TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Holt Hardware and Buggy Co.

—Rev. Charles Fetter will preach in Sanders Hall Sunday night.

—Dunn vs. Smithfield on Turlington Institute grounds this afternoon.

—You can now get The Holt Hardware and Buggy Co. by phone. Their number is 49.

—Register of Deeds, J. W. Stephenson, is spending this week out at his farm in Elevation, looking after cutting his wheat.

—Prof. R. R. Eason, of Texas, is home on a visit. We are glad to see him and shall ever regret losing him from Johnston county.

—Does your neighbor take THE HERALD? If he does not, induce him to subscribe. By doing this you will confer a favor on both him and us.

—The Parsonage Aid Society of the Methodist church gave a very successful ice cream supper Tuesday evening at the Farmers Warehouse.

—What about that Market House and Town Hall that the City Fathers have been talking about? Smithfield needs it. Why not build it?

—Every family should subscribe to some good monthly magazine. Remember we send THE HERALD and the National Magazine one year for $1.50.

—We call your attention to the changes in the ads of the Smithfield Furniture Co., the Clayton Hardware Co., and Stancill & Klawansky, Kenly.

—Mr. John O. Ellington, cashier of The Bank of Smithfield, left Wednesday to attend the State Banker's Association which is in session at Asheville.

—Mr. George F. Uzzle is putting in a saw mill at Wilson's Mills. He expects to work in connection with it a grist mill and an up-to-date ginny.

—A game of baseball between Dunn and Smithfield will be played on Turlington Institute grounds this afternoon. Game to be called at 4:30 o'clock.

—We are glad to know that the idea of building iron bridges across Neuse river in place of the two wooden bridges washed away recently meets the approval of so many people.

—Do not miss the opening chapter of "The Gunmaker of Moscow" in this issue. This is a very interesting story of life in Russia and will run in this paper for several weeks.

—Mr. D. J. Wellons who lives near here has eight acres of the finest tobacco in the county. We have been told that it is almost waist high. Mr. A. S. Creech also has a very fine tobacco crop.

—Tying cows out to graze in Smithfield with ropes not strong enough to hold anything may be all right with the town and good for the cows, but it is hard on the people who are trying to raise vegetables.

—Oakland Heights is becoming to be one of the most attractive resident sections of our thriving little city. Mr. E. W. Pou has recently built three nice cottages up there which he now offers for sale on easy terms. See his ad elsewhere in this issue.

—We congratulate Mr. Willie D. Hood, son of our townsman Mr. Thomas R. Hood, on his success at Trinity College the past year. By his thorough preparation at Turlington Institute and hard work at College he was successful in winning a 50-dollar scholarship.

—Mr. D. P. Parker, son of our countyman, Mr. King H. Parker, was given the A. M. degree at the recent commencement at Chapel Hill. Mr. Parker is one of our brightest young men and won the A. M. degree while a non-resident student of the University. In addition to this work for the Master's degree he has labored in the school room the entire year as the successful principal of Stanhope High School in Nash county.

Using Love Powders.

Superstition is fast giving away before the light of civilization. The writer remembers when a noted conjure doctor lived and flourished in this county. People came fifty and seventy-five miles to see him. He made a fortune in this way. A person having decided he was "tricked" or "conjured" or had a "spell put on him," the next thing was a trip to see the conjure doctor. He was expected to take this "spell" off and in most cases it was to be put back on the person who started it.

Using love powders is another idea that prevailed and does to some extent yet. If a girl was infatuated or led astray by some worthless fellow, or if a girl was married to some fellow far below her station she was excused by herself, or her parents or her friends, and some times by all of them on the ground that the fellow used love powders.

Below we give a letter received by one of our druggists which shows that this idea still prevails:

June 10th, 1901.

Dear sir: "I will write you a few lines to let you know that I want some of your love powder as I am an alright boy you may trust me I will be under the bond yes I'm alright."

send it in Saturday to ———.

If not why not I'm alright.

I want a 25c package of love powder I will send you the money right straight as soon as I receive the stuff. Send directions with it.

yours truly, ———

TURLINGTON INSTITUTE BOYS

Win Honors at the State University, Wake Forest College, Trinity College, and Davidson College.

Every student, every alumna, every alumnus, every patron, every friend of Turlington Institute is delighted at the record our boys have made at the University of North Carolina and the colleges of the State this collegiate year.

THE HERALD readers who sympathize with ambitious young men and who may not have kept up with our boys will read with interest what we are about to say and rejoice with us.

Mr. E. D. Sallenger who left our school in June, 1897 and who entered the University in September, 1898, is one of the editors of the University Magazine. At the recent commencement he was awarded the Hill history prize and the debate prize.

Mr. E. B. Fowler left our school June, 1899, and entered Wake Forest College the following September. At the recent commencement he was awarded two medals, the essayist medal and an athletic medal.

Mr. W. W. Bam left us last June and entered Davidson College. He also won a medal, the declaimer's medal.

Mr. W. D. Hood, son of our townsman, Mr. T. R. Hood, entered Trinity College last fall and by his good work and faithfulness won a scholarship prize.

Now, what school in all this State can boast such a record?

Four boys at four different colleges—the four best colleges in the State—won six prizes and medals.

Who blames us for telling it?

IRA T. TURLINGTON.

Firm Believers in It.

The new Holt Hardware and Buggy Co. of our town are firm believers in up-to-date newspaper advertising. Each week since the organization of the company about two months ago they have called attention to their business in the columns of THE HERALD in such a vigorous way that their advertisements are attracting a good deal of attention. Mr. Thos. R. Crocker, the General Manager of the new concern, informs us that their trade is increasing every day and that a good deal of this increase he can trace directly to the advertising which they are doing in THE HERALD combined with the fact that they are very careful not to advertise to do anything which they do not do or in other words, if they advertise low prices, they give low prices. Their ad in this week's issue is a good example of up-to-date advertising.
