FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1901.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Board of Education met here last Monday.

Mr. W. G. Weeks, of Spring Hope, was here Sunday.

Congressman E. W. Pou made a trip to Raleigh Tuesday.

Mr. James H. Pou, of Raleigh, spent Sunday and Monday here.

Attorney W. W. Cole went to Newton Grove Saturday on legal business.

Mr. T. W. Harrison spent Easter with friends and relatives in Weldon.

See notice elsewhere of stockholders meeting of the Smithfield Cotton Mills.

Rev. Mr. Fetter will conduct services in Sanders Hall next Sunday night.

Mrs. T. R. Hood has returned from a short visit to Greensboro and Burlington.

Mrs. M. A. Ibrie, of Pittsboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Pou.

Remember the meeting of the Fire Company in THE HERALD office to-night at 8:30.

Mr. Will H. Lucas, of Lucama, now a student at Chapel Hill, was here Monday.

Q. I. Hudson, of Apex, has been spending a few days here with his brother, Mr. J. B. Hudson.

Mr. Leslie Butler, travelling representative of the R. G. Dun Mercantile Agency, was here this week.

We call the attention of our readers to the new ads of Spiers Bros. and W. L. Woodall in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Parker have moved into their new home on the road just beyond Turlington Institute.

Mr. J. E. Dickens is opening up a stock of groceries in the brick building opposite Holt's hardware store.

Misses Meta Uzzle and Nellie Wilson, of Wilson's Mills, have been visiting the family of Rev. J. J. Harper this week.

Mrs. Sarah Turlington, after spending a few days here with her son, Prof. Ira T. Turlington, returned home Monday.

Messrs. D. M. Peddy and J. Wayland Allen, of THE HERALD force, spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Raleigh.

Mr. J. L. Woodall, who spent a few weeks here in the law office of Mr. James A. Wellons, has entered the University Law School.

Rev. Duncan McLeod requests us to announce that he will preach at Shiloh next Saturday and Sunday, April 13th and 14th.

Mr. J. E. Page, of Clayton, has recently enlarged his shop and otherwise improved his business. See his ad elsewhere in this issue.

The directors of the Cotton Mill met here Monday and transacted important business. All members of the board were present.

The Smithfield Conclave, Improved Order of Heptasophs, will hold their regular meeting in THE HERALD office to-night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. J. H. Primrose, District Deputy of the Improved Order of Heptasophs, was here this week and installed the officers of the Smithfield Conclave.

Miss Lida Vestal, who spent the winter here with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. S. Abell, returned to Graham Tuesday, much to the regret of her many friends here.

Mr. Sidney Barbour, of Clayton township, killed an eagle recently which measured seven feet from tip to tip of his wing. He sold the eagle in Clayton. It was quite a sight to all who saw it.

We failed to mention last week that the Dispensary Commissioners had chosen Mr. Geo. S. Wilson as manager to succeed Mr. J. E. Dickens. Mr. Wilson took charge of the Dispensary Monday, April 1st.

The Selma base ball team crossed bats with the Turlington Institute boys on the latter's ground Monday afternoon. The game was rather a one-sided affair, resulting in a victory for the Selma boys. The score was 21 to 8.

The many friends of Dr. Solomon Pool will learn with sorrow of his death which occurred at his home in Greensboro Monday night. He was one of the most eloquent ministers in the North Carolina Conference. He served the Smithfield circuit twice.

The merchants of Smithfield have on hand and are receiving large and well selected stocks of spring goods. A visit to their stores will convince the public that there is no better place to trade than Smithfield. Our dry goods merchants are liberal advertisers as a glance at the advertising columns of this paper will show.

Those who are interested in the organization of the Smithfield Fire Company, are requested to meet in THE HERALD office to-night at 8:30 o'clock to effect a permanent organization. The recent Legislature chartered the company and those most interested are anxious to organize it and take steps towards protecting ourselves against fire. All interested are earnestly requested to attend.

The play "Diamonds and Hearts," given at Sanders Hall Tuesday night by the Selma Dramatic Club was largely attended and much enjoyed by all present. Mrs. J. A. Spiers, as Bernice Halstead, was the star of the play and Mr. W. H. Call, as Abraham Barnes, the old bachelor farmer, greatly delighted the audience. All performed their parts well and our people are under obligations to the Selma Dramatic Club for a very pleasant evening.

Last Friday night burglars tried to break in several stores here. They broke one of the locks of Grantham, Austin & Co.'s store but failed to get in. They made unsuccessful attempts to break in the store of Ashley Smith and also the Dispensary. They were more successful at the Smithfield Hardware Co.'s store, and succeeded in getting in. They tried to open their safe but failed. Only a few dollars worth of goods were taken. No clue as to who they are has been discovered.

Mr. Starling Wilson died at his home in Selma, Tuesday, March 26th, at 12:15 o'clock. He had been a good citizen of Johnston county for a great many years. He was a brave soldier and fought for the Confederacy in the late war. During the last years of his life he was a good and faithful christian living up to his duty as he understood it until the end. He had been a great sufferer many years. He was sick of pneumonia which caused his death, but a few days.

Cards are Out.

THE HERALD is in receipt of the following invitation:

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Adams request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Marye E. to Mr. William E. Honeycutt, at the M. E. Church, Four Oaks, North Carolina, at eleven o'clock, Wednesday morning, May eighth, nineteen hundred and one. At home after June first, Raleigh, N. C.

Dr. G. J. Robinson insures all his property with J. H. Kirkman.

Dunn Telephone Company.

The Dunn Telephone Company, main office at Dunn, has bought the Home Telephone Exchange at this place and also the line from Dunn to Selma. This company owns the lines to Lillington, Newton Grove and Clinton. An exchange will soon be put in at Benson and Clinton.

The new management promises to greatly improve the service, thus making it indispensable to our business men. The long distance phone will be in the central office and all local subscribers can readily be connected with Selma, Benson, Dunn, Fayetteville, Red Springs, Florence, S. C., Lillington, Clinton, Newton Grove, and a great many other towns without leaving their offices.

The rate that has been charged subscribers here will remain the same. Subscribers who use long distance phone will be charged so much per message, or so much per month.
