Shakespeare

Monday morning, seniors from Southern Pines, Aberdeen, Robbins, West End and Pinehurst enjoyed a performance of select scenes from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" and "Twelfth Night," given by a group of professional actors at the Pinehurst school auditorium. Although the production lasted only an hour, it was certainly a delightfully entertaining experience for the students and should prove very beneficial for their study of Shakespeare this year.

Football Banquet
The annual Football Banquet was held at the Southern Pines Country Club Wednesday night of this week at 7 p.m. Dinner was served to the football players, cheerleaders and their dates. Then small gold footballs were presented to the players and the floor was cleared to make way for a dance with music provided by a dance band—a gala evening for a team and a season to be proud of!

Soc-Hop
There will be a soc-hop after the basketball game here with Highfalls Friday night, in the school cafeteria. And to quote the posters: "Ya'll come!"

Tests
The College Board Examinations, known also as the S. A. T., will be given again on March 6 at the school. The Merit Scholarship Test will be given to juniors on March 13 and on the same date the National Educational Development Test will be given to sophomores.

ABERDEEN NEWS

By ANN J. McNEILL
Study Group

The final session of "Spanish Doorways," a study about Spanish-speaking people, was held Sunday evening, February 7, in the Methodist Church fellowship hall.

Mrs. H. J. Edge presided and gave the introduction. The Rev. J. E. Sponenberg gave a summary of the study book. Mrs. Lea Yates directed a discussion of how local Methodists can help these people. Mrs. J. C. Robbins gave an interesting talk about some Spanish-speaking people residing in the Sandhills.

The Children's Department, under the direction of Mrs. Jimmy Garrison and Mrs. Ed Graham, presented a choral reading, "I Am the Door," and closed with the hymns.

Bridge Club
The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club enjoyed a delightful luncheon at the home of Mrs. George Anderson on Tuesday afternoon, February 9. Following an afternoon of bridge, Mrs. N. A. Pleasants was declared high scorer of the day. Mrs. Sid Taylor was second high and Mrs. Ralph Leach received the consolation prize. Others included Mrs. David Hobbs, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Mrs. Dan Farrell, Mrs. Bob Farrell and Mrs. C. D. McGowan.

Woman's Club
Mrs. Carl Wynn was hostess to the February meeting of the Aberdeen Woman's Club. Mrs. A. S. Porter, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. F. A. Cummings gave the devotion.

Mrs. G. A. Charles presented a history of Valentine's Day giving interesting legends of its origin. During her program, she showed some valentines years old and presented each of the 12 members and guest, Mrs. S. A. Worsley, with a lovely valentine. During the social hour, the hostess served sheet cake, nuts, mints and coffee using a Valentine motif.

Church Family Night
Families of Bethesda Presbyterian Church and their guests met together in the fellowship hall of the church Sunday evening for a delicious covered-dish supper.

Special music was presented by the Primary and Junior choirs, featuring songs of other countries, in keeping with the mission theme.

Special guest of the evening was Mrs. Charles Oliver, missionary to the Congo, who gave a most interesting talk on her work as a teacher in a Secondary School in the Congo. She and the Rev. Oliver and their daughter are living in Chapel Hill during their furlough year while Mr. Oliver is studying at the University. Colored slides of her life in the Congo were shown by Mrs. Oliver to illustrate her talk.

Around 100 persons were present. Mrs. Ralph Caldwell was in charge of the program.

Aberdeen-Pinebluff PTA
The Aberdeen-Pinebluff PTA met Monday evening in the school auditorium with the president, Lawrence McN. Johnson, presiding. The Rev. Mr. Scott of Pinebluff led the invocation.

The program consisted of a parent-student panel discussing questions pertinent to teen-agers today. The panel consisted of Mrs. M. H. Lathan, Mrs. Raymond Auman, Marshall Donathan, and Vivian Green. Student panelists were Betty Jo Swaim, Kay Lennon, Bill Yates, and Charles Swarngen. Gurney Baines, of the High School faculty, was moderator. Members of the audience submitted questions at the end of the program.

Briefs
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gross and son, Victor, and Mrs. Scott Miller visited relatives in Chapel Hill Sunday.

Sunrise Theatre

Said to be based on an actual plot perpetrated by the Nazis during World War II, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "36 Hours," starring James Garner, Eva Marie Saint and Rod Taylor, is a drama of terrifying suspense.

The thirty-six hours of the title is the time period in which the outcome of the war might have been fatefully changed if an ingenious scheme devised by the Germans to gain vital information about the Normandy invasion had succeeded.

"36 Hours" is the latest collaboration of William Perleberg and George Seaton, the producer-director team who have given the screen such effective pictures as "Counterfeit Traitor" and "The Bridges of Toko-Ri."

The film will be seen Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Sunrise Theatre.

Mrs. J. R. Brendell and Lynn Winston-Salem spent the week-end with Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Bobby Brendell and Mrs. Grace Sloan. Lee Buchan and son, Sam, attended the State-Georgia Tech game Saturday in the Raleigh Coliseum.

J. R. Brendell, Jr. attended the Educational Convention in Atlantic City, N. J., during the weekend, with Superintendent Robert E. Lee and Assistant Superintendent Powers. The group returned Wednesday.

Little Miss Billie Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, celebrated her seventh birthday with a party Saturday morning, attended by eight little friends. A valentine motif was used in decorations, games, and refreshments. Billie opened her gifts and the group enjoyed ice cream and cake.
