

THE SCHLEY INQUIRY.

A Brief Summary of the Progress of the Investigation.

In the Schley Court of Inquiry Thursday, Judge Advocate Lemly formally admitted that it would be impossible for the government to prove that the information said to have been megaphoned to the Scorpion for Commodore Schley, while the latter was en route for Cienfuegos, ever reached that officer. The basis of this admission was a deposition from Commander Adolph Marix, at Manila, the purport of which was in the possession of the Navy Department at the time Lieut. Commander Southerland was put upon the stand to tell his story of the message.

Lieut. J. H. Holden, formerly watch officer of the Scorpion, testified that to the best of his recollection the log of that vessel, which showed Southerland's message to have been "No news from the Spaniards," was correct. Lieut. Commander W. H. Schuetz, formerly navigator of the Iowa, testified that the chart showing the positions of the ships on the day of the battle was signed by him under protest, because he was told that if he did not do so there would be no agreement until doomsday.

Lieut. Commander Albert W. Grant, formerly of the Massachusetts, described an episode not previously referred to. He said that on the night of May 25, while the squadron was proceeding to Santiago from Cienfuegos, the erratic movements of the Brooklyn caused a general mix-up among the ships.

The court still holds that Admiral Sampson is not a party to the inquiry, but says that when his presence is desired he will be notified.

In the Schley Court of Inquiry Friday, Capt. Chadwick, of the New York, and Admiral Sampson's chief of staff, testified that he did not give the McCalla code of signals to Commodore Schley because he (McCalla) wished to give them to the ships himself; that Schley told him at Key West that it would be impossible to blockade the Spanish ships if they wanted to escape, and that he (Chadwick) protested to Admiral Sampson when the latter wrote Schley a letter of congratulation upon the character of the blockade which had been maintained.

Capt. Chadwick also testified that information received by Col. Allen at Key West removed all doubt from the mind of Sampson as to the fleet being in Santiago harbor. It was after this that Sampson sent an indefinite dispatch to Schley. As on the previous days, a number of young officers were on the stand. They all testified strongly along the lines of the Navy Department's precept, insisting that the blockade was maintained at a great distance from shore; that the attack upon the Colon was not intended as a reconnaissance to develop the batteries, and that the latter were very weak. Among the officers who appeared were Lieuts. Adelbert Althouse, Francis Boughter, T. G. Dewey, Ernest L. Bennett, and C. C. Marsh.

Admiral Taylor, who commanded the Indiana, testified that he had no intimation that the Spanish fleet intended to leave Santiago harbor.

Pike and Allen.

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Oct. 6, 1901, at Oliver's Grove Baptist church near Four Oaks, Miss Savannah Allen was married to Mr. David Pike. The solemn words were spoken by the Rev. Mr. Gibbs, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large crowd.

The attendants were: Mr. Shepherd Johnson with Miss Ora Tyner and Mr. Joseph Hockaday with Miss Essie Creech.

After the ceremony the groom and bride and attendants took the front seats, where they remained until after service was over and then they went to their home for a rich and nice dinner that was waiting for them. Mr. and Mrs. Pike have numbers of friends around Oliver's Grove. Mrs. Pike is a member of Oliver's Grove Baptist church. We wish this couple a happy life.

A. FRIEND.

The McKinleys' Little Girl.

The National Magazine, of Boston, has the unique magazine feature of the month. This is a portrait of President McKinley's little daughter, Katie, who died at the age of three and a half years. The portrait, which has never before been published, adorns the first page of the National Magazine for October.

"It shows," says the National, "a sweet, serene little face, with tender, trustful eyes and rosebud lips. Rich, wavy hair, parted at the middle, falls down over the shoulders, clad in some fleecy, white stuff. She is, in all her features, the youthful image of her father, blending with his strength something of the subtle sweet grace and charm of her mother." Persons wishing to obtain a copy of the magazine containing this portrait and 60 pages of other McKinley pictures as well, should send 10 cents in stamps to The National Magazine, 41 West First St., Boston, Mass.

President Roosevelt will leave Washington Monday evening, October 21, for New Haven, Conn., where, during the Yale bi-centennial exercises October 23, he will receive the honorary degree of LL. D. from that university. Mrs. Roosevelt will not accompany the President.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infalible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Hood Bros.

The October Magazine Number of The Outlook is particularly strong in fine portraits. Among the full-page portraits are those of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the Duke and Duchess of York, Seth Low, the fusion candidate for Mayor of New York, three Episcopal dignitaries (Bishops Clark and Nichols and Dr. Dix) printed in connection with an article on the great Triennial Convention of the Episcopal Church, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, the Prime Minister of France, and Bishop Whipple, who died last month. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York.)

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

Advertisement for Swamp-Root. Text: 'How To Find Out. Fill a bottle of common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order. What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a small bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
