—Col. R. H. McGuire, a prominent leaf tobaccoist of Smithfield, N. C., is in Danville in the interest of his firm for the coming season. He reports crops in his section as about planted and in a healthy condition with a probable increase of from 15 to 20 percent.—Danville (Va.) Tobacco Journal.

—On another page of this issue will be found the essay which won the essayist's medal at the recent commencement of Turlington Institute—"The Young Man of the Twentieth Century." This essay was written by Master Oscar R. Rand, the 14-year old son of Mr. O. R. Rand, Jr. It is a splendid production for one of his age and shows talent which if rightly cultivated will make him a strong and able writer. We like to encourage young writers and will gladly publish at any time any original production which we deem worthy of publication.

—Messrs. T. S. Ragsdale, L. G. Patterson, J. W. Stephenson, W. L. Fuller and T. Barham did some fine fishing Wednesday afternoon. At half-past five o'clock they went to the seine hole, on the river near here, taking three negroes with them to pull the seine, and by night they had caught 20 fine shad and one gar. They made only five hauls and being so well satisfied with their catch they returned home, the happiest set of fishermen imaginable. The whole catch weighed something like 100 pounds. This is the best fishing we have heard of this season.

DUNN AND SMITHFIELD MEET.

An Interesting Ball Game—Dunn Wins, Three to Two.

Yesterday afternoon the Smithfield and Dunn baseball teams played one of the best games seen in this section of the State on the latter's grounds. About 65 of Smithfield's population went to Dunn to witness the game.

We give the following brief account of the game.

Game was called at 5:15, Smithfield at the bat.

Vick flies out at first. Aycock hits safe. Rose fans out. Honeycutt flies out, retiring side, leaving Aycock on first.

Dunn starts with Jordan going out at first. Smith and Cagile fan out.

Second Inning. Short flies out first, also Ellington. Foreman hits safe and goes to second. Radford fans out, retiring side, leaving Foreman on second.

Dunn, second half. Randall and Jordan H., fly out at first and Fitzgerald fans out, retiring side.

Third Inning for Smithfield. Noble walks to first. Vick follows with ball to short stop, forcing Noble out at second. Vick steals second and is thrown out at third. Aycock fans out, retiring side.

Dunn, Wilkins fans out at first. Mizelle flies out at first. Shell comes up and fans out at first.

Fourth Inning for Smithfield. Rose comes to bat, knocks a three bagger and scores on wild throw. Honeycutt follows and lands safe at first. Short fans out and Ellington gets a hit scoring Honeycutt. Foreman comes up and bites the dust. Radford retires the side by going out at first, leaving Ellington on second.

Dunn, Baby Jordan strikes out. Smith is thrown out at first and Cagile, the $25 man bites the dust again, retiring side.

Fifth Inning. Noble thrown out at first. Vick follows going safely to first. Aycock and Rose die at home, retiring side leaving Vick on second.

Dunn, Randall hits to short stop and is thrown out. Jordan H. goes likewise. Fitzgerald gets a hit and goes to first, being the first man to reach the bag safely, then goes to second on passed ball. Wilkins reaches first on Aycock's wild throw. Mizelle retires side by flying out at first, leaving Fitzgerald and Wilkins on bases.

Sixth Inning. Honeycutt, Short and Ellington go out in one, two, three order.

For Dunn Shell flies out at first. Baby Jordan goes to first safe. Smith follows with foul over first. Called fair by umpire Young and scores Jordan. Cagile fans, Randall goes to first and Jordan H., is thrown out by Foreman and Randall dies on second.

Seventh Inning. Foreman fans, Radford and Noble fly out at first.

For Dunn Fitzgerald and Wilkins thrown out at first. Mizelle goes to first on wild throw. Shell strikes out and leaves Mizelle on second.

A TALE OF HARDWARE.

S. H. C.

(We have been furnished the following poem by Mr. J. H. Kirkman.)

If you are needing some Hardware,
A Saw or a Brace,
And will list to my story
I'll tell you the place.

Go to Smithfield Hardware Co.
You can't miss their store,
It is so very, very full
There's no room for more.

They have Tools of the best
For mechanics to use,
And nice Garden Sets for
The children to choose.

Hoes, Shovels and Rakes of the
Best grade of steel,
And Fish Hooks to catch you
A trout or an eel.

Lawn Mowers that cut like the
Edge of a Razor,
Much better lawns than
A cayuse as grazer.

Grass Catchers to put on
Your Mowers so nice,
And chisels to break up
Your Blocks of ice.

All sizes of Locks to put
On your house,
And Traps that will catch you
A rat or a mouse.

Fine Carvers to cut up
Your turkeys and geese,
And Mops that will clean
Up the dirt and the grease.

They have Cutlery, Tinware,
And Boys' Wagons, too;
And Hose that will cover
Your lawns with dew.

They have pails for the "maiden
Who sits all forlorn
Milking the cow with
The crumpled horn."

And many nice things
Too numerous to mention;
But this is enough
To call your attention

To the place of their business
On Market Street,
The Smithfield Hardware Co.,
It can't be beat.
