Mrs. Tilt Rents House For Season

Mrs. Rodman K. Tilt gets here this weekend from Bedford Hills, N. Y., and will spend the balance of the season at the home at 570 E. Indiana Ave., belonging to Mrs. Colin Smith.

Mrs. Tilt comes here yearly to hunt and take part in other equestrian activities in the Sandhills. She has leased the house, through the Resort Realty Corporation, and will be joined on weekends by her husband, who is in business in New York.

Mrs. Smith left last week for several days at the Biscayne Terrace in Miami, sailing from there Thursday aboard the schooner, Yankee Clipper, for a trip to the Bahamas and the West Indies.

She expects to return to Southern Pines in late April, after a visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Carl Young and family, at Fort Rucker, Ala.

Legion And Auxiliary Hold Joint Meeting

Mrs. Allie B. Rose was hostess to 20 members and guests of the American Legion and Auxiliary at her home Tuesday evening.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Vernon Doughty, the business session was presided over by Mrs. Dan McNeill.

Legislative chairman, Mrs. L. A. Des Pland, presented a resume of important Legion - sponsored bills passed during the 88th session of Congress, and pending bills for future action in the 89th session.

Mrs. William Ryan, a member in Bristol, Va. was a visitor, playing several numbers on her harmonica at the close of the meeting.

Co-hostess Mrs. Arthur M. Causey of Lakeview, served a delicious chicken-salad course.

Camp Easter Director Shows Slides At Jr. Women's Club Meet

Mrs. Betty Liddell, showed slides taken last summer at Camp Easter, the crippled children's camp outside Southern Pines, at the Tuesday night meeting of the Junior Women's Club, held at Emmanuel Episcopal Church. Mrs. Liddell is director of Camp Easter and area secretary for the N. C. Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Mrs. Bill Samuels, president, presided at the meeting and welcomed new members; Mrs. Larry Addleton, Mrs. Lawrence Ausbon, Mrs. Arthur McSwain, Mrs. Jere McKeithen, Jr., Mrs. Richard Schneid and Mrs. Robert Smith.

Persons having stamps, other than the regular four and five cent variety and air mail, are asked to donate these to the Junior Women's Club as the club turns stamps over to veterans hospitals in the state, a continuing project with the organization.

Actress With Local Connections, Guest 'Celebrity' On Les Crane Late TV Show

A "guest celebrity" on the Les Crane late television show Tuesday night was Penny Fuller, an actress with Sandhills connections who has the leading role in the Broadway hit comedy, "Barefoot in the Park."

Penny is the daughter of Mrs. Anderson Rountree of Lumberton, formerly of Southern Pines, and of W. W. "Bill" Fuller of Florida. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson spend the winters at the Park View Hotel here. They have a home in Canandaigua, N. Y. Penny was raised here and in Durham.

Her grandmother watched her on the Les Crane Show this week and said later she was astonished to learn how many other people had stayed up so late to watch.

In September, the Thompsons went by the television studio in New York to watch their granddaughter rehearse for the serial, "Edge of Night," in which Penny starred all summer.

They also met the cast and informed the actor who played the villain, "we all hate you up at the Lake (Canandaigua), but you do a fine acting job."

Most of the Thompsons' friends and neighbors at the Lake have known Penny since she was a youngster and watched the serial every day.

Penny had to quit this show in the fall as it was "live," and her schedule was too full, with two matinees and six evening performances in the theatre.

District Interviews For Morehead Award Candidates Slated Saturday

Twenty-nine high school male seniors from 15 counties in this area will be interviewed Saturday, January 16, at the Bladen County Board of Education Building in Elizabethtown by the Morehead Awards District III Committee.

Moore County's two nominees are Charles Allan McLaughlin, Jr., of Southern Pines and Lanny Clay Parker of Pinebluff.

The 29 nominees from District III, for awards of study at the University of North Carolina, will be interviewed in statewide competition with 168 boys from the other six Morehead Awards Districts.

District III is composed of Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Cumberland, Duplin, Hoke, Jones, Moore, New Hanover, Onslow, Pender, Robeson, Sampson, Scotland and Wayne counties.

Peter B. Ruffin of Wilmington is chairman of the District III Committee. Committee members are Claude W. Rankin, Sr. of Fayetteville, Malcolm Seawell of Chapel Hill, Wilbur H. Currie of Carthage, Harmon Horison of Wilmington and Chatham C. Clark of Elizabethtown.

Morehead Awards provide four-year, all-expense-paid undergraduate educations at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. They were established in 1951 by John Motley Morehead, UNC graduate and native North Carolinian who died last week at Rye, N. Y.

