New Sandhills Arrivals Listed

Liddell Associates announces the following real estate transactions, completed recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Maner E. Sibley and their four children have moved into the home at Sandavis which they have recently purchased. They are from Halifax, Va., and Mr. Sibley is associated with Burlington Industries.

After redecorating and remodeling the house at 1117 Massachusetts Ave., which they bought from Mr. and Mrs. William Frantz, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williams have about completed the move to Southern Pines from Lumberton, their former home.

Mr. Williams is a vice president of Southern National Bank and manager of the Southern Pines branch office.

A lot on Hill and Barber Roads has been bought by Mr. and Mrs. John Kesead former residents of Statesboro, Ga., now living in Pinehurst. The couple, who have one son, plan to build soon. Mr. Kesead is with Karagheusian A & M, Inc.

Also with Karagheusian is Vincent Connolly, who has leased the Bean house, 115 E. Massachusetts Ave. Mrs. Connolly and the couple's two daughters, expect to move this weekend from their former home in Nixon, N. J.

The Charles Thomases, who have been living on N. Saylor St., have leased the house at 540 S. Valley Road. Mr. Thomas is manager of the Holiday Inn. The couple has a married daughter, Mrs. Donald Walter, and a grandson.

Nona Pritchett Is Sorority Pledge

After a week's formal "rush-ing," Miss Nona (Mickey) Pritchett has pledged Sigma, Sigma, Sigma Sorority at East Carolina College. Only 15 invitations yearly are issued to this sorority, which is the oldest house on the ECC campus.

A graduate of the Southern Pines High School, Nona is the daughter of Mrs. J. U. Pritchett of Southern Pines, and the late Colonel Pritchett.

MRS. CHARLES WARD

Couple Married Sunday To Live In Southern Pines

Miss Shirley Joanne Smith and Charles David Ward were married Sunday at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church with the pastor, Dr. Julian Lake, officiating. Bobby Matthews was the soloist and William Stokes was organist.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Midland Road, was held in the church's fellowship hall. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Ward of 145 Valley Road. A graduate of the Southern Pines High School, Mr. Ward attended Elon College and is associated with his father in his engineering business.

Also a graduate of Southern Pines High School, and of Fayetteville Beauty College, the bride is employed by Norma's Beauty Shop.

Given by her father in marriage, she wore a gown of pearl de soie with fitted bodice, the skirt terminating in a chapel train. Her veil was of flowing illusion, attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white prayerbook topped with a cascade of hyacinths centered with a white orchid.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Carolyn Kidd, her matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Woodrow Branch and Mrs. Clellan May, III, wore floor length gowns of white crepe and red chiffon, with empire waistlines and matching headpieces. The bride's niece, Jill Kidd, was flower girl.

Mr. Ward's father was his best man. Ushers were E. B. Smith, brother of the bride, Charles Watkins, Woodrow Branch and Clellan D. May, III.

After a wedding trip to the Eastern part of the state, the couple will be at home on N. Bennett St.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the Misses Eda and Irene Custar of Pittsburgh, Pa., great aunts of the bridegroom, and Maj. and Mrs. Neil C. Brayton of Fort McClellan, Ala., sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies
Following the rehearsal Saturday night the wedding party and guests from out of town were entertained at a buffet at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Woodrow Branch and Mrs. Clellan May were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for the prospective bride in the Brownson Memorial Church parlor on January 25. The honoree was presented with a coronation corsage.

Miss Annie Margaret Brewer honored Miss Smith at a tea on Wednesday before the wedding. The guest of honor received a nosegay bouquet and a cup and saucer in her chosen pattern of china.

Other guests included Mrs. Newton Forbes, Mrs. H. Stagg McKim and Mr. and Mrs. Collier Baird, all of Pinehurst.

The following day, Mrs. James W. Sinclair of Warrenton, Va., and Mrs. Huntington McLane of Southern Pines hosted a Hunt Breakfast for members of the Moore County Hounds, following a meeting of the Hounds earlier that morning.

Sandhills Junior Hunt Club Members Taught Equitation By Trainer

Skip Webster, manager and trainer of Turkey Hollow Farm, instructed 15 members of the Sandhills Junior Hunt Club in various phases of equitation at the club's recent meeting in Mrs. Verdine Caddell's riding ring.

The time and place of the next meeting will be announced in a later issue of The Pilot.

HUNTING 'BRASS'— Formal attire for huntsmen and their wives was in order at the Hunt Ball at Whispering Pines Saturday night. Pictured are masters of two prominent North Carolina Hunt clubs—at right, W. Ozell Moss, MFH of the Moore County Hounds; the other gentleman is William Boren, Master of the Sedgfield Hunt. His wife is seated across the table from him. Next to Mr. Boren is Mrs. Robert Carter III, whose husband was MFH of the now disbanded Groton Hunt. The Carters, of Centerville, Md., served as judges of the Hunter Trials Saturday and while here, visited Miss Betty Dumaine of Pinehurst, who can be seen at the extreme left in the photograph. Miss Tribble, Bride-Elect Of March, Honored At Informal Reception Here

Miss Virginia Tribble, whose marriage to Ens. Edward H. Koster, will be an event of March 13 at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, was honored at an informal reception Monday afternoon at the home of the Naval officer's parents, Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Koster, on E. Massachusetts Ave.

Sharing the party honors with Mrs. Koster was the prospective bride's mother, Mrs. Jack H. Tribble of Aberdeen.

Miss Tribble was presented with a corsage of sweetheart roses and her mother, one of miniature 'mums.

A sterling bowl of blue iris centered the tea table, echoing the color of the antique blue and white Imari porcelain punchbowl, and Imari Palace plates.

Tall blue tapers lighted the table, which was laid with a Chinese lace and embroidered cloth (in the Army and Navy pattern popular with service families who have lived in the Far East).

Assisting as dining room hostesses were Mrs. Hoke Pollock, Mrs. Sherwood Brockwell, Mrs. Charles Phillips and Mrs. Edwin A. McCleure.

Surprise Shower
Miss Tribble was given a surprise kitchen shower by her Sorority sisters of Beta Upsilon Chapter, of Alpha Delta Pi in Chapel Hill Saturday. The bride-elect and her parents, the Jack Tribbles, stopped by the Sorority House for lunch en route to Durham.

The Alpha Delta Pi House was decorated in the Valentine motif and punch and valentine candy were served.

Pancake Luncheon To Be Shrove Tuesday At Emmanuel Church

Sausages 'n pancakes—all you can eat! On Shrove Tuesday, March 2 between 11 am and 1:30 pm, St. Catherine's Guild of Emmanuel Church will stage its fourth annual pancake luncheon in the church parish hall on East Massachusetts Ave.

This affair has become increasingly attractive and well-received over the past three years.

The young women of the guild hope that those who have attended in the past will do so again and that there will be many newcomers.

Tickets, priced at 75c for children and $1.00 for adults, are available at Barnum Realty & Insurance, Tot's Toggery and the Southern National Bank, or may be obtained at the door.
