

With the Magazines.

As we come toward the Christmas holidays, larger space in the magazines is given to fiction. The November Cosmopolitan includes a tragic story of the Mexican foot-hills by Thomas A. Janvier, a very clever society story by Carolyn Wells, one of the Old French Romances by Richard Le Gallienne, an unusually interesting Indian narrative by H. T. George, and a weird story by S. R. Crockett.

THE NOVEMBER OUTLOOK.—The November Magazine Number of The Outlook abounds in interesting illustration. Prominent among the illustrated articles are: one on "Home Life in Japan," with a charming scene of decoration and photograph reproduction; one on "Handicrafts in Old Deerfield," by Mary L. Allen, one on "The Man of Mexico," Diaz, by Charles F. Lummis; on "The Crofters of Skye," by Clifton Johnson, with pictures of peasant life by the author; and the first installment of Dr. Edward Everett Hale's "Memories of a Hundred Years," which has a wonderfully fine portrait of Dr. Hale drawn by Mr. Alfred H. Clark, together with many other portraits, facsimiles and prints. The Number also contains excellent portraits of William Travers Jerome, of New York, the Anti-Tammany candidate for District Attorney, and the Hon. Thomas G. Jones, of Alabama, who has just been appointed to the Federal Bench by President Roosevelt. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York.)

THE NOVEMBER ARENA.—The recrudescence of anarchy in this country has occupied much space in recent issues of our leading magazines but in none of them has the problem been treated more rationally than in "The Gospel of Destruction"—the title of the leading symposium of The Arena for November. Dr. Felix L. Oswald, A. M., discusses "Its Evolutionary Aspects" and Mrs. E. H. Roberts, the wife of a Congregational minister, presents what she conceives to be its only effective "cure." Joseph Dana Miller considers the "Futilities of Reformers" in a timely article. Government ownership of the telegraph and telephone is discussed in a brief interview with Justice Walter Clark, L. L. D., and Will Allen Dromgoole introduces the new "fiction" feature of the magazine with an admirable negro character sketch. Editor Flower's comments on timely topics and reviews of the latest books are interesting, as usual. (25 cents, at news-stands. The Alliance Publishing Co., Fifth Avenue, New York.)

THE NOVEMBER McCURE.—Nothing could be more timely than three of the articles which go to make up McCure's Magazine for November. Citizens, regardless of party, if not anxious are somewhat curious regarding their new President. William Allen White, in his inimitable style, analyzes Roosevelt in a way which shows this unclassified man in a new light—the true light. Ray Stannard Baker, author of the character sketch, "J. Pierpont Morgan," explains "What the United States Steel Corporation Is, and How It Works," all in a manner that is both interesting and instructive. As a describer of a thrilling contest of speed, Walter Wellman has no equal. The automobile race from Paris to Berlin is described so vividly that one can almost see Fournier flash by at the rate of a mile a minute. A very striking Western tale of adventure is "Why the Hot Sulphur Mail Was Late," by Chauncey Thomas. "The Tipster," is the last of Edwin Lefevre's Wall-Street Stories—some think the best. Kate M. Cleary, whose story, "The Stepmother," attracted so much attention, contributes a pathetic Thanksgiving tale, "The Mission of Kitty Malone." There are poems and other features, all of which make the November McCure's a notable number.

Asleep Amid Flames.

Breaking into a blazing home some firemen lately dragged the sleeping inmates from death. Fancied security, and death near. It's that way when you neglect coughs and colds. Don't do it. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption gives perfect protection against all throat, chest and lung troubles. Keep it near, and avoid suffering death, and doctor's bills. A tea-spoonful stops a late cough, persistent use the most stubborn. Harmless and nice tasting, it's guaranteed to satisfy by Hood Bros. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Disappointment Through Those we Love.

The loving, trusting girl who has believed herself to be blessed by the strong and true affection of a man who seemed to fulfill her ideal of manhood and then finds that she is mistaken, has met a sorrow that is a sorrow indeed.

The mere discovery that she has erred in fancying herself beloved is better, and it to this is added the disenchantment regarding the nature he had trusted and believed worthy of her affection, it is bitterer still. A thousand times would any true woman prefer to find herself unloved than to learn that one she had loved, revered and confided in was false and unworthy.