Each of the seven Morehead Awards District Committees will nominate six candidates to be interviewed in Chapel Hill by the Central Morehead Awards Committee, along with 32 nominees from 16 private preparatory schools on the Morehead Foundation's selected list. Those chosen as scholarship candidates by the central committee will be interviewed by the Board of Trustees of the Morehead Foundation, who makes the final awards.

Last year, the trustees selected 57 young men for Morehead Awards.

Jack Reid, Exalted Ruler of BPO Elks Lodge 1692, was the speaker. He praised the 1964 officers for their cooperation. A social hour followed in the Green Room.

Oratory Contests For High School Students Slated

Major F. M. Dwight of Southern Pines, district chairman for the 28th Annual High School Oratorical Contest sponsored by the North Carolina Department of the American Legion, this week announced that county contests, with entries from high schools, will take place February 15-19.

Students entered in the nationwide contests—which call for an oration of between eight and 10 minutes on some topic related to the United States Constitution—are chosen by their schools.

County winners go on to compete in district contests, district winners in division competition and so on through a state winner to a national contest that carries a $4,000 scholarship as first prize.

State champions will get a $500 scholarship and there are numerous other prizes at other levels. Division winners receive gold medals and a $50 U. S. Savings Bond.

Any high school student may enter, and Major Dwight urged students to take part. Full information is available through high schools of the area.

Members Of Music Association To Hear Famed Group

The first membership concert of the Sandhills Music Association, 1965 schedule will take place Sunday, January 24, at 8:30 pm, with the Curtis Quartet as artists.

To be held at Weymouth, home of Mrs. James Boyd, this is the first of several recitals for members of the Association which, it is hoped, may be staged during the present season along with the regular public concert series.

The famous quartet which will play here a program from Sunday is well-known in these parts, having appeared here several times under the sponsorship of the local organization, consisting of members of the faculty of Philadelphia's Curtis Institute of Music, the quartet played together for so long, as has been often said, "as has sounds as if played by a single instrument."

As to the music itself, program has as yet been arranged, however, the quartets to be played by these artists will be, always, selected from the great repertoire for strings of the great composers of the ages.

Farrell Leaves Company After 35-Year Service

F. Dan Farrell, executive vice president of the Taylor Chemical Company at Aberdeen, will retire January 30, after 35 years with the company, he said this week.

Mr. Farrell began work with the company at the age of 16 and has been with it continuously since that time, advancing to the post of executive vice president which he has held for several years.

Samuel C. Frye Succumbs At 84

Samuel Carson Frye, 84, of Eagle Springs, died Sunday. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Eagle Springs Baptist Church, of which he was a member. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Odia Morgan of West End; one son, William Angus Frye of Eagle Springs; and five grandchildren.

Librarian, Learning Lab Counselor, 3 Other Members Added To College Staff

Addition of five new members to the staff of Sandhills Community College was announced this week: Mrs. Mary Drue McGraw, who comes here from Miami, Fla., librarian; Mrs. Alleen Wood Rogers of Troy, coordinator of tourism and hospitality services education; Mrs. Mary Idol Breeze of Hamlet, learning laboratory counselor; and Miss Teresa Combs and Miss Suzanne Sue, in secretarial positions.

Mrs. McGraw comes from Miami-Dade Junior College where she was an assistant librarian. She was educated at Bera College and Emory University. At Sandhills, Mrs. McGraw will be responsible for acquisition and cataloging of books and instructional materials. A request for $75,000 to make initial purchases of books will be placed before the 1965 General Assembly.

Mrs. Alleen Wood Rogers will develop courses and learning programs related to the tourist and travel industry, such as hotel and motel housekeeping and management, food preparation and service, service station operation, and tourist information. Training requirements and job opportunities will be ascertained from affected businesses. Mrs. Rogers has worked in motel management and was recognized as "Innkeeper of the Year" in 1961 and 1962.

Mrs. Breeze is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Before becoming counselor of the Learning Laboratory, she was a teacher at Hamlet High School.

Miss Suzanne Sue recently came to Southern Pines from California where she was employed in industry. Miss Combs is a resident of the Olivia section of Harnett County.

Penick Home Resident Speaks on China At St. Joseph's Hospital Guild Meet

Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy, president of St. Joseph's Hospital Guild, presided at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the group at the hospital, and paid tribute to Mrs. Walter Davenport, who died last week.

Mrs. Kennedy noted the devotion to the Guild of the Pinebluff resident, who worked long and well for the organization.

