FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1901.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Holt Hardware and Buggy Co.

—The County Commissioners will be in session again next Monday and Tuesday.

—Dunn and Selma will play ball on Selma's diamond this (Friday) afternoon at 4:30.

—We understand that a movement is on foot to establish a Knights of Pythias lodge here.

—Mr. Ed. S. Abell and family have moved into their new house recently built on the corner of Third and Church streets.

—Rev. J. W. Suttle requests us to announce that he will preach at the County Home next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

—Mr. R. H. McGuire and family have moved into their home on Third Street recently purchased from The Brooklyn Mfg Co.

—The Smithfield tobacco market will have its opening sale on Tuesday, July 30th. All three houses will be open on that day.

—Mr. J. H. Kirkman makes a liberal offer by agreeing to give his commission on the insurance of any church property in the county.

—Mr. John Alvin Stephenson and Miss Barbara A. Faircloth were married here last Thursday by Elder W. J. Stephenson. They were both from Pleasant Grove township.

—Mr. O. V. Booker who has been travelling for a mercantile house, has returned to Smithfield and accepted a position in the shops of The Holt Hardware and Buggy Co.

—An excursion will be run from Raleigh to Norfolk next Tuesday, July 9th, via Selma. Fare for round trip $2.50. Parties who go will also have an opportunity to go to Washington or Baltimore.

—We want a correspondent in the following sections who will report to THE HERALD at least once a month, and twice a month will not be too often: Bentonville, Rome, Archer Lodge and Ezra. Who will send us the news from these sections?

—The fourth annual Sunday School Convention of the Raleigh Baptist church last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. R. H. McGuire and Mr. J. M. Beatty attended from Smithfield. They report a successful meeting.

—Mr. James H. Woodall has the contract to build the addition to the Methodist Parsonage and make the other needed repairs. While this work is going on Rev. Mr. Holmes and family will reside in the Rose house, recently vacated by Mr. R. H. McGuire.

—Kenly Academy offers to give a scholarship to some boy or girl of Johnston county. The Board of County Commissioners request us to announce that they will award this scholarship the first Monday in August. The applicant must be between the ages of 16 and 21. The scholarship is valued at $35.

—The County Teachers' Institute for white teachers will meet in the court house here next Monday and remain in session five days. The new school law requires every teacher to attend every day of the session. Those who remain away, unless they are provisionally hindered, will not be granted certificates to teach in the public schools in this county during the next school year.

—Every now and then we hear of some one in Smithfield finding fault with THE HERALD management because some local or personal news does not appear in our columns. We would remind those persons, whoever they may be, that the fault is their own and not ours. We gladly publish all items of local news that we know of. If those people who find fault will only report all items of news to this office our Local columns will be more complete and fault finding will cease. Please report all personal or local news to this office or drop a letter in the post office. By doing this you will greatly oblige us and please others.

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. G. Yelvington spent last week at Seven Springs.

Miss Lillian Setzer returned to her home at Dunn Saturday.

Miss Eva Harris left yesterday to visit friends in Henderson.

Miss Georgie Oxley, of New Berne, is visiting Miss Aggie Massey.

Miss Mattie Woodall left Monday to visit relatives and friends in Rocky Mount.

Miss Hattie Wharton and little William Wharton returned to Greensboro Monday.

Mr. E. F. Fowler, after spending several days with Mr. Will D. Hood, has returned home.

Mrs. M. L. Wade and children are spending this week with relatives and friends in Dunn.

Mrs. Ira T. Turlington and sons have returned from a visit to relatives in Wilmington.

Mrs. Parker, of Wake, is visiting her son, Prof. V. O. Parker. His sister, Mrs. Blalock, has been here also.

Mrs. John A. Narron and John Arthur, Jr., left Wednesday to spend several weeks with relatives in Scotland county.

Miss Elma Featherstone, of Roxboro, returned home Tuesday after spending a few days here with Miss Eva Hood.

Little Miss Pearl Stephenson, daughter of the Register of Deeds, has returned from a visit to her grandfather in Elevation.

Miss Maude Inge, who has been spending several days here with Miss Eva Hood, returned to her home near Weldon, Monday.

Miss Annie McLean, who has been here several days as the guest of Mrs. John A. Narron, returned to her home at Laurinburg Wednesday.

Miss Ross Smith, after spending several days here with Mrs. W. M. Sanders and Miss Lily Benton, returned to her home in Harnett Saturday.

A Delightful Lawn Party

On last Thursday evening Miss Eva Hood gave a delightful lawn party at her home in Brooklyn, complimentary to her guests, Misses Maude Inge, Elma Featherstone and Lillian Setzer. Quite a number of belles and beaux of the town were present who enjoyed the genuine hospitality of this ideal home.

Among the most pleasant features of the evening was the excellent music by Misses Maude Inge, Lillian Setzer, Annie McLean, Mattie Woodall and others. Not less pleasing were the recitations of Misses Elma Featherstone, Lena Rose and Rena Bingham.

Delicious refreshments were served and the guests of the evening returned to their homes to think and dream over the pleasures of the occasion.

Mr. LeMay Improving.

As reported in our last issue, Mr. Z. L. LeMay, while playing baseball at Turlington Institute Park, was hit on the right temple by a pitched ball and dangerously hurt. Up to Saturday morning no improvement had been made, and our physicians, Drs. Robinson, Wharton and Dickinson held a consultation and decided that an operation must be performed before relief could be obtained.

Trephining was done over one depression and over the other the skull was found badly fractured, and the fractured bones, two considerably sized pieces, were removed.

The patient stood the operation very well and at once began to improve and has been getting on very nicely ever since.

The Book Club.

The Fortnightly Book Club held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Miss Lily Benton Monday evening.

The following officers were elected for the next term: President—Mr. T. J. Lassiter. Vice-President—Mr. G. B. Strickland.

Secretary—Miss Mattie Pou. Treasurer—Miss Flossie Abell. Librarian—Miss Lily Benton.

After the election of officers the Club was delightfully entertained with some excellent music by Miss Annie McLean, of Laurinburg, and Mr. W. W. Cole.

The Club then adjourned to meet again the first of October.

The Holt Hardware and Buggy Co. of our town now have five drummers on the road. Look out for them.

Died of Paralysis.

Last Thursday Mr. Thomas Stephenson, of Pleasant Grove township, suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he died that evening. He was about 45 years of age. He was a consistent member of Fellowship Primitive Baptist church, having been church clerk for some years. He was a good and upright man and was much loved by his friends and neighbors. He was obliging and kind to all and in his death his community sustains a great loss.

He left a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met Monday in regular session. All present.

CAN YOU EAT AND SLEEP FOR Flies and Mosquitoes?

Haven't they troubled you more than usual this summer? Well here's the reason. A great many people have bought our SCREEN DOORS and WINDOW SCREENS, and so a great many flies and mosquitoes have been turned out into the "cold, cold (?) world" without a home. They found YOU didn't have screens so they decided to make their home with you. See?

Our window screens are adjustable and fit any window. Price 40 cents.

Our screen doors are not adjustable but we have a variety of sizes and can fit almost any door. Bring us measures of your doors. Price 90 cts to $1 15.