It is a beautiful trait in the character of all unselfish women that makes it their crown of sorrow to find that one whom they had counted a true man is a mere semblance. Ten times easier is it, to really fine natures, to suffer through their own mistake than to see that a character which had won so much from them was unworthy.

In a disappointment like this, where all the dreams and hopes of a young life have linked themselves together to create a future which seemed full of the most beautiful promise, all the force of woman's nature must arouse itself in her own defense.

Concealment of regret is the natural instinct of even an inferior character; complaint is impossible to a true woman. To be altogether fine and noble under such circumstances, no shadow of jealousy must darken the understanding. To be great under this trial, a young girl must be free from desire to reproach, and above criticism of a possible rival. She must simply, by a heroic and always ennobling effort, shut the door on this past and let the wound lie open to God's sunshine and be healed by His benediction.

Never count the sorrowful ending of what had seemed a happy love affair an affliction; wait and see if God's angel did not stand at the parting of the ways for your rescue from a life of trial and grief.—Mrs. Clement Farley, in The Ledger Monthly.

Good Advice to Young Men.

It is through the reading of good books and papers we all become good and wise. By following the example of those men and women whose lives were exemplary, we too may fill places of honor with credit. The parents' advice should be the best advice for every boy; but when they are gone, to whom must he go, unless to great and good men through the medium of books and papers? Not dime novels or love stories which fill the mind with unreal imagination and injure the memory, but to substantial books and practical, helpful papers.

Every boy should endeavor to get the best education within his power. When he has decided what profession he will follow, whether it be agriculture, a physician, lawyer, merchant, mechanic, teacher or any of the many professions, he should endeavor to master his profession. The saddest mistake of the writer is, that he set his mark beside others instead of above them. If we could call around us the army of young boys who are thrown upon their own resources as we were in youth, we would say: If you would succeed in life, boys, select and keep good company; be honest and truthful; be industrious and willing to do any honorable work at the price offered; be temperate and courteous, and above all be a man. Make up your mind you will be a man, that you will study to live for all that is good and noble in the world, cultivate perseverance and stick to itiveness and put a dollar in the bank every week for a rainy day.—E. M. Whitney, in Farm and Home.

Self-Cultivation.

It happens to many a man and woman that in the absorbing demands of business or professional life, of home duties or the claims of society, there is a gradual failure of moral purpose or religious conviction, and, while the life grows in one direction, it as surely degenerates in another. We can cultivate any part of our natures we will, just as the gardener or horticulturist, by selecting certain qualities, gradually develops a new kind of potato or corn, a new variety of strawberry or apple. We can make ourselves new kinds of men and women by giving attention to business or pleasure, books or music, athletics or religion. Spiritual things are not of interest to us where we do not cultivate them, just as business become dull if we do not give attention to it and try to make it interesting. As no man can be strong unless he takes much exercise, so no nation can be devout who does not wrestle with God in prayer, early and late.

Every kind of cultivation leads to growth in manhood, and we are the kind of men we make ourselves by our toil and our play, our hopes and our fears, our fidelity of mind and our loyalty of heart. When the mind is open and alert, the heart, gentle and loving, the conscience firm and unflinching, the will strong and steadfast, we are sure to grow into larger manhood and womanhood, and there is nothing else for the sake of which life is worth living. Truly, it is a good and acceptable saying that "the only object in life is to grow."—Christian Register.

Luck in Thirteen.

By sending 13 miles Wm. Spirey, of Walton Furnace, Vt., got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that wholly cured a horrible fever sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures bruises, felons, ulcers, eruptions, boils, burns, corns and piles. Only 25c. Guaranteed by Hood Bros., druggists.

Horse Forty-five Years Old.

One of the oldest horses in the county, if not in the State, is owned by Mr. J. N. Bunting, of Panther Branch township.

Mr. Bunting says he purchased the horse from the late Dr. Dunn, of this city, in 1868, who represented his age then at twelve years, which makes him now forty-five years old. He is now well and hearty and from all appearances gives promise of many more years of faithful service.—Wake Wide-awake.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggs, of Hall County, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails. Hood Bros., Hare & Son, J. R. Ledbetter, Benson Drug Co.

Modern Surgery Surpassed.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits. Hare & Son, Benson Drug Co., J. R. Ledbetter, Hood Bros.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