Mrs. Lee Smithson was named to serve out Mrs. Davenport's unexpired term as recording secretary.

Miss Brooke Bryan presented the treasurer's report.

Mrs. P.S.P. Randolph was hostess at the tea following the meeting.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Ethel Tyng, a resident of Penick Memorial Home.

Mrs. Tyng spoke on China, where she went as a bride in 1912 with her husband, an Episcopalian missionary. The couple, both Bostonians, remained there for 37 years. Her husband became Arch Deacon in Changsha, in the Hunan Province.

"We were in the real China," she said, "1,000 miles inland." More things happened during the '30's in the country in the way of progress than ever before, according to Mrs. Tyng, who felt that Japan was first amazed and then frightened at the updating of the country and for this reason, the Japanese leaders decided to make war.

"The old-fashioned ideas—everything changed and became really very modern, especially the ideas of the well-educated and younger people," said Mrs. Tyng.

By and large, she enjoyed the life in China, but missed her children when they had to go away to school.

The couple had five—three sons and two daughters. All are married but one daughter, now an architect in Philadelphia. The older girl is the wife of the Episcopal Dean of the Cathedral in Little Rock, Ark., and they have five boys.

One son is a consul in Italy, one a lawyer and one a CPA.

Returning to the states in 1949, the Tyngs settled after his retirement in Maryland, where he died about four years ago. Mrs. Tyng came to Penick Home here last year, soon after the Home opened.

Elks' Exalted Ruler Thanks Outgoing Does' Officers For Their Cooperation

The installation of 1965 Officers of the BPO Does, Drove 42, was held at the Southern Pines Elks' Club on January 5 with Eleanor Poe as Deputy Supreme President and Floy Wallace as Deputy Supreme Conductor. The meeting was attended by Elks, their wives, and special guests.

Cecile Cameron, past president, presented the President's Pin to outgoing president Mary Grover, who in her response praised all the members for a successful and rewarding year.

Marquita Daniels, past president, presented the Secretary's Pin to Ethel Weatherspoon, who in her term as secretary had marked up an outstanding record, missing only two meetings in five years.

Jack Reid, Exalted Ruler of BPO Elks Lodge 1692, was the speaker. He praised the 1964 officers for their cooperation.

A social hour followed in the Green Room.

Clay Road Farm News

By BOOTS BIBBY

Thaggard Baptist Church had 108 members attending the New Year's Eve party, which was given at the American Legion Hut at Carthage, sponsored by Richard Matthews of Clay Road. He also donated the refreshments, hamburgers, hot dogs and soft drinks. Games were played and music was provided by Jerry Garner, L. H. Stewart, and Phil Douglas.

Among members from Clay Road attending the New Year's Eve party at the Elks Club in Southern Pines were Mr. and Mrs. Bertice Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Alford, and Mrs. Ruby Matthews and son, Roger.

Mrs. Stanley Hyrowski, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Matthews, motored to Daytona, Fla., last weekend. She stopped at Marine Land and Silver Springs.

Freddy Bibby returned home Tuesday night by train, after spending Christmas with his brother, Joel, in Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ragsdale motored to Miami New Year's weekend, for the Orange Bowl Game.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garrison and daughter, of Wilmington, have been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Matthews, and Mr. Matthews, for several days. Mr. Garrison, Leon Matthews and Buck Short did quite a bit of hunting while the Garrisons were visiting.

Last week Lewis Garner, David Pilsen, Calvin Blue, Darel Matthews and Gordon Matthews went on a fox hunt below Lobelia Section of Little River Township.

(Residents of the Clay Road community are invited to give their items of news interest to "Boots" Bibby (Mrs. C. S. Bibby) at Rich's Shop and Eat Grill or phone them to her home (Carthage 947-2969), at night.)

Leaders Of Motel Group Meet Here; Dr. Stone Attends

The board of governors of the North Carolina Motel Association held a morning business session, followed by a luncheon, at Howard Johnson's Restaurant Monday.

Announced object of the meeting was "to promote education in selling the beauties and benefits of travel in North Carolina."

Special guests were Dr. Raymond A. Stone and Dr. W. F. Banaghan, president and dean of instruction, respectively, of the Sandhills Community College, and Mrs. Aline Rodgers, who started employment that day as director of a training program to be set up by the college for tourism and tourist-related business.

Bill Holleman of Asheville, president of the NCMA, and Ed Lewis, Jr., of Raleigh, executive vice-president, headed the group of some 20 association leaders attending the meeting.
