

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper the Badge of Honesty, in the full list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowels and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate, stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equaled. Sugar-coated and easy to take as candy. One to three a dose.

Hang J. G. Rawlings is the Decision.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The supreme court of the United States today affirmed the decision of the Georgia supreme court in the case of John G. Rawlings, under conviction in Lowndes county of that state on the charge of murder, the effect of the decision being to compel the execution of Rawlings unless his lawyers succeed in finding other means of securing a stay of proceedings.

Rawlings, who is a white man and a preacher, was charged with employing negroes to murder a family of neighbors. Two children were decoyed out of the house and shot, but the other members of the family saved their lives by remaining within the shelter of their home.

Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat and if foul, or torpid, or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poison. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea keeps you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Hood Bros.

A Quaker Whiskey Cure.

William Penn was once urging a man he knew to stop drinking to excess, when the man suddenly asked:

"Can you tell me of an easy way to it?"

"Yes," replied Penn readily, "it is just as easy as to open thy hand, friend."

"Convince me of that," the man exclaimed, "and I will promise upon my honor to do as you tell me."

"Well, my friend," Penn answered, "whence thee finds a glass of liquor in thy hand open that hand before the glass touches thy lips, and thee will never drink to excess again."

The man was so struck with the simplicity of the great Quaker's advice that he followed it and reformed.—Ladies' Home Journal.

A GALLANT SEA DOG.

Admiral McCalla and His Tumultuous Career.
Rear Admiral Bowman H. McCalla, who reached the age of sixty-two in June and went on the retired list, has been noted as a very strict disciplinarian, but he has also been noted for his generosity and his bluff good heartedness. His violent temper got him into trouble some years ago, and he was court-martialed on charges of cruelty to subordinates and suspended from the service for three years. On account of his previous deeds of gallantry it was decided in 1891, a year after imposition of his sentence, that he should be restored at once to active service. He had expressed regret for his acts and wished a chance to retrieve his reputation. When the war with Spain occurred Admiral McCalla made such a good record in command of the Marblehead that he was restored to the place he held on the list of officers previous to his suspension. In 1899 he commanded the Newark and aided in the pacification of the Philippines, and in 1900 he co-operated with the British Vice Admiral Seymour in putting a stop to the Boxer troubles in China and in this campaign gained the congratulations of the navy department and encomiums from naval and military authorities all over the world. He received the command of the battleship Kearsarge in 1901. It was while Admiral McCalla was in command of the Marblehead during the Spanish war and off the shore of Cuba that the marines on shore had a stiff fight with the Spaniards. They sent word to him: "Come and take us off. We are getting the worst of it here." The reply the admiral, then a captain, sent back was characteristic. "The only kind of marines I will take on my ship," said he, "will be dead marines." The imperiled men therefore stayed, and they won. Admiral McCalla received a considerable sum as prize money in consideration of his Spanish war record, but instead of retaining it for his own use he made amends for past offenses by giving it all for a naval clubhouse, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., for the benefit of the sailors and marines stationed at Mare Island, San Francisco, where the admiral was for some time in command.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S CROWN.

The Bride of King Alfonso and Her Gifts.
When Princess Victoria Eugenie became Queen Victoria of Spain by her marriage to King Alfonso she received enough presents to fill a museum. The presents from the king himself were worth a large fortune. One of them was the crown of the queens of Spain, which had rested on many fair royal heads before hers. Among Alfonso's presents were several unique pieces of jewelry. One of these was a brooch made in the form of the king's favorite motor car and set in diamonds. The top of the touneau was in rubies, and the door of the car, on being opened, revealed a portrait of Alfonso.

METAL FURNITURE.

The Way to Treat Brass and Enamelled Iron Beds.

