

SELMA NEWS.

M. C. Winston went to Raleigh Wednesday. Hon. Claude W. Smith passed through here Wednesday. Mrs. Dr. W. E. Richardson, of Wake county, is visiting her brother R. B. Whitley. Mr. H. H. Preston has gone to Fayetteville to take a position in a large dry goods house. Miss Fannie McKay, of Manchester, N.C., who has been visiting Miss Margaret Etheredge returned home Tuesday. Miss Margaret went with her. Mr. R. E. Richardson, of Wendell, has taken a position with the Selma Manufacturing Company, and will be pleased to see his friends at any time. It is rumored that one of Selma's fairest daughters will soon be led to Hymen's Altar by one of South Carolina's eminent divines. We offer our congratulations. Buck Hudson is still buying cotton. Somehow or other the farmers will sell Buck their cotton. They are always satisfied with his prices. So bring it along. Dr. F. P. Venable, President of the University of North Carolina, spent the night in Selma with Dr. Noble, while on his way to Kenly where he spoke Thursday.

AROUND SANDERS CHAPEL.

Mr. R. G. Sanders made a business trip to Goldsboro Tuesday. Miss Nona Powell is visiting relatives in Duplin county. Mrs. M. E. Godwin spent several days in Smithfield last week. Miss Maude Powell entered school at Turlington Institute last Tuesday. Miss Mary Dunn spent last Saturday and Sunday with Misses Lily and Minnie Stevens. Mr. W. H. Sanders, of Richmond, Va., spent a few days last week with his father, Mr. Robt. Sanders.

Celebration of Tee Chapel Sunday School.

On September 21st at Tee Chapel Free Will Baptist church there was a nice Sabbath School Celebration. At 10 a. m. the school was called to order by our superintendent and all had good lessons. After lessons our secretary read the report of the school giving the subject of every lesson for 1901. After that 25 of the little children stood in a ring and sang two beautiful hymns; after which Elder D. R. Stafford gave an excellent Sabbath School address.

Elder W. G. Myers, of Goldsboro, delivered a short sermon to the children and their parents, and then the crowd adjourned to return in one hour and a-half.

Our superintendent, with a nice Sunday School banner, was in the lead and all marched nicely out after him, singing a nice hymn, to a large table where a lot of rich food was prepared for all; Rev. W. G. Myers returned thanks and then the crowd of about 350 satisfied themselves with rich foods, after which a large quantity of lemonade, ice cold, was prepared and every one drank all they wanted. Then all returned to the church to hear another sermon by Elder Myers which lasted about one hour and 25 minutes. It was a most excellent sermon. After his sermon the congregation was dismissed and went out and enjoyed milkshakes. All was managed in the nicest of order. Then all returned home thinking of the great blessings and rich foods they had enjoyed through the day. May God's richest blessings rest upon all that was present that day. EDDIE WEST.

Colored Baptist Association.

The Johnston Baptist Association, composed of 35 churches, will convene with the Selma Baptist church, October 16th, 1901, in the town of Selma, at 10 o'clock a. m. All churches are requested to be represented either by letter or delegation.

THE ISLAND OF SAMAR.

The Place Where the Ninth Infantry Suffered a Severe Loss.

Samar, on which the reverse to Company C of the Ninth Infantry took place, is an island which was never fully conquered by Spain. Only in the last three months did the American troops make their first serious effort in that direction. Gen. Robert P. Hughes starting out on a systematic campaign for reducing the island to American sovereignty. General Lubkan is the Filipino leader there.

The island is of about the same size as the State of Ohio. It is just south of Luzon, from which it is separated by the Strait of Beraardino. Southwest of Samar is the important but smaller island of Leyte, the narrow Strait of San Juanico marking the division between them.

Balangiga, where the Americans were overwhelmed, is on the southern shore of Samar, fronting on the Pacific ocean. It had several thousand inhabitants at last accounts, and was a port for the exchange of oil, rice and hemp in the primitive shipping of that region. Bassey, the town to which the 24 survivors made their way, is a local base for operations by the American troops, and is 25 miles northwest of Balangiga. Over this stretch of 25 miles, partly mountainous and largely overgrown with tropical forests, the little band of 24, including 11 wounded, must have made its way. Bassey is 35 miles southeast from Catbalogan, the capital of Samar, and the headquarters of General Hughes. The two places have easy water communication.

Samar is a wild but naturally rich section of the Philippine archipelago. It is thickly wooded and has rivers of considerable size, including the Antigas, the Ulut, the Oras, the Canaguayan and the Pagsahan. Lofty and rugged mountains occupy much of the interior and stretch down close to the coast. The island produces gold, copper, oil hemp, rice, cacao, wax and indigo. Its inhabitants are a mixed race, largely descended from Spaniards and Indians, but they include some families of wealth and refinement, who figure in the social circles of Manila.—Baltimore Sun.

W. T. Wesson, Gholsonville, Va., druggist, writes: Your One Minute Cough Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles." Hood Bros., Hare & Son, J. R. Ledbetter, Benson Drug Co.

During the prevalence of small-pox in Winston a year or two ago the city passed a compulsory vaccination ordinance. One A. M. Savery refused to be vaccinated and the mayor sent him to jail. He brought suit against the then mayor, J. L. Griffith, and Chief of Police Crutchfield for $10,000 damages. The case came on for trial in the Superior Court at Winston last week and the jury decided that Savery was not illegally arrested and imprisoned and hence was not entitled to damages.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Paylor & Lassiter will take great interest in all who sell tobacco with them. They take pleasure in showing the tobacco to the buyers and they get a good price for it, by taking plenty time in selling.

Paylor & Lassiter wants 100 thousand pounds of wrappers. They are anxious for tobacco, and I tell you farmers, it will be to your interest to carry your tobacco to them.

It is Important not to Miss the First Number.

The Cosmopolitan for October is full of entertaining fiction. Thomas A. Janvier, for some time not seen in the magazines, reappears in The Cosmopolitan with a Mexican story of love and adventure, "Forfeit to the Gods." Bret Harte, whose "condensed novels" won him so much fame, contributes a side-splitting parody of Hall Caine's "The Christian," Irving Bacheller writes a short sketch of a little New York inn, "The Shadow of Happiness." E. W. Kemble tells a short humorous story of "How the Buzzards Worked a Spell," while Clara Morris's love story reveals her as an accomplished writer, capable of analyzing and sympathizing with man's deepest emotions.
