

WEST END NEWS AND PERSONALS

By SANDRA HARTSELL for SALLY AUMAN

School Paper
Mrs. Christine Edson and her paper staff have issued the February issue of the "Hi-Lite." Jean Monroe is editor of the school paper and Judee Tuttle is assistant editor.

McKenzie Speaks
Billy G. McKenzie, president of the West End Carolina Bank, spoke to Miss Bert McCrummen's economics class about buying stocks and the stock market. The class has visited the bank where Mr. McKenzie explained the function of a bank and showed the class around the bank. Mrs. Marie Blue and Mrs. Elizabeth Pusser told the class of their duties.

Attend District Meet
West End's Distributive Education students attended a district meeting on February 10 at Rockingham. Several contests were held throughout the day. Those representing West End were Ronnie Freeman in advertising; Jimmy Dunn in sales demonstrations; and Marshall Nall, Eighth District, vice-president, who assisted with the public speaking contest. Miss Pamela Aldridge is the Distributive Education instructor for West End and Aberdeen Schools.

Book Sale
West End Student Organization is sponsoring the sale of outstanding books in paperback editions. These books are carefully selected from the approved lists of the American Library Association and the National Council of Teachers of English. Each book has a durable paperback binding, a class-room developed format which is easy to read, and a practical price range of from 35c to 95c. Each assortment includes a wide selection of titles for all major subject areas, as well as for leisure reading, all written by eminent authors.

The books include selections on art, biography, classics, drama, history, recreation, language, poetry, science, and short stories.

Boys Win
The West End boys' team was again triumphant on February 2 when they defeated Union Pines on home courts by a score of 65-60. Stephen Lisk was high scorer with 19 points, and Pete Garner scored 17. West End's girls lost to Union Pines by a score of 56 to 18. Becky Markham was high scorer with 11 points.

The boys team defeated High Falls team on February 5 by a score of 72-53. Pete Garner was high scorer with 23 points and Harry Lewis scored 17 points. Our girls were again defeated by Falls by a score of 38-19. Becky Markham scored 6 points and Martha Richardson scored 4.

Free Lunches
West Enders noted with pride that only seven students were receiving free lunches in the school as reported by Mrs. W. B. Cole, superintendent of Public Welfare in Moore County.

Lions Club
President Billy G. McKenzie, and Mrs. McKenzie, attended the Pinehurst Lions Club Charter and Ladies' Night recently at the Pine Crest Inn in Pinehurst. The event also attracted club representatives from the Aberdeen Lions Club and the Pinebluff Lions Club. The District Governor of District 31-F, Glenn Edwards and Mrs. Edwards from Sanford, also attended.

Lions T. J. Baldwin and Billy G. McKenzie, appeared before the County Commissioners last Monday and presented a request that the county consider the installation of a two-way radio system between Moore County Sheriff's Department and the local constable. The request was given a favorable hearing.

The West End Lions Club was given honorable mention in a report recently delivered by the chairman for the State-Wide White Cane Drive at the Mid-Winter Convention of Lions Clubs held in Greensboro. The West End club has also met its individual goals again this year in its support of Boys' Home, located at Lake Waccamaw. The Lions have enjoyed the opportunity again this year to provide a rental service for cushions used at the local basketball games.

The funds realized from these rentals are used by the Lions to finance the many worthwhile programs and projects carried on in the community and the state.

The Lions Club met February 4 at Knowlton's Restaurant. Patrolman R. R. Samuels showed the group a movie and talked about highway safety.

Missionary Speaks
The people of the West End Presbyterian Church enjoyed their regular World Missions Family Night supper on Sunday night. Following the supper, Miss Elizabeth McNeill, World Missions speaker from Kobe, Japan, gave a talk. Miss McNeill directs a student center there which offers classes in the Bible and Christian faith, singing and counseling as well as worship, and conferences for students and young people from the university area.

To Attend Institute
The Rev. George Cheney will attend the Town and Country Institute at the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va., February 15-18.

New Station
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hartsell and Robyn are visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hartsell. Harvey has just completed a tour of duty in Alaska with the Air Force. He and his wife, Betty, and daughter, Robyn, will be stationed at Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla.

Circles To Meet
The Circles of the Presbyterians women will meet jointly at the church on Monday night, February 15.

Visits Roommate
Libba Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Johnson, who is a senior at Salem Academy in Winston-Salem, visited in the home of her roommate, Harriet Farthing, of Lenoir, during the break between semesters.

Personals
Miss Treva Auman and Miss Lucille Eifort attended a luncheon of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority at Sanford on February 6.

The West End Woman's Club will meet at the Methodist

Youth Building, today (Thursday). Miss Lucille Eifort will have charge of the program and Misses Blanche and Alberta Monroe and Mrs. Joe Wiseman will serve as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Auman are attending a meeting of the National Peach Council in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

J. B. Barnett and Billie Von Canon are patients in Moore Memorial Hospital following separate accidents at Sandhill Furniture Corporation last week.

Craig Cox and Mrs. Tony Graham are also hospitalized at Moore Memorial.

Mrs. Russell Hambrict of Charleston, W. Va., was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Von Canon last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Von Canon attended the funeral services for Fred C. Howell in Gibson on Saturday, February 6th.

Funerals Held
Claude Hicks, Jr., died Saturday, at Duke Hospital. Funeral services were held Monday, at West End Methodist Church, at 2 p.m. He is survived by his wife, the former Swanee Freeman, and one child.

Mrs. W. W. Hanner passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday. She was a life-long resident of Liberty where she was a member of the First Methodist Church. She is survived by a son, Ab Hanner of West End, a daughter, Mrs. Helen H. Thomey of Graham, and three grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church of Liberty, on Monday, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Hanner had lived for some time with the A. J. Hanner family.