"If I had my way with persons who possess brass furniture," said a careful housekeeper, "I should never allow them to touch the metal without gloves of some kind—kid, chamols, rubber or, best of all, oxton flannel, because it is woolly—and by keeping the moist flesh from contact with the sensitively finished surface I should have better chances of keeping the brass bright.
"If the brass is used as decoration on iron beds that are enameled the latter need not be so carefully treated. In fact, I know of no better way of cleaning it than by using lukewarm water and a mild soap, but the greatest precaution should be taken to prevent the brass being touched or rubbed while this cleansing is in process.
"Occasionally the knobs on brass and iron beds come loose from careless pulling about, and if not tightened in time the framework gets faulty, and one has a feeling of insecurity when sleeping in it, and a carpenter or an ironworker is called in to remedy the defect. Now, if a woman only knew what a simple thing it is to remedy the difficulty she would never allow them to get that way, for by screwing the knobs, etc., tight once every two or three days or whenever they appear to be loosening she would not only save herself much discomfort, but the attention would lengthen the life of the bed."

CAYENNE PEPPER. Its Judicious Use in Cooking Brings Good Results.

Comparatively few people are aware that cayenne pepper if used judiciously may be made to add appreciably to the digestibility of the products of the cook's domains.
If prescribed by the doctor and purchased at the drug store it will appear under the name capsicum, but it will be cayenne pepper just the same, and it is wise to begin its use before the time arrives to seek the good offices of a physician.
The tendency of red or cayenne pepper is to draw the blood to the stomach, where it is needed while the digestion of food is taking place. This kind of pepper must not be employed as liberally as black pepper, however, or it will be so much in evidence that it will be impossible to eat the food.
Use it sparingly, and it will help to bring out the flavor of many savory dishes, although its presence will not be detected. Use it in soups, in baked beans, in stews, in hash and in many more complicated culinary products.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To slip the rod of a freshly laundered curtain into place try moistening the hem. The rod will go in easily without damaging the fabric.
Wipe off furniture with a cloth wrung out in hot water before applying furniture polish. A high polish will result and will not show finger marks.
Oil painted walls must be washed with soap and water, using a soft flannel cloth, care being taken to wring it well before using. Use cold water to finish and dry with a linen cloth.
When hemming a new tablecloth, if the edges are slightly dampened with warm water in which some soap has been dissolved they will be soft and much easier to work on when dry.
Rocking chairs are best in other rooms than the invalid's. They are inclined to creak in the first place, and in the second place they make a still person nervous. A large easy chair is really better in any case for any one if nerves are in consideration.

Convenience For the Dressing Table.

While visiting recently at the house of a friend I saw a little homemade convenience, designed to be placed beneath the mirror above the dressing table. It was made of four small cigar boxes screwed together. Each was placed on end, two below and two above. The covers were arranged to open like doors, swinging outward, of course. The top was finished with a scroll work made of the cigar box wood. Very pretty it was, too, and the work of a woman. The doors were furnished with tiny knobs. The whole was to be stained and varnished, to match the table, making a little cabinet pretty enough to grace any lady's dressing table. It was designed to hold toilet bottles or any accessory of the toilet.—Christian Work.

The Menses Theory.

Specialists in children's diseases insist that the old theory that children should be exposed to menses is absolutely wrong. In speaking of it one well known physician says: "Superstition is even more rife in all classes today than it was a hundred years ago. In no case is it more prevalent and disastrous than in the treatment of menses. The medical profession has tried in vain to stamp out the old idea that every child must have menses and that a child therefore might as well be put into the same bed with a brother or sister who is suffering from the complaint."

A Cooking Secret.

The great secret of French cooking is a knowledge of the variety of food to be had, plenty of time to prepare the food and a slow fire. American cooks are in so much of a hurry that when they prepare a meal they imagine that what is necessary is plenty of fuel and a roaring hot fire. With meats this simply bakes or incinerates the fibers instead of permitting the juices to perform their proper functions. And this "hurry up" system is what is, slowly perhaps, but surely, making Americans a race of dyspeptics.
