Hood has returned to Trinity College. - Mr. W. Gordon Weeks, of Spring Hope, spent Sunday here. - Miss Annie Myatt has returned from a visit to friends near Clayton. - Miss Mary Hadley, of Wilson, arrived Saturday to visit Mrs. W. M. Sanders. - Messrs. L. G. Patterson and S. T. Honeycutt spent Sunday in the Polenta section. - Mr. W. L. Fuller is building a neat cottage on the corner of Bridge and Third streets. - Miss Flossie Abell spent Thanksgiving with Miss Margaret Etheredge, of Selma. - Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sanders with several of their friends spent yesterday at White Oak in upper Johnston. - Miss Annie Laurie Thompson, of Faison, Miss Dixie Moore, and Mr. Vick Moore, of Raleigh, spent Sunday here. - Johnston county Superior Court will convene here next Monday, Judge Robinson, of Goldsboro, presiding. - Mr. David Trainer, of New York, First Vice President of the American Cotton Company, was here Wednesday. - A protracted meeting is in progress at the Baptist church. Services are held each night beginning promptly at 7:30. - Rev. John Huske, of Raleigh, preached two very able and instructive sermons in Sanders Hall Sunday and Sunday night. - The ladies of the Episcopal church will serve dinner and oysters in one of the rooms under the new hotel here next Tuesday, December 3rd. - Rev. J. W. Suttle held Thanksgiving exercises at the Baptist church last night. A collection was taken for the Thomasville Orphanage. - The Eastern section of the Raleigh Association will hold a union meeting with Selma Baptist church Saturday and Sunday, December 28th and 29th. - We learn that Mr. Calvin Johnson died suddenly at his home in O'Neals township last Sunday morning aged about 57 years. He was sick only about five hours. - Thanksgiving exercises were held at the Methodist church yesterday by Rev. K. D. Holmes. After the sermon a collection was taken for the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh. - Mr. G. C. Johnson, of Goldsboro, has pitched his photographic tent on the court house square and will be ready to make your pictures after next Monday, December 2nd. - The Progressive Farmer this week contains the following: "THE SMITHFIELD HERALD has established a 'Farm Department' which is quite ably conducted by Mr. J. M. Beaty, one of the proprietors of the paper." - We invite our friends and subscribers to call at our office next week and make themselves "at home." We will have the latest papers on hand so that they can read all they wish. A cordial invitation is extended to all. And remember our Turner's North Carolina Almanac offer. - One of THE HERALD's subscribers in renewing his subscription, writes as follows: "We enjoy reading the paper so much; it always seems like a letter. We get all the county news, and, of course, that is enjoyed by the whole family. The children look forward to its coming with almost as much delight as they do Santa Claus." We appreciate the kind expressions of our friend and trust that his family may enjoy THE HERALD even more during the coming year.

THANKSGIVING AND N. C. DAY.

Turlington Institute Observed the Day With Appropriate Exercises. Collection Taken for Raleigh Monument.

Thanksgiving Day was appropriately observed by the school in Turlington Institute Hall on Thanksgiving morning. The exercises consisted of reading and singing of a devotional nature followed by prayer. Each of the five rooms contributed its share. The primary room under Miss Benton's direction gave an exhibition of their small powers in reading and phonetic spelling that was quite interesting. No one appreciated this more than the little fellows themselves. Their enthusiasm is amusing. The two next higher rooms gave some concert recitations, and single recitations by Misses Anna Underwood and Alma Easom. Miss Annie McGure closed this part of the exercise by a recitation "The First Thanksgiving Day."

Thanksgiving Day and North Carolina Day as recommended by the Legislature of 1901 were united. The latter part of the time was devoted to the memory of Sir Walter Raleigh and his attempts to colonize North Carolina.

The following programme was rendered: America—Song by school. Reading by A. T. Lassiter. Selection by A. K. Hardee—The Landing. Ho! for Carolina—Song by school. Essay by Miss Annie Lee—Are the Croatan Indians the Descendants of the Lost Colony? Essay by Oscar R. Rand—Why the Roanoke Colony Failed. Selection by B. A. Hocutt. Recitation by Miss Rena Bingham. Collection for the Raleigh Monument. Old North State—Song by the school.

—Do you want a Turner's North Carolina Almanac for 1902? If you do come in and pay your subscription to THE HERALD one year in advance and we will give you one. You are not entitled to a free almanac unless you pay one year in advance. Everybody knows that Turner's is one of the very best almanacs published.

