SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From Conly the waving wing charges and infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does | Work,-and pure slumbers shall wait on it does through nourishment-the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

Vesta May Gilbert.

The Death Angel has visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gilbert near Benson and blown its icy breath on their sweet baby girl, Vesta May, and bore her gentle little spirit to the heavenly mansions there to live forever with the blest. She was born Sept. 23, 1904, and died Jan. 4, 1906. How sadly she is missed cannot be expressed. Our tender care, our sighs, our prayers, our tears were of no avail. Good needed our little star, and so took heraway.

"She is sleeping, sweetly sleeping In her new made grave today: We are weeping, sadly weeping.

For our dariing gone away. One by one the gentle Shepherd Gathers lambs from every told, Folds them to his loying bosom

With a tenderness untold, One by one our Heavenly Father Gathers flowers rich and rare. And transplants them in his garden, They will bloom forever there."
