The News of the Week in and Around Town.

—Mr. U. O. Coulbourn went to Lucama Wednesday.

—Mr. Alvin Pittman, of Goldsboro, was in town Thursday.

—Mr. Darius Duncan, of Raleigh, was in town Wednesday night.

—Mr. W. A. Stewart, of Dunn, was in town Tuesday on legal business.

—Mrs. W. I. Whitley, of Clayton, spent last week here with Mrs. John S. Barnes.

—Miss Mildred Young, of Clayton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam T. Honeycutt.

—Miss Kate Woodall returned to Peace Institute Monday after spending a week at home.

—Mrs. John S. Barnes and children left Wednesday to spend several weeks at Clayton.

—Mr. W. R. Long left yesterday to buy stock for the Austin-Stephenson Company.

—Mr. F. T. Booker, of Polenta, spent Thanksgiving here with his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Adams.

—Mrs. W. S. Stevens went to Rocky Mount Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

—Mr. W. H. Peacock is having his store on Third Street remodeled by having a glass front put in.

—Mr. James A. Parker, of Asheville, is spending a few days here with his sister, Mrs. F. H. Brooks.

—Revenue officers made a raid in Bentonsville township last week and cut up a blockade distillery. No arrests were made.

—Rev. B. G. Early expects to preach at Thanksgiving Baptist church next Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday at 3 o'clock.

—Miss Nellie Luceford, who is teaching in the Penny section, and Miss Elsie Penny spent Saturday night here with Miss Alma Coats.

—Miss Katie Lee Banks, of the Graded School faculty, went to Norfolk yesterday to witness the Virginia-Carolina football game at LaFayette Field.

—Dr. Ralph Stevens, of the faculty of the University Medical school at Raleigh, spent Thanksgiving here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stevens.

—Mrs. Alfred A. Thompson and daughter, Miss Mary, of Raleigh, have been spending a few days in town this week, the guests of Mrs. W. R. Long.

—Mr. T. R. Hood left Wednesday morning for Wilson to attend the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist church as a delegate from the Raleigh District.

—Mr. Claude L. Sanders made seven hundred and fifty bushels of corn in one piece of eighteen acres this year. The best of the land made more than fifty bushels per acre.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spiers, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Merritt, Mrs. N. E. Coltrane and Mrs. T. R. Hood, went to Wilson yesterday to attend the North Carolina Conference.

—Mr. P. T. George, of the Glenmore section, was a pleasant caller at our office Wednesday. He reports that the farmers of his section have already sold the principal part of their cotton crop.

—Mr. W. M. Sanders and Mr. Ed. S. Abell went out to Mr. Sanders' White Oak Farm to spend Thanksgiving. Governor Robert B. Glenn and Col. Charles E. Johnson, of Raleigh, are the guests of Mr. Sanders at White Oak.

—Rev. W. A. Smith conducted a Thanksgiving service at the Baptist church yesterday morning, preaching a fine sermon on consecration. It was one of the best services yet held here during the meeting. A collection of $17.89 was taken for the Thomasville Orphanage.

—Mr. G. W. Deans, of Wakefield, was here Wednesday with a lot of tobacco which he sold on our market at very satisfactory prices. Within the past few weeks a large number of people from long distances have sold tobacco on our market. All this speaks for the market in stronger terms than any words of ours.

—Messrs. A. H. Barbour and R. Alexander, of Camden, S. C., spent a few days here last week with Mr. Barbour's father, Mr. G. W. F. Barbour.

—Miss Ima Allen, who is attending the Woman's College at Richmond, came Wednesday to spend a few days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Allen.

—Rev. N. E. Coltrane, who has been pastor of the Methodist church here for the past three years, is attending the North Carolina Conference at Wilson this week.

—Rev. J. W. Suttle conducted a Thanksgiving service at Benson Baptist church Wednesday night. A collection of about $15.00 was raised for The Thomasville Orphanage.

—Mr. L. B. Richardson, one of the leading citizens of Beulah township, was in town Saturday. While here he called in to see us and paid up his subscription to THE HERALD to May 15, 1910.

—Dr. W. H. Moore, Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, preached able and instructive sermons here Sunday morning and night. He left Tuesday afternoon to attend the Annual Conference at Wilson.

—Among the number who successfully passed the State Board of Pharmacists at Raleigh last week we note the name of Mr. A. K. Hardee, son of our countyman, Mr. J. B. Hardee. Mr. Hardee now has a splendid position with a drug firm at Spencer, N. C.

—Rev. J. O. Guthrie brought with him from Selma yesterday a round lightwood knot, a relic of the Revolutionary war. The knot was used as a cannon ball by the American artillery at the battle of Guilford Court House. The ball will be placed in Hall of History.—News and Observer.

—Rev. W. A. Smith, of Lexington, arrived Monday to aid Rev. Mr. Suttle in a meeting at the Baptist church. Mr. Smith is a preacher of great simplicity and power and has made a very favorable impression on the people here. Services are held each afternoon at three and night at 7:15.

—The Juvenile Aid Society of the Methodist church presented "Rebecca's Triumph," a drama, at Sanders Hall last Friday night. Those in the cast acquitted themselves with much credit. About $25.00 was realized for the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh. We understand that they will present the play to a Clayton audience on next Friday night.

The Taking Cold Habit

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, weak lungs, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about it.

"I had a terrible cold, and nothing relieved me. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it promptly broke up my cold, stopped my cough, and eased every part of my body. It did wonderful work for me."—Mr. J. F. LUTZ, Toledo, Ohio.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Sarsaparilla, Pills, Hair Vigor.

Keep the bowels regular with Ayer's Pills, just one pill each night.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Owing to a change we propose making in our Four Oaks' business, we have instructed our manager there, Mr. John W. Keen, to collect every cent due the concern by January 1st.

The instructions we have given him authorize him to collect by law or otherwise, and we trust that all accounts, and notes will be paid promptly and without trouble. We mean business, and wish it distinctly understood that this notice is intended for all persons indebted to the Four Oaks concern, be he white or black old or young, poor or rich. In the meantime we propose to slaughter our immense stock of goods there for cash only, and the Bargain Hunter will find himself in a Paradise of low prices when he calls.

Respectfully,
Austin-Stephenson Co.
