HUGHES IN NEW YORK

Is Elected Governor Over William R. Hearst.

PLURALITY IS OVER 50,000

Republicans Came to Greater New York With 124,000 Plurality, While Hearst Carried Metropolis By 75,000. Balance of State Ticket in Doubt.

New York, Nov. 7.—According to the latest returns, Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor, has been elected by 50,000 or more plurality. Outside of Greater New York, with 160 election districts missing, Mr. Hughes had a plurality of about 124,000. In Greater New York, with 69 election districts missing, William Randolph Hearst, the Democratic and Independence League candidate, had a plurality of 75,036. Mr. Hearst carried all the boroughs of the greater city, despite the fact that the early returns seemed to indicate that he had lost Brooklyn.

No definite figures are yet available as to the results with regard to the subordinate state officers, and both

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

Democrats and Republicans are claiming victories from lieutenant governor down.

The indications are that the state legislature will show but little change in its political make-up.

The Tammany judiciary ticket in New York county, with the exception of Otto Rosalsky, for general sessions judge, R., has been elected.

Hearst Makes a Statement.

Mr. Hearst made the following statement:

"In view of the result, I have only to repeat what I have said in my speeches. I am enlisted in this fight against the control of the government by the trusts and corrupt corporations, and I will fight it to the end.

"But I will serve in the lead or in the ranks just exactly as the people desire, and earnestly and loyally in one place as in the other. The people have decided to retain the Republican party in power. I will make my fight in the ranks, therefore, and as a private citizen do my best to promote the interests of my fellow citizens."

In Brooklyn, where Senator Patrick H. McCarren made a bitter fight against Hearst, the latter carried the borough by a small plurality, 4000. At one time it seemed that Hughes had been successful in Brooklyn, but the late returns were all strongly in favor of the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Hearst has been given a majority of nearly 70,000 in Manhattan and the Bronx. Queens county, which includes Long Island City, has gone for Hearst by from 6000 to 8000, and Richmond (Staten Island) has also given the Democratic candidate a plurality.

Hearst's Greatest Strength in Cities.

As was generally expected, Mr. Hearst showed his greatest strength in the cities throughout the state and took out of the Republican column a number of the more important municipalities which heretofore have been Republican. Among the cities which gave Hearst a plurality were Buffalo, Rochester, Utica, Troy, Elmira, Rome, Little Falls and Johnstown. All of these, except Utica and Rome, were Republican two years ago. Mr. Hughes did not gain a single city. The Republican ticket was successful, but sustained serious losses in Syracuse, Gloversville, Amsterdam, Ithaca, Schenectady, Watertown and Plattsburg.

Great interest centered here in New York in the campaign waged for the judiciary ticket named by a committee of lawyers, headed by Joseph H. Choate and former Judge Alton B. Parker. The Tammany and Independence League joint ticket won over the non-partisan candidates by big plu-

State Senator Thomas F. Grady, of Tammany Hall, has been re-elected over Thomas Rock, who has been known in the campaign as "Eight Hour" Rock, and who claimed he had been "tricked" by the Independence League.

Throughout the state there has been a notable falling off in the vote from 1904, which was a presidential year. The Republican ticket showed the greatest loss in this respect, especially in the cities.

There were many odd turns to the balloting. Here in New York it was Richmond borough that defeated Mr. Hearst for mayor a year ago, and it was Brooklyn, with a big plurality, which helped him to make the race so close. Mr. Hearst barely carried Brooklyn Tuesday, but ran ahead in Richmond.

In Schenectady, one of the best organized labor cities in the United States, it was expected Mr. Hearst would have a substantial plurality. The Republican ticket was successful by 374 votes, as against a Higgins plurality of 1621 two years ago.

While both the state senate and assembly will be strongly Republican, the Democrats are claiming that they have made gains.

PRESIDENT RECEIVED RETURNS

His Greatest Interest Was Centered In Gubernatorial Fight in New York.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt eagerly awaited the returns from the elections as they came in over the telegraph wires to the executive offices. After dining with his family on his return from Oyster Bay he hurried to his office, where, with Secretary Root, Postmaster General Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Bacon, Secretary Loeb and Assistant Attorney General Cooley, he scanned the reports furnished him by the Press Association, and by various private sources all over the country. The greatest interest centered in the reports from New York, where the early returns indicated that if Mr. Hughes were elected, the claims of his managers of large majorities for him would be materially reduced. Early in the evening Secretary Root estimated that Mr. Hughes' majority might vary between 60,000 and 75,000. One of the dispatches received by Secretary Root came from the editor of the Press at Utica, in which city the secretary made his only speech of the campaign. This dispatch indicated the re-election of Representative Sherman and the success of Mr. Hughes in Onondaga county by a majority of about 3000.

