BLAINE THE ONLY CANDI-DATE LEFT.

Logan, Sherman and Edmunds Knocked out. Leaving the Plumed Knight for 1898.

WASHINGTON. Nov. 17 .- A Republican member of the Union League Club it. Nes York, who is here, said to-night: "It is nearly as quiet in New York, so far as politics is concerned, as it is here. The Republicans, however, are talking a little of the future. There is one thing that sustains them, and that is the defeat of the Mugwumps. The election, to my mind of the Baptist church. This is a positive has settled one thing yery clearly-that Blaine will be nominated in 1888. The Republicans in New York talk of nothing else but Blaine. The last election knocked out Logan, Sherman and Edmunds. Blaine is the only man left. New York is uow a very hard state to carry. Hill has the machinery of the State and is : splendid politician. The last election result shows that Elaine polled all the votes that any Republican could have done. We Republicans have to recognize that there are two strong factions in our party in that State, and that whoever might be nominated is pretty certain to incur the op position of one of the factions. It is believed that Mr. Blaine can draw enough of the Irish-Ameri an element to make up for the Conkling Stalwarts. I know that it would be very hard to reorganize the Irish-Americans as well as it was done in the last campaign. I am not very hopeful of immediate Republican success in the Persons wishing to lend money or to borrow future. The factions are se strong and so money on mortgage of land may find it to their to the Real Barts bitter in the Republican party that it is probable the party will have to stay out for some time. #### Feeding Upon Christ

"Except ye eat the flesh and drink the bake to the trade of demagogism and blood of the Son of Man, ye have no life in you.

And how are we to feed upon a slain Christ? By faith, by meditation, by continual carrying in grateful bearts, in vivid memories, and in obedient wills, the great sacrifice on which our hopes build. The great word of the Master, "He that ce its a botile.

eateth me, even he shall live by me," contains a very singular and strong expression in the original. The word for "eateth"

there is that which is applied to the eating of ruminant animals. That is to say, not a hasty snatch, but a continual reiteseated meditation upon him in his person and work for us is essentail to our drawing life from him. If we so eat, meditatively turning over and over, in leisurely heart and in an attentive mind, the great truth that he has died for us, then we shall find that strength and peace and victory and life pour into our souls, and that Christ is, indeed, for us "the bread of God which came down from heaven."-Alexander Maclaren.
