TOWN AND COUNTY.

—The H. H. & B. Co.

—The Smithfield Hardware Co.

—J. H. Kirkman, Fire Insurance, Smithfield, N. C.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will give an oyster supper at the Myatt House to-night.

—Messrs. Henderson Braswell and J. L. Braswell, called in Saturday and renewed their subscriptions.

—A Thanksgiving service will be held at the Baptist church here Thursday night, November 28, at 7 p. m. Public invited.

—The cotton mill began operations again Tuesday, after an idleness of eight days, occasioned by the breaking of the main driving shaft.

—Mr. Wesley Batten, of Jerome, gave a fine dinner the 4th Sunday in October to the people of his neighborhood. The occasion was very much enjoyed by all present.

—Rev. K. D. Holmes will conduct Thanksgiving services in the Methodist church here Thursday, November 28th, at 11 o'clock a. m. The public is cordially invited.

—Mr. D. J. Wood, one of Meadow township's most progressive young farmers, gave us a pleasant call Friday and renewed his subscription to THE HERALD.

—Mr. W. L. Creech, of Pine Level, who has long been one of THE HERALD'S best friends, renewed his allegiance to the paper Monday by adding the price of a year's subscription to our depleted exchequer.

—The Rural Free Delivery route leading out from Four Oaks has been officially established and will soon be put in operation. Mr. Alonzo B. Wellons, brother of our townsman, James A. Wellons, Esq., has been appointed carrier.

—On Nov. 21st The Smithfield Cotton Mills will issue $41,000 8 per cent. preferred stock. We understand that the greater part of the issue has already been subscribed. This is one of the best opportunities for investment ever offered to the people of our county.

—Several of our subscribers have called in within the past few days, renewed their subscription, and spoken words of appreciation and encouragement to THE HERALD. We appreciate all the kind words of our subscribers and friends and hope to continue to merit their favor by giving them a better paper next year than ever before.

—For the past few weeks we have greatly missed our weekly Clayton letter. We very much regret that our splendid correspondent at that thriving little city is unable to serve us longer. We hope that some of our good Clayton friends will come to our rescue and see that their town is represented in our news columns each week. Who will take up the work?

—Mr. Lyn Jones, who has been living at the cotton mills here for sometime, died Wednesday night of cancer, aged about 50 years. He leaves a wife and two children. He was buried yesterday afternoon in the Smithfield cemetery. He has been a great sufferer for several months, the cancer having eat out his eyes and nose. He has been unable to see any for a year or more.

—At the Chrysanthemum show in Raleigh, Tuesday, Mrs. C. V. Johnson, of Smithfield, took one of the first prizes. She was awarded a prize of $5.00 for the best vase of 12 perfect white chrysanthemums, four varieties. The four varieties were Queen, Pearl Queen, Boundless Snow and Child of Two Worlds. Mrs. Johnson takes a great pride in her flowers and each season has some of the most beautiful chrysanthemums of various colors and varieties to be seen anywhere. Her friends who have seen her flower garden are not surprised to learn that she took a first prize.

Mrs. Ozella Lassiter Dead.

Mrs. Ozella Lassiter, wife of Mr. Junius H. Lassiter, died at her home in Bentonsville township last Friday, after several weeks' illness of typhoid fever. She was a good woman, much loved by all who knew her.

—Hers was the fifth death to occur in the same family within a month, her mother and three sisters having just preceded her to the grave. The sympathy of all who knew the family goes out to the bereaved ones.

He Found His Cows.

It pays to advertise. Mr. W. L. Brady, Chief of Police of Smithfield, had two cows to stray off last June. He inquired for them diligently and when he had about despaired of ever seeing his cows again he decided to advertise for them in THE SMITHFIELD HERALD. A short notice in this paper brought the information that they were in the upper part of Beulah township, nearly 25 miles away. He now has his cows and says "It pays to advertise."

To Wed at Selma.

The following invitation has been received by friends:

"Mrs. Joshua Washington Vick requests the pleasure of your company at the marriage of her daughter, Eudora, to Rev. Alexander Martin, on Wednesday, November the twentieth, nineteen hundred and one, at Selma, North Carolina."

Accompanying the invitation are cards announcing that the bridal couple will be "At Home" after the twenty-first of November, Summerville, S. C."—News and Observer.

BY JUCCS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!

Pompey, Squash and Patt have just arrived at Watson's, the peanut man. They have been on a long voyage to South America gathering up fruits for Watson, such as

Cocoanuts, Banannas, Oranges,

Grapes, and other tropical fruits.

Patt, in your speech, why do you say ladies before gentlemen?

Why, Pompey, because ladies is first, bejazer. Not that they came here first, but soon after Adam came Eve come; that made the man first. They opened a school and Adam stood head, but the first word given out to spell was Constantinople, Adam could not spell the word; Eve spelled it and cut Adam down. So, since that time women have stood head.

So, ladies and gentlemen, when you come out to Smithfield call to see us. We can amuse you with our lion, tiger, and a nice line of performers, such as tight rope walkers and horseback riders, bejazer.

WHEAT FOR SALE.

I have 500 bushels of wheat for sale. The same can be bought at my home near Preston, or at the store of Cotter, Underwood & Co., Smithfield.
J. WALTER MYATT.

W. G. Yelvington has the best Kip Tie Shoe for men at $1.25, and the best Ladies Dongola lace and button dress shoes at $1.25 in the city.

The old reliable Piedmont Wagons. I am now unloading a car of these wagons and invite wagon buyers to call and see them. I will sell them cheap.
W. M. SANDERS.

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." Benson Drug Co., Hood Bros., Hare & Son, J. R. Ledbetter.