An early personal telegram to the president said that Hughes had carried Oyster Bay by 152 majority.

MASSACHUSETTS REPUBLICAN

Governor Guild Re-Elected and Entire State Ticket Goes Through.

Boston, Nov. 7.—The Republicans, after a short but spirited campaign, were victorious in the state election, Governor Guild being re-elected by 37,000 plurality. His opponent, District Attorney John B. Moran, of Boston, the candidate of the Democratic and Prohibition party and the Independence League, received a somewhat larger vote than that given the Democratic candidate a year ago.

The Republicans re-elected their entire state ticket, although Lieutenant Governor Draper fell considerably behind Governor Guild. The next legislature will be Republican by the usual large majority in both houses, and this will insure the election of United States Senator W. Murray Crane, who is at present completing a brief term.

The Massachusetts delegation to congress will remain practically the same, although spirited contests in the Fifth, Sixth, Tenth and Eleventh districts made the result in those section doubtful at an early stage of the tabulation.

The outcome of the election was a considerable disappointment to Mr. Moran and his fellow campaigners—E. Gerry Brown, of Brockton, candidate for lieutenant governor, and George Fred Williams, of Dedham.

Big Republican Majority in Michigan.

Detroit, Nov. 7.—Governor Warner and the entire Republican state ticket have been elected by 60,000 to 100,000 majority, the Republican congressional candidates in each of the 12 Michigan districts having been elected, and the Republicans will have a large majority in the state legislature, with a possibility of its entire membership.

Very Small Vote in South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 7.—The election held in South Carolina was without incident and a very small vote was polled. For governor M. F. Ansel, D., and the entire state ticket was elected, the only opposition being J. L. Chandler, who received half a hundred Socialist votes. Seven Democratic congressmen were elected, five without opposition. The Republican nominees in the Fourth and Seventh districts got only a handful of votes.

STUART SWEEPS PENNSYLVANIA

Is Elected Governor By Nearly 100,000 Plurality.

IMMENSE REPUBLICAN GAINS

Latest Returns From Counties Show Heavy Losses to Fusion Candidate, Compared With Berry's Vote—Republicans Carry Philadelphia By 40,000 and Elect Rotan District Attorney.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The most exciting campaign in Pennsylvania in 25 years has ended in a triumph for Edwin S. Stuart, Rep., for governor, over Lewis Emery, Jr., Dem. and Lincoln Party, by a plurality of nearly 100,000.

Aside from the contest for governor and other state officers, the chief interest centered in the battle in Philadelphia for district attorney and in a few of the congressional districts. Members of the house of representatives and county officers were elected in nearly every county, and state senators were chosen in 25 of the 50 districts.

Samuel P. Rotan, R., was elected district attorney in Philadelphia by a vote which will exceed 40,000, defeating D. Clarence Gibboney, who had the support of the reform forces and the Democrats.

The incoming legislature will be strongly Republican, although not so overwhelmingly for that party as it was two years ago.

The new personal registration law, which went into effect since the last election, reduced the normal vote in many of the cities. The corrupt practices act, which also became operative since the last election, also operated to cut down the vote in some localities. The act prohibits the use of money at elections, except for legitimate purposes, and is claimed to have deterred many poll workers from buying votes.

One of the chief issues in the state campaign was the new capitol, which was dedicated on October 4. The Fusionists claimed that several million dollars of overcharges and duplications are represented in furnishing and equipping the building. The Republican candidates pledged themselves if elected to honestly investigate those charges and to place the responsibility for the alleged extravagance where it rightfully belonged.

Of the congressional contests the hottest was that against John Dalzell, one of the Republican floor leaders. Dalzell was opposed by Dr. R. J. Black, who was nominated by the Fusionists because it was thought he would be popular with the labor unions, which are strong in this district.

There were contests against Congressman Acheson in the Washington district; Olmsted in the Dauphin district; Lafaen in the York district; Lilly in the Bradford district, and Dale in the Lackawanna district. Thomas D. Nichols, district president of the United Mine Workers, was the Democratic nominee and was elected over Dale. Deemer was defeated by William B. Wilson, D., national secretary and treasurer of the Mine Workers. John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, made speeches for Nichols and Wilson in their districts.

