

Notes of Notables.

Upon the expiration of his present term in 1903, Mr. Allison will have been a United States Senator for thirty consecutive years.

Senator Pettus is the Morrill of Alabama—being eighty years old—with no intention of not being elected next term—and with no disposition on the part of his constituents to retire him.

The mother of Governor Beckham, of Kentucky, has a remarkable record. She has the unprecedented distinction of having been the mother of a governor, the daughter of a governor, the sister of a governor and a cousin of a governor.

Webster, Sumner, Rufus Choate, Kossuth, Theodore Parker, Emerson, Channing, Jared Sparks, Alcott, Lyman Beecher, Thomas Starr King, Dorothea Dix, Lucy Larcom, Holmes, Longfellow and many more whose fame still lives, all sat for daguerreotypes to Josiah Johnson Hawes; and he has just joined them.

Joaquin Miller is said to be on the road to wealth. Some time ago he took, in part payment for services as a lecturer, several hundred acres of prairie land, and now it is said his holdings are in the oil region and may make him a capitalist. The author of "Songs of the Sierras" has had a good many ups and downs in life; and no one can begrudge him this good turn of fortune.

The First McKinley Monument.

Chicago Tribune.

The first McKinley monument to be erected in the United States was dedicated last Sunday. It is not so elaborate as others that will rise in the future. No stately arch, no ornate mausoleum. It is a plain stone shaft eighteen feet high. It cost only $12,000. But its speedy erection speaks volumes for the affection the poor and warm-hearted people who contributed the money had for their murdered President. This monument stands in the little town of Tower, in Northern Minnesota.

The men who subscribed the money are mostly the iron miners of the vicinity. They are getting good wages now but they are not overburdened with wealth. Therefore the persons who had charge of the erection of the monument were wise in not endeavoring to collect more money and put up a more pretentious structure. They cut their coat according to their cloth. They did not try to do too much and in doing so run the risk of accomplishing nothing. This simple, inexpensive, and prompt tribute to the memory of William McKinley, erected by working people who believed he had a warm heart for them and had done much to aid them, would give him keener pleasure—if the dead could be pleased by monuments—than any lordly memorials in stone or bronze that architects or sculptors may devise to commemorate him.

Eleven Negro Children in a County.

In compiling school statistics in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Institution the fact was brought to notice there are only eleven negro children—four boys and seven girls—in Graham county. That is, the school census only gives that number between the ages of 6 and 21 years. The report shows that there are 1,613 white children, with 1,321 enrolled in the schools. There is no negro school in the county.—Raleigh Post.

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." Benson Drug Co., Hood Bros., Hare & Son, J. R. Ledbetter.

What is life worth to a woman suffering like Nannie Davis suffered? Yet there are women in thousands of homes to-day who are bearing those terrible menstrual pains in silence. If you are one of these we want to say that this same Revenge is Sweet.

President Roosevelt has decided that a man who jilts a girl is not entitled to appointment in the army, as such conduct may be properly termed ungentlemanly and contrary to the best interests of the service. He has, therefore, refused to appoint former Lieut. William P. Crawford, of Camden, S. C., second lieutenant in the regular army, and thereby satisfied the girl's friends who have made a determined fight against the man's appointment.—Ex.
