The people of the county are to be congratulated that the Democrats still rule their affairs. It was the Democratic party who years ago took charge of the county, found the sum of one cent in the treasury, brought order out of chaos, and established affairs upon a sound, economic and satisfactory basis. It will be Democrats who will continue to administer this rule. Republicanism in Johnston County has seen its high tide.

Lecture on the Life of Jerry McAuley.

Rev. J. V. Williams, pastor of the Clayton circuit, lectured at the Methodist church Monday evening, October 29th, under the auspices of the Epworth League, on the Life and Work of Jerry McAuley.

Rev. Mr. Williams has spent a number of years in New York City where he obtained all the facts and the very remarkable career of Jerry McAuley. This man became a confirmed criminal at a very early age in life. He was a drunkard, gambler and a notorious thief, in fact he committed about every crime in the Decalogue except murder. He served three terms in Sing Sing penitentiary, aggregating quite a number of years. His wonderful conversion and the marvelous work he did for Christianity, constitutes a modern chapter in the Acts of the Apostles. The speaker's story of the awful depths of crime and dissipation in the life of Jerry McAuley was told with dramatic effect. But he revealed his climax in describing a religious service held in Sing Sing prison conducted by "Awful" Gardner, a former member of McAuley's gang of thieves, and how McAuley looked and listened and became convinced that a strong power had come into Gardner's life.

The speaker told how a young lady in mission work talked and prayed with Jerry McAuley through the prison bars. He wept and prayed in his lonely cell until there came into his sin-cursed life the power of Christ. He began at once to work among his fellow prisoners and had great success in leading many to Christ. In answer to prayer there came a pardon to him from Gov. Flowers. It is said he left the prison reluctantly where he had been doing such a great work for the prisoners. After he left prison he first led his dissipated wife to Christ, who became a consecrated co-worker with him in founding and managing his great mission in Water Street. This mission is known all over the world, for hundreds and thousands of the most depraved classes have been fed, clothed and saved through its influence. This lecture was very much enjoyed by a large audience. Our people will be glad to have Bro. Williams lecture for us again.

A Sad Death.

Early Saturday morning, October 20th, 1906, death's angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Hinton claiming their oldest son, James Royster. He had been sick since last November. Through all his sickness he never murmured or complained at all and was so patient, kind, and thoughtful of all around especially his invalid mother. He has suffered with asthma since he was six years of age, but no one thought of his having lung trouble until last May. He was under the treatment of three prominent physicians, but gradually grew weaker until Thursday night he had a hemorrhage from which he never recovered, dying Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. All was done for him that loving hands, attentive physicians and kind friends could do, but Jesus knew best. His funeral was preached Sunday afternoon by Elder J. W. Gardner to a large crowd of relatives and friends.

While it is hard to give up one so young, only 21 years old, we feel that God has taken one of His jewels up to live with Him. He was so good and gave such sweet evidences of his love for God. To know him was to love him.

He leaves a father, mother, sister, two brothers and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. May God bless and be with them in this sad hour.

Departed cousin thou hast left us,

And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'Tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

A COUSIN.