The state senators who were elected will serve in the next two regular sessions of the legislature, and will vote for a United States senator in the session of 1909, when a successor to Boies Penrose will be chosen. The state was apportioned by the legislature at the extra session, and Tuesday's election was the first under the new apportionment.

State Senators Elected.

The following state senators were elected: 2d district—John M. Scott, R. 6th—F. S. McIlhenny, F.

8th—John T. Murphy, R. 12th—A. B. Roberts, R. 14th—G. Frank Rowland, D. 20th—E. F. James, R. 24th—J. Henry Cockran, D. 26th—A. G. Dewalt, D. 28th—B. Frank Miller, D.; Warren F. Cressman, R. 30th—C. O. Templeton, R. 33d—E. F. Blewitt, D. 34th—G. M. Dimeking, D. 35th—W. C. Miller, R. 36th—J. K. P. Hall, D. 38th—C. H. Kline, R. 40th—R. J. Cunningham, R. 42d—Elliot Rodgers, R. 44th—J. A. Langfitt, R. 46th—D. J. Walton, R. 48th—Willis J. Hallings, R. 50th—J. N. Campbell, R.

THE VOTE IN MARYLAND

Three Republicans and Three Democrats Elected to Congress.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Maryland's delegation in the 60th congress will be three Republicans and three Democrats, proportionately the same as at present, but with a change in two of the districts. Harry B. Wolf, D., popularly known as the "Newsboy" candidate, defeated his Republican opponent, W. W. Johnson, and takes the place of the present incumbent, Frank Wachter, R., who had declined renomination. Wolf is only 25 years old, while his opponent is a veteran in Baltimore politics. The other change was in the First district, where Thomas A. Smith, D., was defeated by William H. Jackson, R., after it is claimed by the Democrats, a lavish use of money by the Republicans.

The labor campaigns against Congressman Mudd told heavily in that portion of the Fifth district within Baltimore city, but was counterbalanced in the counties within the district.

Oklahoma Democratic.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 7.—The constitution of the new state of Oklahoma will be written by Democrats. Vernon H. Whiting, secretary of the Oklahoma Republican committee, concedes the Democrats the three delegates, while Chairman Jesse Dunn, of the Democratic committee, says there will be at least 78 Democratic delegates on the floor of the convention. Republican managers admit that Oklahoma proved a great disappointment. The "unknown" quantity of the Indian territory was a concession to the Democrats, but nine Oklahoma districts, counted on by the Republican leaders, were carried by the opposition. The Osage nation elected two Democrats. The Indians as a general rule favor the Democratic ticket.

ELECTIONS ELSEWHERE

Republicans Retain Control of Congress by Good Majority.

WILL BE NO MATERIAL CHANGE

Democrats Gain Representatives in Some States and Republicans in Others—Nicholas Longworth Re-elected.

Elections were held in 42 states, and while the results in a number of instances were of unusual interest, it may be said that generally speaking there were no great surprises.

Throughout the south the Democratic state and congressional tickets have been elected by the usual majorities. In the west and east the states that were aligned two years ago in the Democratic or Republican columns show no material change, the Democrats making gains in some instances and the Republicans in others. The Republicans retain control of congress by a good majority.

In Chicago it is estimated that the Independence League ticket polled 40,000, but there was a Republican plurality for the state officers.

Michigan, Iowa, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Connecticut, Minnesota, Indiana and Wisconsin have rolled up Republican pluralities, although there was some falling off from the usual vote in Iowa.

Nebraska shows big Republican gains. Ohio also shows Republican gains over the Pattison vote of last year. The Republicans expect a plurality of 70,000 in the state.

The constitution of the new state of Oklahoma will be written by Democrats. The Indians voted the Democratic ticket almost solidly. Oklahoma also went strongly Democratic in choosing delegates to the constitutional convention.

New Mexico and Arizona have voted favorably on the proposition to enter the Union jointly as a single state.

Governor Hoch is re-elected in Kansas by a slightly reduced majority.

The result in Missouri was in doubt at a late hour, the Democrats expecting to gain some of the congressional districts they lost two years ago.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth was re-elected in Cincinnati.

Congressman J. W. Wadsworth, for many years chairman of the house committee on agriculture at Washington, was defeated in the 34th New York district.

The Republicans carried Utah, Wyoming and Washington, and seem to have lost Nevada, while both parties are claiming Colorado.

Congressman Babcock, of Wisconsin, formerly chairman of the Republican congressional committee, failed of election.

In Rhode Island James H. Higgins, D., is elected governor.
