TOWN AND COUNTY.

—The H. H. & B. Co.

—The Smithfield Hardware Co.
—J. H. Kirkman, Fire Insurance, Smithfield, N. C.

—Several of Smithfield's people went to Wrightsville Monday on Hatch Bros.' excursion.

—Until further notice the evening services at the Smithfield churches will begin at 8 o'clock.

—Rev. J. W. Suttle will begin a series of meetings with Four Oaks Baptist church next Monday night.

—Elder P. W. Willard will preach at the Smithfield Primitive Baptist church on Monday after the fifth Sunday in September.

—A new postoffice has been established in the western part of this county named Perlina. Mr. J. A. Partin is postmaster. It is a few miles northwest of Honeycutt postoffice.

—We are forced to leave out some of our communications this week for lack of space. Our readers will readily realize that the most important news at this time is matter pertaining to our dead President and his successor.

—Rev. K. D. Holmes will begin a series of meetings at the Methodist church here Monday night after the third Sunday in October. He will be assisted by some visiting minister, announcement of which will be made later.

—The Stated Clerk of Fayetteville Presbytery requests us to say that reduced rates have been promised by the railroads to delegates to the meeting of the body to open at Jonesboro, N. C., Tuesday, October 1, 1901. Apply to ticket agents.

—Governor Aycock appointed the following citizens from Johnston county to represent North Carolina at the funeral of President William McKinley: Hon. E. W. Pou and Mr. John A. Naron, of Smithfield, Maj. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, and Mr. J. W. Perry, of Princeton.

—Elder James S. Corbett will preach at the Primitive Baptist church here to-night (Friday), at Bethany Saturday and Sunday and here again Sunday night, at Little Creek Monday, at Clement Tuesday, at Rehoboth Wednesday, and at Fellowship Thursday; thence to Little River Association.

—Mr. Polie Gardner arrived Sunday from the North and will spend the fall and winter here looking after his stock business. Mr. Gardner has been spending the summer in Kingston, N. Y., and Nantucket, Mass. His many friends throughout the country will be glad to see his familiar face once more.

—Mr. — Thompson, of the firm of Johnson & Thompson, of Raleigh, is now on the Smithfield cotton market. Mr. R. L. Ray is also here. Our cotton buyers are giving the top of the market for every bale brought here. As we said last week our people are determined to make Smithfield one of the best markets in this section and we see no reason why they should fail. With three active buyers here every man can rest assured that every bale of cotton sold here will bring the highest market price. In addition, the round bale people are also on the market for cotton put up in round bales.

—On another page of this issue will be found full information concerning the rural free delivery service. This article was sent out by the department at Washington and should be read by all those who live along the rural delivery routes. Mr. Barr, of the Postoffice Department is in the county this week laying out and establishing new routes. As soon as these routes are established we will give more concerning them. The people who live along the route should procure good boxes so that their mail will be fully protected. The boxes mentioned elsewhere are recommended by the government and will certainly give better satisfaction than the ordinary box used.

PERSONAL.

Mr. D. J. Rose, of Rocky Mount, was here Friday.

Mr. John O. Ellington spent Sunday at Wrightsville.

Mr. E. J. Barnes, of Lucama, was here a few days ago.

Mr. Polie Gardner, of New York, arrived in town Sunday.

Miss Mittie Ellis, of Raleigh, is visiting the Misses Lunceford.

Mr. W. M. Sanders spent Sunday and Monday at Wrightsville.

Mr. Thos. R. Crocker returned Tuesday from a visit to Youngsville.

Miss Annie Puckett has returned after a two weeks' visit to Baltimore.

Mrs. Stephen Pittman, of Goldsboro, is visiting Mrs. Laura Massey.

Mr. J. H. Kirby, one of Kenley's enterprising business men, was here Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Johnson, of the Oakland section, is here, the guest of Miss Bertha Stevens.

Hon. E. W. Pou left Monday night to attend the President's funeral at Washington Tuesday.

Mr. Numa Morgan has been spending the past few days here with his father, Mr. S. R. Morgan.

Miss Hattie Dillon, after spending a few days here with Miss Lily Benton, left for Raleigh Monday.

Mr. W. L. Banks, of Wilson, representative of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., was here Tuesday.

Mrs. H. L. Skinner, who has been spending the summer with relatives in Charlotte, has returned home.

Mr. Zeb. V. Turlington, of Mooresville, Iredell county, has been spending this week with relatives in this county.

Miss Lena Rose, who has been spending sometime with relatives in the Bentonville section, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Sanders and children returned yesterday from Wrightsville, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. N. W. Verser, of Richmond, Va., one of the State managers for the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co., has been here this week.

—The entertainment given at Sanders Hall last night by Mrs. E. de Barrie Gill, was most enjoyable in every particular. She will give another recital to-night and all those who want to laugh should go out to hear her.

—The excessive rains the past few days have had a very depressing influence on the farmers everywhere. The crops throughout this section are very short and the rains have already greatly injured the opening cotton, causing the outlook to seem gloomier than ever.

Death in Smithfield.

Wednesday morning Walter Barber, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. F. Barber, died at the home of his parents here, after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever. All that could be done to stay the hand of death was done, yet the grim monster claimed him and tore him away from those who loved him best.

The funeral was preached at the Baptist church yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. W. Suttle, after which his body was laid away to await the Resurrection morn.

May the Giver of every good and perfect gift sustain and comfort the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Believing Dr. Seth Arnold's Balsam a reliable remedy for all bowel disorders, we hereby guarantee every 25c. bottle sold by us to give satisfaction or money refunded. Hood Bros. Allen Lee.