Misses Bert, Valeria, and Neolia McCrummen attended the funeral services of William (Doc) Rankin at Jones Springs, Methodist Church on Saturday.

Attend Conference
Delegates from the West End Methodist Church who attended the Sanford District Conference at the First Methodist Church in Rockingham Sunday were: Rudolph Greene, Elwood Munn, Roy Swaringen, Miss Alberta Monroe,

SUPERIOR COURT

Non-Suit Taken In Manslaughter Case At Carthage

Hitherto unreported cases in the recent term of Moore County Superior Court at Carthage were:

Other Court Cases
Non-suit was taken in a manslaughter case against Ronnie Mac Maples of Carthage, Route 3, driver of a car which overturned on the Vass Road August 31, 1963, resulting in the death of Harold Fields Fore.

Nol pros with leave was taken in the case of Margaret Sanderson and Gladys Hall, the two "preacher women" of near Robbins bound over last August on charges of false pretense and fraud.

Other cases disposed of on the closing day of court:

Hal William Bowling, careless and reckless driving, pleaded guilty to driving faster than reasonable and prudent under conditions prevailing, costs; Bailey Phillips, reckless driving, after license revocation, $65 and costs on first count, nol pros with leave on second; Matthew France, bastardy, five months suspended for two years on payment of $10 a week to Julia Brown for use and benefit of three children, also costs; Mossy King, illegal possession of non-taxpaid whiskey, the court taking under consideration the fact that defendant is now under suspended sentence, four months suspended for two years on condition defendant not possess or permit others on his premises (home or store) to possess any intoxicating beverages, and to have the music machine removed from

and Miss Lucille Eifort.

Visit Parents
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jackson, Jr., visited in the home of his parents, over the weekend. Bill spoke to the National Guard at the National Guard Armory on the topic "U. S. Foreign and Defense Policies."

CAMPAIGN LEADERS— Leaders in Moore County's Heart Fund campaign during February are shown here. Seated, left to right, J. Douglas David of Pinebluff, county chairman; and Mrs. Howard Gschwind of Vass, regional executive secretary. Standing, same order, Dr. R. J. Dougherty, medical representative; and E. O. Brogden, Jr., memorial gifts and bequests chairman. Both are from Southern Pines.

his premises within one week, otherwise to be of good behavior and violate no laws, this sentence, to take the place of the old one.

Robert Strother, disposing of mortgaged property (jury trial), 30 days suspended for one year on condition defendant enter Veterans' Hospital at Fayetteville, to make payments to Clerk of Court starting within 45 days of his release, paying $20 per week till the sum of $323.34 is paid, also costs; Carlton Oats, driving while drunk, resisting arrest, five months on roads; Hurley Nash Heath, simple trespass (two counts), defendant to pay costs in first case, Clyde Heath to pay costs in second; John D. Graham, possession of illicit whiskey, possession for sale, 12 months suspended for two years on payment of $75 and costs, defendant directed to get rid of his jukebox; Kenneth Ray Cooper, abandonment and non-support, case dismissed.

Some cases heard by the court were reported in last week's Pilot and others appear in other stories in today's paper.

WAKE UP NIGHTS? FOR KIDNEY RELIEF MAKE THIS 4-DAY TEST
Take BUKETS green tablets. Drink plenty of water. Use coffee, tea sparingly. Increase regularity, ease aches and pains due to functional kidney disorders or your 39c back at any drug store. NOW at SANDHILL DRUG CO.

NATIONAL BEAUTY SALON WEEK

FEBRUARY 14 - 20

Dedicated To More Beautiful Women

KEEP THIS AD FOR A "HAIR FASHION" DIRECTORY

LOOK YOUR PRETTIEST...

Ladies, your hair is your "crowning glory." Always give it the best treatment possible.

Visit your favorite beauty parlor frequently. Your hair deserves professional care!

Visit Your Favorite Beauty Salon During This Special Week!

If You Value Your Hair, Choose Professional Care

Cameron Beauty Shop
Ph. Vass 245-7518
CAMERON

Elaine's
Same Street as A&P
Ph. 294-2861
PINEHURST

Correan's Beauty Shop
Ph. 245-7720
VASS

Elizabeth
Beauty Salon
Theatre Bldg. Ph. 294-9584
PINEHURST

Vass Beauty Shop
Ph. 245-7783
VASS

Lewis Beauty Shop
Ph. Pinehurst 294-9203
MURDOCKSVILLE

Agnes Dorothy Beauty Shop
Belvedere Hotel
Ph. 692-2701
SOUTHERN PINES

Mildred's Beauty Shop
Old Hy. 1 South
Ph. 692-3031
SOUTHERN PINES

The Beauty Box
157 E. New Hampshire Ave.
Ph. 692-8421
SOUTHERN PINES

Norma's Beauty Shop
672 S.W. Broad St.
Ph. 692-8711
SOUTHERN PINES

Frandel Beauty Shop
120 S.W. Broad St.
Ph. 695-3282
SOUTHERN PINES

Aberdeen Beauty Shop
108 N. Poplar St.
Ph. WI 4-1215
ABERDEEN

Margaret's Hair Styling
115 W. New Hampshire Ave.
Ph. 695-4122
SOUTHERN PINES

Allie's Beauty Salon
101 W. Main St.
Ph. WI 4-1482
ABERDEEN

Marenne Beauty Shop
114 W. Penn. Ave.
Ph. 695-3831
SOUTHERN PINES

Carolina Beauty Shop
110 Knight St.
Ph. WI 4-1514
ABERDEEN