TOWN AND COUNTY.

—"The H. H. & B. Co."

—The Smithfield Hardware Co.

—J. H. Kirkman, Fire Insurance, Smithfield, N. C.

—The new hotel is being slated this week.

—The meeting at the Methodist church is still in progress.

—Watson's market house is about completed and has quite a nice appearance.

—It has been rumored that three or four brick buildings will go up in the near future.

—Rev. Chas. Fetter, of the Episcopal church, will conduct services at Sanders Hall Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—We have learned that Johnny, the 4-year old son of Mr. C. K. Braswell, who lives near Pine Level, died Tuesday of the croup after an illness of only a few hours.

—Mr. Ed. S. Edmundson, the clever book-keeper of The Banner Warehouse has accepted the position as book-keeper for the Bank of Dunn. Mr. Edmundson left Wednesday to begin his duties.

—The cooking contest among the little girls at The H. H. & B. Co. will take place next Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Much interest is aroused and quite a number of little girls will be in the contest.

—Mr. Henry Blake, formerly of this place, but now of Indianapolis, and Mr. Jno. F. McDuffie, of Fayetteville, have been here for the last two or three days in the interest of the Indiana State Insurance Co.

—We learn from yesterday's News and Observer that Mrs. Will D. Avera, of near Smithfield, won a prize for the best pound cake at the State Fair. She will receive the Royal Felt Mattress given by Royal & Borden.

—Among the Judges for the different departments at the State Fair, we notice that two of Johnston county's most prominent citizens have places. They are Messrs. C. M. Wilson and M. G. Gully, both members of the Board of County Commissioners.

—Work on the new Baptist church on Fourth Street will begin soon. Mr. James H. Woodall, our townsman, has the contract for the building and is making out the bills for brick, lumber, etc. This church when completed will be a handsome building.

—The following persons were here yesterday to attend the Darden-Hollowell marriage: Miss Hettie Darden, of Harnett, Miss Niccy Richardson, of near Kenly, Miss Bertha Hodgen, of Goldsboro, Miss Victoria Jones, of near Smithfield, Mrs. H. F. Edgerton, of Kenly, Mr. Jarvis Edgerton, of Bagley, and Dr. G. A. Hood, of Kenly.

—Mr. J. W. Stephenson, who is a member of the Executive Committee of the State Fair, is also a director of the poultry exhibit. This exhibit is a very good one, containing many fine fowls of the various breeds. Perhaps the largest and finest exhibit in this department is the exhibit from Mr. Geo. W. Vanderbilt's famous Biltmore farm near Asheville.

—Our friend, Col. John A. Narron, who is very fond of bird hunting, we are told, is fast becoming a sportsman of the first order. He has now prepared himself for turkey hunting, and as soon as the season opens his many friends here will no doubt enjoy many repasts of wild turkey bagged by the unerring marksmanship of our genial friend.

—Among the Smithfield people who attended the Raleigh Fair Wednesday we note the following: Mrs. V. A. Benton, Mrs. W. M. Ives, Mrs. F. H. Brooks, Mrs. J. W. Stephenson and children, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Narron, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. S. Abell and little daughter Ione, Messrs. John Ives and children, C. V. Johnson, R. O. Cotter, Dalma Easom, Walter Grantham, William Holt, T. E. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ellington, L. G. Patterson and others.

Darden--Hollowell.

A pretty home marriage was solemnized at the residence of Mr. Jabez Hollowell yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the contracting parties being Mr. Joseph W. Darden and Miss Nettie C. Hollowell. Only a few relatives and friends of the young couple were present.

The parlor had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and chrysanthemums. In one corner of the room was an arch of flowers and evergreens with a bell deftly wrought from the same material suspended underneath. Beneath this emblem the nuptial vows were spoken.

The groom entered the parlor with his best man, Mr. Charley Richardson, of South Carolina, while the bride entered leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Jabez Hollowell, who gave her away. The solemn words which united the lives of this popular young couple were impressively spoken by Rev. G. B. Starling, pastor of the Methodist church at Kenly.

They left on the three o'clock train for Dunn to spend a few days with the groom's parents. They will make their home in Kenly.

The groom is a popular young business man of Kenly. The bride is one of Smithfield's charming young ladies who has many friends wherever known.

We wish them much happiness on their matrimonial voyage.

Thompson--Graves.

The following has been received at THE HERALD office:

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis Graves request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Sallie Caroline, to Mr. John Milton Thompson, Wednesday evening, November the sixth, nine hundred and one, at half after eight o'clock.

At home, Smithfield, North Carolina.

Judge T. C. Fuller Dead.

Sunday morning at 1 o'clock Judge T. C. Fuller, Associate Justice of the Court of Private Land Claims of the United States, died in Raleigh at the Yarbrough House.

He had been sick for a long time and had recently returned from Asheville where he had spent the summer in hope of recovering his health.

Judge Fuller was a native of Fayetteville and entered the University of North Carolina at an early age. He was engaged in the mercantile business at Fayetteville for a few years. In 1855 he began the study of law under Chief Justice Pearson, and one year later began the practice of his profession.

When the Civil War broke out, Judge Fuller, though a Union Whig in principle, joined the Confederate army at the outbreak of hostilities as the First Lieutenant of Starr's battery of Light Infantry. He was a member of the Confederate Congress and in that body easily ranked with the ablest men of the South.

After the war he was honored by being elected to the Congress of the United States, but like others was not allowed to take his seat. Afterwards he moved to Raleigh and gave his time wholly to his profession. He was recognized as one of the first lawyers North Carolina has produced in the last fifty or sixty years.

In 1893 or 1894 Judge Fuller was appointed by President Cleveland as Judge of the Court of Private Land Claims. This position called for ability of high order and Judge Fuller served in that position with credit to himself and his State until his death. He died in the seventieth year of his age having the entire confidence and esteem of the whole State.

—Wednesday night the annual meeting of the Confederate Veterans' Association was held in the Hall of the House of Representatives in Raleigh. Gen. Julian S. Carr was re-elected President by acclamation. In the News and Observer's write-up of the meeting, we find the following concerning one of Selma's citizens: "Mr. J. H. Parker, of Johnston county, a bugler in Gen. Robert's division, was present with his battle scarred bugle. Upon invitation he sounded the bugle call, which created genuine enthusiasm among the old veterans. Mr. Parker was officially elected the bugler of the State association."

Full line latest style furs, jackets, children's reefers, etc., just received. SPIERS BROS.

H. B. PEARCE, Selma, N. C.

BY JUCKS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!

Pompey, Squash and Patt have just arrived at Watson's, the peanut man. They have been on a long voyage to South America gathering up fruits for Watson, such as

Cocoanuts, Banannas, Oranges,

Grapes, and other tropical fruits.

Patt, in your speech, why do you say ladies and gentlemen?

Why, Pompey, because ladies is first, bejazer. Not that they came here first, but soon after Adam came Eve come; that made the man first. They opened a school and Adam stood head, but the first word given out to spell was Constantinople, Adam could not spell the word; Eve spelled it and cut Adam down. So, since that time women have stood head.

So, ladies and gentlemen, when you come out to Smithfield call to see us. We can amuse you with our lion, tiger, and a nice line of performers, such as tight rope walkers and horseback riders, bejazer.

The old reliable Piedmont Wagons. I am now unloading a car of these wagons and invite wagon buyers to call and see them. I will sell them cheap.
