Mr. W. L. Banks Married.

Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's mother near Eureka, Wayne county, Miss Margaret Lane was married to Mr. W. L. Banks of this city.

The beautiful bride entered the handsomely decorated parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. B.
Lane, marching to Lohengrin's wedding march which was played by Miss Beulah Lawrence, of Tarboro.

During the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Mr. Dailey, "O Promise Me," was sweetly rendered. The groom's best man was his brother, Mr. G. G.
Banks—the other attendants being Dr. J. R. Edmundson with Miss May Faircloth, both of this city.

The ceremony was a very solemn and impressive one—the ring being used. Immediately after the ceremony the daintily prepared wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple took carriages for Fremont where they boarded the cars for Buffalo and other northern cities.

This popular couple received a large number of handsome presents—many of them quite costly.

Miss Lane has visited in this city where by her many graces of hand and heart she made numerous friends. Mr. Banks is a popular and successful insurance agent of this city. He was originally from Johnston county.—Wilson

Died in Washington.

Mr. Albert Smith, who lived in Smithfield from 1870 to 1872, died suddenly in Washington City Saturday morning, aged about 60 years.

Mr. Smith had been chief of a division in the Treasury Department at Washington for eighteen years. He was one of the eight men in the entire United States who successfully passed the civil service examination shortly after the act was passed.

He was a son of Mr. J. H.
Smith who was born in this county and moved to Alabama a great many years before the civil war, and was the only surviving brother of Mrs. Anna M. Pou and Miss Martha T. Smith, of Smithfield. His remains were carried to Cullman, Alabama, for interment and was accompanied part of the way by Mrs. Pou and Miss Smith. He was a genial and liberal hearted man who made many friends wherever known.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right.

All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness.
Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow.
That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.
