

Layton-Hall Pair Wed In Rockingham

Miss Jane Elizabeth Hall became the bride of Reginald Wayne Layton during a four o'clock service Sunday afternoon, June 17, at the Glenwood United Methodist Church, Rockingham. The Reverend James H. Harris Jr. officiated as the couple pledged their double-ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hall of Rockingham. She is a 1979 graduate of Richmond Senior High School and is employed at Richmond Memorial Hospital.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Layton of Aberdeen. A 1976 graduate of Pinecrest High School he is now manager of Rockingham Car Wash.

Wedding palms and candelabra decorated the sanctuary for the "Light of Life" ceremony. Altar vases were filled with white snapdragons, fuji poms, gypsophelia and feverfew. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Music was by Ralph Williams, organist, and Ron Taylor, soloist, who sang "The Wedding Song," "If," and "Feelings."

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by both parents, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin-faced organza enhanced with reem-broidered raschel lace. The English net transparent yoke and high neckline were accented with lace appliques. A scalloped band of matching lace trimmed the mushroom pleated cape effect of the bodice and was repeated in a wide border at the hemline of the A-line skirt and attached chapel train. Her waltz-length veil of illusion, edged in matching scalloped lace, was attached to a bridal cap of lace and crystal pleated organza. She carried a nosegay of stephanotis, fuji poms and gypsophelia.

Miss Crystal Rogers of Rockingham was the bride's honor attendant. Her gown was of blue floral print silesta chiffon on an ivory background. The full, A-line skirt was attached to a blouson bodice that featured short, push-up sleeves and off-shoulder peasant neckline. She wore a halo of blue tinted gypsophelia in her hair and carried a hand bouquet of white carnations surrounded by blue gypsophelia tied with blue and white satin streamers.

NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Lynn Chavis, who were married June 9 in a garden wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. Christian of Vass. The bride is the former Bonnie Lou Christian. Vows were said before the Reverend Fred Christcoe. A reception followed in the garden.

Missionaries To Alaska Set Church Visit

Missionaries who will be leaving shortly for Alaska will be in the Sandhills Sunday, July 1 for services at 9:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. at the Sandhills Assembly, said Rev. David Hicks.

Mark and Sharon Faison, who incidentally are his in-laws, are graduates of Central Bible College in Springfield, Missouri and are now working at the Assembly Church in Schenectady, N.Y. Mark Faison is Joan Hicks' brother.

In New York, the Faisons have been working as Educational Directors. They are now visiting the Sandhills Assembly and other churches to prepare for their move to Alaska.

Based in Anchorage, the Faisons will travel throughout Alaska in their mission with native Alaskans and will work to construct churches there.

The public is invited to the Sandhills Assembly, located on US 1 north of Southern Pines, on Sunday to meet the Faisons, said Rev. Hicks. The couple will be ministering in song in each service also.

flower girl. She carried a basket of blue and white miniature flowers. Her gown of pale blue silk and chiffon was trimmed with blue satin ribbon.

George H. Layton, father of the bridegroom, was best man. The groomsmen were Mike Snead, Jerry Scott, and the bridegroom's cousin, Ronnie Nealy of Lumberton; and the bride's cousin, Gregg Troxler.

Matthew Hall of Hamlet, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Hall selected for her daughter's wedding a floor-length gown of mint green crepe knit fashioned with a full A-line skirt attached to a chiffon bodice featuring a scooped neckline and split capelet sleeves. She was remembered with a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Layton, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a floor-length gown of cornflower blue maracaine knit designed with a sleeveless bodice, A-line skirt and matching chiffon fingertip cape. She, too, was presented with a white cymbidium orchid. Both mothers were remembered with a long stem red rose from the bride as she made her way to the altar.

Seated in places of honor and remembered with corsages of white carnations were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Doris Nelson of Ellerbe and Mrs. Robert Hall of Rockingham and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Baxley of Lumberton.

Reception

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. The buffet tables featured yellow pleated skirting and imported linen and lace cloths.

Highlighting the decorations was a five-branched candelabrum arranged with yellow and white snapdragons, fuji poms, gypsophelia and burning yellow tapers. After the bridal couple cut the traditional first slice of their wedding cake, the cake was cut and served by Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Lumberton, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom. Punch was poured by Martha Nelson and Lisa Hammond. Eva Blackwell presided at the bridal register.

After the reception, the newlyweds left for a Caribbean cruise. Upon their return, they will make their home in Rockingham.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Layton, parents of the bridegroom, were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Saturday evening at the Choice Sizzler in Rockingham. Guests included members of the wedding party and out-of-town relatives and friends.

Mrs. R.V. Skipper honored the bride-elect with a bridal shower Sunday afternoon, June 3, at the Skipper home on County Home Road. Guests were invited to call between the hours of two and five o'clock.

Mrs. Pat Napier of Rockingham was hostess for a party honoring the bride-elect June 2.

The bride-elect's co-workers at Richmond Memorial Hospital honored her with a cookout and bridal shower.

Chairmen Named By Garden Club

The Longleaf Garden Club held its first board meeting of the 1979-80 year on Thursday, June 21, at the home of the president, Mrs. R.W. Beiser, in Whispering Pines.
