TOWN AND COUNTY.

—To-day is Good Friday.

—Next Sunday is Easter Sunday.

—The recent rains have caused a swell in Neuse river.

—Miss Lelia Parker, who is teaching at Selma, spent Sunday there.

—Messrs. N. T. and L. M. Ryals, of Banner township, were in town Monday.

—Mr. I. J. Smith, of Banner township, gave us a pleasant call Monday.

—Mr. James Parker, of Asheville, spent Sunday here with relatives.

—Mrs. G. E. Thornton has returned from a visit to relatives in Bentonsville.

—Several Smithfield people attended the district conference at Clayton Sunday.

—Mrs. and Mrs. R. H. McGuire and master Milton, left to-day for Wilson to visit friends.

—Mrs. L. E. Kirkman is spending this week with relatives and friends in Benson and Dunn.

—Prof. Ira T. Turlington returned Monday night from a trip to Cincinnati and Baltimore.

—Miss Emma Taylor, of Raleigh, has been visiting the family of Mr. Reuben Sanders this week.

—Mr. W. G. Wharton, of Randolph county, is here on a visit to his brother, Dr. L. D. Wharton.

—Mr. Z. L. LeMay has been appointed Registrar for the town election. An entire new registration has been ordered.

—We are glad to announce that Mr. F. H. Brooks, who has been quite sick for the past week or more, is much improved.

—Mr. L. G. Patterson, auctioneer at the Banner Warehouse, has returned from a visit to his home in Granville county.

—A Mission Institute will be held with Carter's Chapel Baptist Church the 4th Sunday in April and Saturday before.

—Miss Ella Booker, who has been spending a few days here with Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Hines, returned to her home in the Polenta section Tuesday.

—Mrs. C. C. Thomas who has been spending sometime here with her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Hines, has returned to her home in Washington, N. C.

—Rev. W. H. Puckett, of the Granville Circuit, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here Sunday night and preached on "Parental Duty and Obligations."

—Mr. Cadmus T. Young, of Clayton, and Miss Janet Pool, of Raleigh, were married at the Hotel Dickens here Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. H. Puckett, of Granville county, performed the ceremony.

—Among those who called in and renewed their subscription to THE HERALD Monday were Mr. E. S. Coats, of Pleasant Grove, Mr. D. H. Surlis of Banner, Mr. J. H. Stanley, of Ingrams, and others.

—The Fortnightly Book Club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Miss Mattie Poul, Monday evening. Several entertaining and instructive papers on the early history of North Carolina were read.

—We call the attention of our readers to the mammoth advertisement of Mr. W. G. Yelvington on this issue. Mr. Yelvington, who has long been one of Smithfield's leading Dry Goods merchants, believes in a liberal use of printers' ink. Printers' ink used judiciously never fails to bring results. Business men, try it for yourselves.

A Delightful Entertainment.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments given in Smithfield in sometime was that given in Sanders Hall Wednesday night.

The following program was rendered:

Vocal Duet—Misses Glasgow and Woodall.

Instrumental Solo—Miss Eula Hood.

Recitation—Miss Mary Hollowell.

Instrumental Duet—Misses Woodall and Eula Hood.

Instrumental Solo—Miss Mary Floyd.

Instrumental Trio—Misses Nellie Morgan, Katie Woodall and Bettie Cobb.

Recitation—Miss Mamie Ellis.

Instrumental Duet—Misses Creey Morgan and Anna Underwood.

Instrumental Solo—Miss Beatrice Massey.

Recitation—Miss Zillah Stevens.

Vocal Solo—Miss Mattie Woodall.

Instrumental Duet—Misses Bettie Lily and Ada Barnes.

Recitation—Miss Lena Rose.

At the conclusion of the above program a very interesting play was given, entitled "Murder Will Out," by the following young ladies: Misses Bettie Kirkman, Nellie Morgan, Bettie Cobb, Eula Hood, Marie Abell and Rena Bingham. Each performed her part well.

The whole program was an entertaining one and pleased the large audience present. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on Miss Glasgow's music class. The selections were excellent and the rendition good. Every person on the program deserves special mention, but space forbids.

The proceeds, about twenty dollars, is given to the Methodist Sunday School Library.

New Magistrates.

The Legislature, recently adjourned, appointed the following magistrates for Johnston county:

Ingrams Township—W. A. Sanders, L. W. Hockaday and A. R. Keen.

Banner—Curtis Johnson and I. J. Smith.

Oneals—John C. Hoover.

Beulah—Elias G. Barnes, N. R. Pike, L. S. Cotter and D. H. Hinant.

Cleveland—A. M. Sanders.

Pleasant Grove—E. S. Coats.

Wilders—J. R. Barnes.

—The advertisement of land for sale, in this issue, by Rev. J. J. Harper, Executor of John Harper, should read, for cash, instead of "one half cash."

SELMA NEWS.

We have not heard of an Easter picnic yet.

Misses Donia and Annie Hood, spent Monday in Goldsboro.

Mr. W. B. Driver is enlarging his store and putting in a new floor.

Messrs. Walter L. Fuller and T. H. Whitley have bought Mr. J. H. Parker's livery and will run it. We wish them success.

Mr. Paul A. Richardson has sold his interest in the firm of P. A. Richardson & Co. to Mr. Edwin W. Vick. The new firm is to be styled "Vick Bros."

Mr. Clarence W. Richardson, the manager of the Selma Manufacturing Company, is having the brick hauled and will shortly have a force at work on the building. It is to be two stories high, 28 feet wide by 90 feet long.

Thursday, May 30th, has been set as the day for the election on the graded school tax. The question to be voted on is "For Special Tax," or "Against Special Tax." If the friends of the graded schools win the schools will be taught nine months a year. The tax can be only 30 cents on the $100 worth of property and 90 cents on the poll—a small tax but enough.

Last Monday night Olive Branch Lodge, No. 37, I. O. O. F., gave an oyster supper to the members after the work of the Lodge was over. A table was spread in the beautiful lodge room and all had seats around it and greatly enjoyed the oysters. After supper the lodge voted its thanks to the committee of arrangements, Brethren H. D. Hood, T. H. Whitley and J. D. Stewart. We were glad to have with us from Smithfield brethren J. H. Kirkman, J. L. Hatcher and Geo. W. Peedin.

SENEK.

Cavanaugh & Co., Benson, request their friends see them before buying their fertilizers. They will not be undersold.

Diamonds and Hearts.

The Selma Dramatic Club will present "Diamonds and Hearts" at the Academy Hall in Selma, Monday evening, April 8th, and at Sanders Hall, Smithfield, N. C., Tuesday evening, April 9th. "Diamonds and Hearts" is a good play, and the actors do it justice.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.
