Sufferers from this horrible malady nearly always inherit it—not necessarily from the parents, but may be from some remote ancestor, for Cancer often rans through several generations. This deadly poison may lay dormant in the blood for years, or until you reach middle life, then the first little sore or ulcer makes its appearance—or a swollen gland in the breast, or some other part of the body, gives the first warning.

of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

Cancer begins often in a small way, as the following letter from Mrs. Shirer shows:

A small pimple came on my jaw about an inch below the ear on the left side of my face. It gave me no pain or inconvenence, and I should have forgotten about it had it not begun to inflame and itch; it would bleed a little, then scab over, but sould not heal. This continued for sometime.

Two of Banner's Most Promising Young People Wed.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. R. S. Ryals, at 10 o'clock Sunday. Sept. 8, 1901, was celebrated the marriagenuptials of Mr. James H. Langley and Miss Helen Ryals, Rev. J. W. Suttle officiating.

Seldom in the knowledge of the writer has such a wedding oc-curred in our community. The gives the first warning.

To cure Cancer thoroughly and permanently all the poisonous virus must be diminated from the blood—every vestage of it driven out. This S. S. does, and is the only medicine that can reach deep seated, obstinate blood troubles like this. When all the poison has been forced out of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

Writer has such a wedding occurred in our community. The old time hospitality of earlier days was fully represented in the bride's father—the whole community being invited to share in the wedding dinner. And they turned out in full. turned out in full.

The attendants were J. W. Langley and Miss Geneva Allen, F. L. Woodall and Miss Eva F. L. Woodall and Miss Eva Maddry, Judson Cavenaugh and Miss Martha Britt, M. V. Thomas and Miss Callie Strickland, John Baucom and Miss Florence Johnson, M. L. Stancil and Miss Etta Wheeler, P. M. Pleasant and Miss Alice Benson, Edgar Jernigan and Miss Dicy Lee.
