Pinehurst School News

By KAYE GILMORE and JUDI MCKENZIE
College Boards
A group of droopy, sleepy (too sleepy to be nervous) students met at the Southern Pines School at 8:30 Saturday morning, December 5. It seemed such an un-earthly hour to be up and taking Scholastic Aptitude Tests for college entrance. However, when a thick test booklet reached each student, all the directions were given, and the word "begin!" was sounded, the group of droopy, sleepy students was shocked into reality. For some of them, this was a last chance to make a good grade for college. But we are certain that every student will make above what he expected.

Honor Rolls
Happy days are here again! Wednesday, December 2, reports of each student's work for the past six weeks were given out in the form of report cards! There were many sighs of relief from some lucky students who had made better than they expected, but there were some sighs of disappointment from those who didn't do so well. All we could say is, "Good luck next six weeks!"

On the first honor rolls are:
Grade 12: Nance Gadd, Debbie Prince, and Judi McKenzie.

Grade 11: Barbara Garrison, Mary MacHarg, and Kay Underwood.

Grade 10: Audrey Owens.

CP&L Employs Scott As Engineer At Raleigh

Edwin Norman Scott has been employed by Carolina Power & Light Company as an engineer in the company's line engineering section in Raleigh.

A native of Glendive, Mont., he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Montana State College. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and a veteran of two years of service in the U. S. Army.

He is married to the former Phyllis Anne King of Southern Pines.

girls in the Home Economics classes are very busy. They are making many, many bright and colorful decorations for Christmas from everyday things that you would not think about being suitable. Their teacher, Miss Jones, has many novel ideas about the making of these decorations, and she is a great help to the girls.

Christmas Means Fun
Monday, December 7, there was a joint meeting of the Future Homemakers of America and the Student Council. The purpose of the meeting was to decide if the two clubs would give a tea for the whole school as a Christmas present. It was voted that the two clubs do this. The tea is to be held in the lounge of the high school building either Monday, December 21 or Tuesday, the 22nd.

Sunrise Theatre

The baffling circumstances surrounding a tragic air crash are the subjects of "Fate Is the Hunter." Twentieth Century-Fox release in CinemaScope which opens Sunday at the Sunrise Theatre. The script by Harold Medford is based on Ernest K. Gann's book of the same name, a saga of the airways by the same man who wrote "The High and the Mighty" and "Island in the Sky." The film will be seen Sunday and Monday.

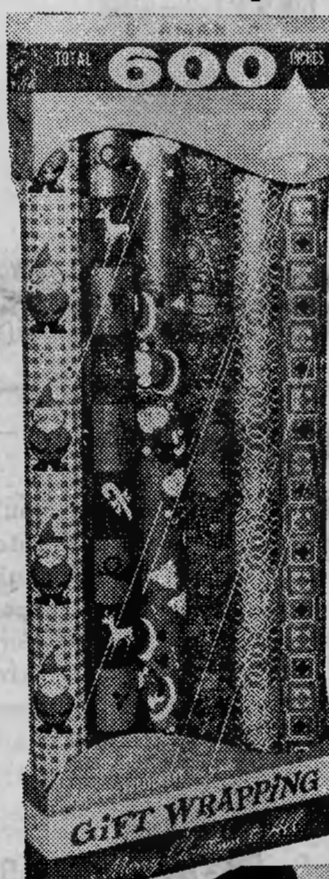

Glenn Ford stars as Sam McBane, the man ordered to investigate the causes of a jet airplane disaster in which the only survivor was an airline stewardess, played by Suzanne Pleshette.

Co-starred with the above are Wally Cox, Nehemiah Persoff and Mark Stevens. Jane Russell also appears in a cameo role as an actress who entertains the troops in World War II.
