporation is showing three new pieces of the Arcadian Collection for the first time this week at the Southern Furniture Expedition in High Point. Representatives of the Sandhill from many of the states are here for the market including Mrs. Edward J. Shanahan of the West Coast, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bob VonCanon. The local members of the Sandhill attending the market are Teel Williams, Robert Henderson, Wady Lewis, Bill VonCanon, A. J. Hanner and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Von Canon.

Mrs. Leah Spencer, public school music teacher, delighted the PTA with a musical program at the first meeting of the school year on Monday evening. Each grade selected songs or dances which correlated to the reading rhythmic activities.

It was a pleasure to see this outstanding program presented with such ease, grace and happiness. The public school music is one of the extras provided by the special school tax and one which the West End-Eagle Springs Schools are proud.

Mrs. Lee Sutphin, PTA membership chairman, announced that 257 had joined the association and the school rooms having the highest percentage were the 12th grade and the fifth grade and second place winners were Mrs. Wyatt's ninth grade and Mrs. Willie Thomas's fourth grade.

The Rev. George Cheney gave a devotional.

Miss Rebecca McLeod, sponsor of the Student Organization, presented attendance banners to Miss Tressie Auman's second grade and to Miss Bert McCrummen's 12th grade.

President Elmer Blue expressed his desire to make this one of the best of all years in Parent-Teacher work and the attendance good.

T. J. Baldwin urged the support of the Bond election on November 3 for the urgent need of improvement in school facilities.

Miss Julia Comer directed a nursery for small children while their parents attended the meeting.

PTA year books were prepared by Mrs. Christine Edson, publicity chairman, and they were distributed at the meeting.

Basketball Teams

Coach Libby has selected the basketball teams for the year and they will play the first game on Tuesday night, November 3, in Hoffman. The girls are: Jane Jackson, Becky Markham, Diane Williams, Delores Conrad, Jean Monroe, Joanne Sutphin, Janice McLean, Judy Hartsell, Martha Richardson, Pat Luck, Jaet Reynolds, Christine Sutphin, and Suzy VonCanon.

The boys on the team are: Stephen Lisk, J. E. Bost, Harry Lewis, Charles Harris, Tommy Boroughs, Parks Blake, Pete Garner, C. R. Smith, Jimmy Robbins, Rupert Donaldson, Kenneth Thompson and Bobby Pusser.

A basketball clinic was held Wednesday night at the Sinclair Gym. Jim Baker of the East Carolina Basketball Association, brought the public up to date on the new rules of the game.

W.M.U. Program
Mrs. John C. Greene, program chairman for the Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church, gave a preview of the program for the church year at the meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. Darrell Cox presided at the meeting at the church with 10 members present. Attending the Sandhill Associational meeting at Beulah Hill Baptist Church last Friday from the West End Church were the Rev. Darrell Cox, Dennis Greene and Henry Muse.

Personals
Mrs. R. B. Donaldson is a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital and her son, Bruce of Columbus, Ga., is here for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. Floyd Upole and Miss Judy Upole of Charlotte went by plane last weekend for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Upole in Salisbury, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Greene and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Melton with Cindy of Pinebluff enjoyed the Western North Carolina scenery last weekend. They saw the leaves turning at the peak of their beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCracken have been confined to their home for several days because of illness.

A son was born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harrison at Moore Memorial Hospital.

A son was born this week to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Elected to serve as deacons of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday were Roy Carter, Leslie Gordon and Watts Auman.

Mrs. Teel Williams is a patient at Duke Hospital.

Principal Wood has commended the Beta Club for making posters on the theme, "A Code For Teen-agers." Sandra Hartsell is president of this service-leadership club and Miss Bert McCrummen is the sponsor.

The Scholarship and Attendance Committee, headed by Judy Hartsell, has worked out the daily percent attendance for the first six weeks of school. Their findings were placed in graph form on posters and placed in

Sunrise Theatre

Texas three years after the Civil War is the setting for "Rio Conchos," De Luxe Color and CinemaScope Western from Twentieth Century-Fox opening Sunday, to run through Tuesday at the Sunrise Theatre.

Richard Boone, Stuart Whitman and Tony Franciosa star with Wende Wagner, Warner Anderson, football star Jim Brown and Edmond O'Brien.

The story tells of four men: Boone, Whitman, Franciosa and Brown, who are sent by the U.S. Cavalry to recover 2,000 stolen rifles. It is feared that these rifles will be sold to the Apaches who will use them to drench the Southwest in violence.

At the bottom of the plot is an ex-Confederate colonel, played by Edmond O'Brien, who is bitter about the outcome of the Civil War, and seeks to avenge Apomattox by arming the war-like Apaches and turning them loose against the United States.

the Elementary and High School buildings. Judy was assisted by Kay Brown and Paulette Luck.
