—One day last week as Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hill and little child were coming down the hill just beyond Turner's bridge, their horse became frightened while passing a band of Gypsy horse-traders, and jumping to one side the buggy was turned over throwing its occupants out. Mrs. Hill had a shoulder dislocated. The others were unhurt.

Gobolinks Party.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McGuire threw open the doors of their hospitable home and entertained quite a large number of their friends, who had been invited to meet Miss Etta Herbert, of Blackstone, Va., and Miss Annie Williams, of Oxford, N. C.

The feature of the evening was the "Gobolinks" poetical contest. Each contestant was furnished a paper upon which he threw a single drop of ink. This was blotted and the result, oftentimes a ridiculous blot, was then described in rhyme. Miss Mattie Pou, whose blot resembled in many respects a coon skin, won the first prize, while Mr. W. W. Cole won the booby in a laughable effort to describe a tree.

Misses Herbert, Williams and Pou rendered the occasion more delightful with vocal and instrumental music, and the string band, composed of Messrs. Oscar and D. T. Youngblood, Watson and Rivenbark found its quota of tripping admirers in an adjoining room.

Elegant refreshments, splendid music, and genial hospitality rendered the evening very pleasant, indeed long to be remembered.

North Carolina Day at T. I.

Turlington Institute will celebrate North Carolina Day next Thursday, November 28, with appropriate exercises. Thanksgiving Day will also be observed by the school. These services will begin promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. The friends and patrons of the school are invited to be present.

Message of Appreciation from Mrs. McKinley.

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Smithfield held the day President McKinley died, resolutions of sympathy were passed and forwarded to Mrs. McKinley. Mr. T. J. Lassiter, Secretary of the meeting, has just received a neat card with black border bearing the following words: "Mrs. McKinley acknowledges with grateful appreciation the tender expressions of sympathy extended to her in her sorrow. "Canton, Ohio, Sept., 1901."

Marriage Licenses.

For the two weeks ending November 18, the Register of Deeds issued license to marry to the following couples:

White—David Thompson and Alma Stephenson, John M. Thompson and Sallie Caroline Graves, J. D. Creech and Ludella Brown, W. H. Holland and Sarah L. Thornton, Jarret Stephenson and Mary E. Stephenson, H. D. Richardson and Lee Cook, C. F. Woodard and Nannie Woodard, Elijah Wise and Mollie Griffin, J. J. Mumford and Minnie Green, John Moore and Cora Coats, T. E. Best and Mary M. Stallings, W. R. Paul Ham and Isabella D. Benson.

Colored—Charlie Mitchener and Mary Hastings, George Smith and Venie Horton, James Pearce and Ada Whitley, Ivan Smith and Dillie Whitley, Wade Mials and Annie Watson, Roof Richardson and Catherine Cogdell.

People won't pay you for talking calamity, so you might as well ring off.

Best--Stallings.

Quite a large number of friends and relatives gathered in the Baptist church at Clayton, Wednesday afternoon to witness the beautiful marriage of Mr. Theodore Eugene Best, of Chapel Hill, to Miss Mary Magdalene Stallings, of Clayton. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and banks of chrysanthemums.

The wedding party arrived at the church at 2:30 and entered to the strains of the beautiful march from Tannhauser, skillfully rendered by Mrs. Ashley Horne, of Clayton.

The attendants, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. M. E. Cotton and L. D. Debnam, of Clayton, entered in the following order: Miss Annie Myatt, of Smithfield, and Mr. B. M. Robertson, of Clayton; Miss Mamie Griffin, of Clayton, and Mr. Charles E. Maddry, of Chapel Hill; Miss Cleve Barnes, of Clayton, and Mr. D. O. McCullers, of Clayton; Miss Juanita Ellis, of Clayton, and Mr. T. J. Lassiter, of Smithfield. The groom with his sister, Miss Jennie Best, of Chapel Hill, entered the right aisle and advancing to the altar were met by the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Edgar Stallings, who entered from the left aisle.

Awaiting them at the altar was Rev. J. Wm. Jones, D. D., pastor of the Baptist church at Chapel Hill, who performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner, after which the party left the church to Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was attired in a handsome going-away suit of blue broadcloth, and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaids were attired in gowns of seal brown and carried white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Amid showers of rice and best wishes the happy couple left on the 3:18 train for Chapel Hill, their future home.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stallings and has a host of friends whose best wishes go with her to her new home. The groom is an enterprising young business man of Chapel Hill and is the general manager of the large mercantile establishment of R. L. Strowd & Co.

They were the recipients of many handsome presents, showing the high esteem in which they are both held among their friends.

A delightful reception was held at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Stallings Tuesday evening and an elegant supper served.

We extend our best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Best, trusting that theirs may be a long and happy life.

BY JUCKS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!

Pompey, Squash and Patt have just arrived at Watson's, the peanut man. They have been on a long voyage to South America gathering up fruits for Watson, such as Cocoanuts, Banannas Oranges, Grapes, and other tropical fruits.

Patt, in your speech, why do you say ladies before gentlemen? Why, Pompey, because ladies is first, bejazer. Not that they came here first, but soon after Adam came Eve came; that made the man first. They opened a school and Adam stood head, but the first word given out to spell was Constantinople, Adam could not spell the word; Eve spelled it and cut Adam down. So, since that time women have stood head.

So, ladies and gentlemen, when you come out to Smithfield call to see us. We can amuse you with our lion, tiger, and a nice line of performers, such as tight rope walkers and horseback riders, bejazer.

WHEAT FOR SALE.