Marriage Licenses.

The following couples were granted license to wed during the week ending Nov. 25th:

WHITE—Alexander Martin and Eudora Vick, Ellie Rose and Lula Lynch, John Allen Johnson and Lillie Lee, W. Y. Wood and Algier Oneal, R. C. Tyner and W. B. Henry, Burrell Deans and Dolly Batten, J. H. Wheeler and Martha Massengill.

COLORED—Garfield Watson and Geneva Sanders, James Bell and Narcissa Sanders, James Stevens and Lula Atkinson, Andrew Edwards and Beulah Morgan.

PAY COURT WEEK.

Court convenes here Monday, December 2nd. This will afford those of our subscribers who have not paid an opportunity to bring or send us the money. We need what is due us and hope to have big collections court week. Don't forget us.

Good Farming.

Mr. P. L. Hayes, of Bentonville township was in to see us this week and renewed his subscription. He planted this year four acres in tobacco using eight hundred pounds of fertilizer per acre. He has sold from the four acres more than four hundred and sixty dollars worth of tobacco. His expenses were about eighty dollars, leaving him above ninety-five dollars per acre profit. He has cleared this year more than four hundred dollars from tobacco and cotton on a one-horse farm.

Turner's N. C. Almanac Free.

To every subscriber who pays his subscription one year in advance we will give a copy of Turner's North Carolina Almanac. Every subscriber who has already paid up to December 1st, 1902, can get an Almanac by calling at our office. Remember you must pay a year in advance to get the Almanac.

As we are anxious to wind up our ginning business, we earnestly request all who have cotton to gin to bring it forward at once. We will give one-half cent per pound above market price for cotton seed.

STEPHENSON & RAND.

Thanksgiving Day.

Father of Life, I thank Thee, too. For old acquaintance, near and true,— For friends who came into my day And took the loneliness away; For faith that held on to the last; For all sweet memories of the past,— Dear memories of my dead that send Long thoughts of life, and of life's end,— That make me know the light conceals A deeper world than it reveals. —Edwin Markham.

Amendment to Stock Law in Johnston County.

For the benefit of those citizens of Johnston county who failed to be included in the Stock Law territory by reason of the fact that they opposed the stock law, and were consequently fenced around by the Stock Law Commissioner, I will call their attention to the fact that the Legislature of 1901 enacted a law which in effect will abolish this privilege, and that all the land in the Stock Law Territory of the county without exception will be subject to Stock Law Tax on and after the next assessment. By reference to Chapter 451, Public Laws of 1901, at page 613, it is plain that section 9 of the Public Laws of 1899, (excepting the territory heretofore fenced out) is repealed. The repealing act of 1901, chapter 451 does not take effect till January 1st, 1902, see chapter 572, acts 1901, page 812. The trouble has been up until recently, to know what the law actually was, owing to the fact that chapter 451, laws 1901 is not properly indexed, therefore, difficult to find.

JOHN A. NARRON, County Attorney. Smithfield, N. C., Nov. 26, 1901.

Hyde's Great Record.

Hyde county is making a record in the educational line. The reports now in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction show that of a total of 2,018 white children of school age in the county there are 1,970 enrolled in the schools, just 48 less than the total in the county.

Besides this, the average attendance is reported as being 1,528, which is nearly 80 per cent. of the children enrolled. The salaries of both male and female teachers in the white schools are the same, this being $24 a month. The schools are conducted for 12 3/5 weeks in the year.—News and Observer.

BY JACKS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!

Pompey, Squash and Patt have just arrived at Watson's, the peanut man. They have been on a long voyage to South America gathering up fruits for Watson, such as

Cocoanuts, Banannas Or anges,

Grapes, and other tropical fruits. Patt, in your speech, why do you say ladies before gentlemen? Why, Pompey, because ladies is first, bejazer. Not that they came here first, but soon after Adam came Eve come; that made the man first. They opened a school and Adam stood head, but the first word given out to spell was Constantinople, Adam could not spell the word; Eve spelled it and cut Adam down. So, since that time women have stood head.

So, ladies and gentlemen, when you come out to Smithfield call to see us. We can amuse you with our lion, tiger, and a nice line of performers, such as tight rope walkers and horseback riders, bejazer.

WHEAT FOR SALE.
