COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

The Week's Happenings Told by The Herald's Regular Correspondents.

POLENTA NEWS.

At Oakland last Sunday a large congregation heard two excellent sermons by Rev. Mr. Souders, the pastor.

Cotton planting is nearly finished. Apparently there seems to be no increase in acreage. Better manuring however, has been done by the farmers.

Mr. W. D. Young who for the past several months, has been teaching in Kentucky, is at home again to the delight of his many friends. We hope he will decide to stay with us permanently.

The Township Sunday School Convention will be held at Elizabeth on Sunday. All of the Sunday schools in the township are earnestly requested to send large delegations. The convention will be opened at 10 a. m. and continue through the day.

Miss Mary O. Booker, accompanied by Misses Susie Ives and Anna Underwood, two of Smithfield's charming young ladies, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Mary's parents. During the stay of these young ladies in our community the young men showed their gallantry and some of them seemed to be under the magic spell.

Mrs. C. H. Durham, and little son, of Burlington, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Durham.

Mrs. John B. Flack (nee Miss Lucy Stancil) of Shelby, N. C., is spending this week with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, of Raleigh, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Brewer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams.

Mrs. Yelvington has recently had her residence painted a pure white. Mr. J. W. Woodall did the work and it's a beauty.

Mr. H. W. Mitchell and family have moved to Raleigh. We regret to lose them, but wish them a pleasant stay at the Capitol City.

Dr. J. A. Griffin went to Selma Sunday to visit Mrs. J. H. Griffin, who was thrown from the train here on Tuesday, April 15, and seriously hurt.

Misses Pauline Gulley and Norma Gower spent one day here last week with school-mates. Miss Pauline was sick here for some time the past winter.

A number of Baptist Sunday School workers will attend the Sunday School Convention which will be held with Pisgah next Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. P. M. White's handsome residence near Sheriff Ellington's place is nearing completion. Mr. D. Quat Lowry, our expert painter and plasterer, will begin in a few days to put the finishing touches on it.

Noble, to take some of the chapter degrees. They went in charge of Dr. Noble. A nice supper was served them by Raleigh Chapter No. 10, R. A. M. at Giersch's.

Our people are generally very well satisfied with the vote of the Hon. Ed. W. Pou on the fast mail subsidy, as it enables our merchants to get their northern mail some twelve or more hours sooner than they would and of course if they get it here that much sooner it is natural to suppose that up the road towards Greensboro it must be more.

Messrs John H. Parker and Charles S. Parker left Monday for New Orleans to attend the reunion of C. S. Veterans. Mr. Parker is Chief Bugler of the Association of Veterans. We are glad to see the "Old Vets" take an interest in the meetings and wish more of them would go. The rates are usually very low and they ought to avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing one another again and talking over old times.
